URGE YOUR FELLOW CHRISTIANS TO REMEMBER IN THEIR WILLS THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AND ITS INSTITUTIONS

FORM OF BEQUEST

"I ...., give, devise, and bequeath to the Trustees of Orange Presbytery of the Synod of North Carolina (here insert amount of money or estate bequeathed) for the use of the Master's work as supported by the Presbytery of Orange."

(Here state whether the income from the bequest, or the bequest itself is to be used; the cause for which it is to be used can be stated, or it may be stated that it can be left to the judgment of the Presbytery.)

BEQUEST FOR THE MASTER'S WORK

The Presbytery is sure there are a large number of people who would like to leave at least a part of their money or property where it will be a perpetual help in the work of the Master. It therefore suggests to these friends that in their wills they make their bequests to the Trustees of Orange Presbyery Synod of North Carolina, to be held by them as trust funds, and to be invested by them in good securities; the income from the investments to be given by the Presbytery, from time to time, to that cause or institution which in its judgment appears to be the most deserving.

"There are many advantages in leaving your bequests in this way:

"1. The Trustees are good business men and the security of the funds will be safeguarded.

"2. The Presbytery can judge better ten or fifty years from the present time than you can now, where your money will do the most good at that time.

A PROPOSED STRUCTURE FOR ORANGE PRESBYTERY

I. THE NATURE AND MISSION OF THE CHURCH

God, who chose us to be His people, calls us to serve Him through worship and work. Therefore the Church must examine its common life, and Christians their private lives, to the end that all may live as servants of God obeying His commands.

Christian worship depends upon and is a response to the presence of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and to what God has done for confession, thanksgiving, petition and obedience.

The Church worships as believers, sharing a common life of faith, hope, love and commitment, assemble in common public worship. Christians worship God privately as individuals and families. We worship always as members of the Body of Christ.

The work of the Church is a response to God's grace and is done in obedience to the will of God as this will is made known in Scripture. It is expressed in proclamation of and witness to the Word of God, and deeds of love and mercy. Through this service Christians seek the fulfillment of the divine purposes in society and history.

(Preface, The Directory for the Worship and Work of the Church.)

The Presbytery of Orange, as the dynamic connection of the Presbyterian Church, U.S. with the congregations and ministers of Alamance, Caswell, Chatham, Durham, Franklin, Granville, Guilford, Halifax, Johnston, Nash, Northampton, Orange, Person, Randolph, Rockingham, Vance, Wake and Warren Counties, seeks to carry out the above statement in all its forms, structures and programs.

The Presbytery has as its primary task to reflect the redemptive mission of Jesus Christ in all its functions as an Agency of Review, Sharing, Guidance, Training, Innovation, Linking and Pastoral oversight.

Presbytery is a reviewing agency, evaluating its words and deeds that they are obedient to the will of God.

Presbytery is a sharing agency, sharing with congregations and ministers its experience and insight in regard to the best use of resources and energies in witnessing to the Lordship of Christ in its locale.

Presbytery is a guiding agency, challenging congregations and ministers to use their full capacities in meeting their mission in being the servant community.

Presbytery is an innovative agency, initiating and carrying out imaginative forms of ministry which could not normally be accomplished through the limited resources of the parish.

Presbytery is a linking agency, binding Christians to Christ, higher courts to lower, local churches to each other, other Christian bodies in cooperation, in ONE mission of the Church.

Presbytery is a pastoral agency, providing whatever support, insight or counseling may be needed by its sessions and ministers.

Presbytery is a training agency, providing whatever education, resources or personnel necessary to accomplish its mission and the mission of its member churches.

Because mission must determine form, Presbytery must remain flexible in its attitude toward structure, responding to current opportunities for fulfilling its mission. While maintaining the integrity of the interconnected body, the Church does not exist for selfish reasons but for the service of God and to make visible the love of God at work in the world. Therefore, it must be capable of acting quickly and decisively in the Name of Christ. It must be ready to follow its Lord into the uncertain future, willing to risk all, even its organizational life, in obedience to Him.

II. THE STRUCTURE OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Orange Presbytery carries out its mission through three divisions: The Division of Education and Mission, The Division of Elders, and The Division of Court Operations. It exercises oversight of these three divisions through a Council. In addition, a Commission on the Church and it Ministry and a Commission on Presbytery's Minutes are empowered to act on behalf of Presbytery in certain limited areas.

THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION

The Division of Education and Mission acts primarily as a sharing, guiding, training, and innovative agency. It is headed by a General Presbyter, who may be either a Teaching or Ruling Elder, and is composed of (1) Committee on Education and (2) Committee on Mission. The chairman of each committee together with the General Presbyter constitute a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Committee on Education shares its experience with and gives guidance to congregations in meeting their mission. It is concerned with commitment, education, home and family nurture, worship, service, witness and evangelism, and the physical health of the congregations and their members. The entire thrust of its work is to help congregations improve their mission by improving continuing programs as well as developing new programs or methods. It operates Presbytery's camps and conference grounds.

The Committee on Mission is an innovative agency, carrying out direct mission in such areas as urban ministry, town and country ministry, media ministry, new church development, campus Christian life, inter-church relations, and any other forms of experimental ministry. It gives guidance to urban councils, shares its experience with aid-receiving churches in improving ministry in town and country, establishes new churches, develops new techniques of ministry through use of mass media of newspapers, radio and television, links its work to the college campus, actively cooperates with other Christian bodies in ministry, and continuously tries new forms of ministry, including research, oversight and evaluation.

THE DIVISION OF ELDERS

The Division of Elders acts primarily as a reviewing, training, and pastoral agency. It is headed by a General Pastor, who is a Teaching Elder and is composed of (1) Committee on the Session and its Work, (2) Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations, and (3) Committee on the Non-Parish Teaching Elder. The chairman of each committee together with the General Pastor constitute a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Committee on the Session and its Work reviews sessional records and the minister's work. At the invitation of the session or at its own initiative, it meets with the session of a church. Each church in the Presbytery would be visited at least once every three years. Before any visit, the session would be asked to conduct a self-evaluation of the progress of the Kingdom in the congregation and the community. All committee findings go to the Commission on the Church and its Ministry. This committee is responsible for encouraging the continuing education of teaching elders and the training of church officers.

The Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations encourages those called by God to ministry to respond positively to that call. It counsels with and gives guidance to them as they prepare themselves for service. It oversees any in-service training. This committee is responsible for recommendations to Presbytery regarding calls or other work, counseling with sessions concerning supply ministers (Stated, Interim, or Occasional) and counseling with pastoral nominating committees concerning pastoral calls. This committee examines all candidates for ordination and all ministers applying for membership in the Presbytery.

The Committee on the Non-Parish Teaching Elder exercises Presbytery's concern for the ministry carried out by teaching elders who do not have supporting sessions.

THE DIVISION OF COURT OPERATIONS

The Division of Court Operations is primarily a sharing and linking agency. It is headed by a Stated Clerk and Treasurer who, with staff assistance, personally performs many of the functions of the Division. Preferably, the Stated Cerk and Treasurer would be a layman, familiar with both business and Presbyterian polity. The Division is composed of (1) Docket and Liaison Committee, (2) Finance Committee, and (3) Worship Committee. The chairman of the Docket and Liaison Committee and the chairman of the Finance Committee together with the Stated Clerk and Treasurer constitute a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Docket and Liaison committee prepares the docket for each stated meeting of Presbytery. The docket will be submitted to the Council for their advice and consent at least two weeks before each stated meeting of Presbytery. The Stated Clerk and Treasurer will make available for study to representatives and members of Presbytery pertinent divisional reports, recommendations, and the docket at least one week prior to each stated meeting of Presbytery. After each meeting of Presbytery, stated, called or adjourned, this same group of people constitute Presbytery's Commission to approve the minutes of the previous meeting. After approval, the Stated Clerk will be authorized to print and distribute them. This committee communicates decisions of higher courts and information from various Presbyterian agencies to the appropriate parts of Presbytery. It also communicates information from any part of Presbytery to higher courts or their agencies.

The Finance Committee hears from the various divisions and agencies of Presbytery their requests for funds and prepares an appropriate budget. The budget will be submitted first to Council for their approval and then to Presbytery for their approval. This committee reviews and approves the total budget of aid-receiving churches before Presbytery benevolent funds can be released. This committee arranges for necessary audits and reports the results to Presbytery through the Council. This committee supervises deferred gifts, has responsibility for the maintenance of the physical property of Presbytery, will be in charge of any Presbytery-wide fund raising campaigns, and will constitute Presbytery's link to the Glade Valley School.

The Worship Committe will have charge of all worship services at any meeting of Presbytery.

THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

The Council of Presbytery consists of sixteen voting members and five ex-officio non-voting members. The Chairman of the Council, who is a voting member, shall be elected annually by Presbytery. No individual shall serve more than three successive terms as Chairman. There shall be three classes of three each; Presbytery shall elect a class annually for three year terms. Of these nine at-large members, at least five must be laymen. The Committee on Education and the Committee on Mission of the Division of Education and Mission shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Committee on the Session and its Work and the Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Docket and Liaison Committee and the Finance Committee of the Division of Court Operations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. All of these representatives serve both on the respective committees and the Council. They shall be elected annually and no individual shall serve more than three successive terms. The General Presbytery, the General Pastor, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer, the Chairman of the Commission on the Church and its Ministry, and the Moderator of Presbytery shall all be advisory non-voting members of the Council.

The major responsibility of the Council will be to coordinate the work of the three Divisions. The Council will have a Personnel Committee to make recommendations to it and Presbytery concerning the positions of General Presbyter, General Pastor, and Stated Clerk and Treasurer.

PRESBYTERY COMMISSIONS

The Commission on the Church and its Ministry exercises pastoral concern by visiting churches to inquire into and settle difficulties, especially those arising out of relationships between teaching elders and churches. No person can simultaneously serve on both the Committee on the Session and its Work and the Commission on the Church and its Ministry.

The Commission on Presbytery's Minutes has been described above under the Docket and Liaison Committee of the Division of Court Operation.

OTHER COMMITTEES

Presbytery shall elect a Nominating Committee to recommend those people who are to serve on any of Presbytery's committees or commissions.

The Trustees of Presbytery shall hold legal titles of real estate and other property in the name of Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE INTERIM COUNCIL TO ORANGE AND GRANVILLE PRESBYTERIES IN JOINT ADJOURNED MEETING

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

BURLINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA

NOVEMBER 16, 1971

This report contains some necessary narrative in order to clarify the nature of the task assigned the Interim Council, the actions taken and the recommendations that are made to this court.

I. BACKGROUND

The Interim Council was authorized by the Joint Meeting of the merging Presbyteries of Orange and Granville, March 23, 1971 in the following manner:

The Report of the Joint Special Commission of the two Presbyteries was approved with these recommendations:

(1) Presbytery give preliminary approval to the structure outlined in the Report of the Restructuring Committee with final approval set for the first Presbytery meeting of 1973.

(2) That both Presbyteries maintain their present offices until the end of 1971.

(3) That in the merged Presbytery, the present executive positions not be retained; however, the people presently in these positions would be eligible to apply for the new executive positions. Also, at the end of 1971, the present office staffs will be released but eligible for rehiring upon application.

(4) That Orange and Granville Presbyteries continue to maintain their present office structure until January 1, 1972 and that we recognize that the merged Presbytery has authority to take appropriate action on matters concerning structure and personnel of the new Presbytery beginning as of this date, March 23, 1971.

(5) That an Interim Council of fourteen (14), seven from Granville and Orange Presbyteries respectively, be appointed today to function in the following way:

   a. Receive applications for executive positions and make recommendations to the merged Presbytery regarding employment of executive positions as soon as possible.
   b. Begin plans for budget for 1972.
   c. Make recommendations to the new Presbytery for a location of the merged Presbytery Office.
   d. Work with committees of both Presbyteries to facilitate a smooth transition.
   e. Deal with any other problem which develops during the transition.
   f. That the Interim Council be convened within the next 30 days of this date, the Reverend J. P. G. Moffett, acting as Convener.

(6) That the Presbytery instruct the Interim Council to oversee the joint meetings of appropriate similar committees for mutual sharing and planning for the transition to combined work.

II. THE TASK

A. Materials and Guidelines

The Interim Council has met during the eight months of its existence a total of thirteen times, each meeting consuming from 3½ to 8 hours. Attendance and participation by the members has been faithful, responsible, diligent and in a prevailing spirit of prayerful concern for the seriousness and difficulty of our assigned task.

Much time has been spent in study and interpretation of the Restructuring Committee Report, which by approval of the Joint Meeting, March 23, is our "Manual of Operation." This Restructuring Committee Report contains the following major emphasis:

1. The Nature and Mission of the Church
2. The Structure of Orange Presbytery

The Division of Education and Mission
The Division of Elders
The Division of Court Operations
The Council of Presbytery
Presbytery Commissions
Other Committees

3. The Officers of Orange Presbytery
4. The Meetings of Orange Presbytery
5. Amendments

Helpful diagrams showing the subcommittee structure and relationships within the three Divisions and in the framework of the new Orange Presbytery structure, were furnished by the joint Restructuring Committee.

B. Procedure

The Interim Council has functioned by sub-committees assigned specific tasks in carrying out the duties assigned by the merging Presbyteries.

1. Using the Restructuring Report outlined above as our manual and guideline, subcommittees prepared Job Descriptions for the three executive positions that are authorized for the New Orange Presbytery. These were revised by the whole Council membership for their present use.
The three executive positions are:

General Presbyter, responsible for the Division of Education and Mission

General Pastor, responsible for the Division of Elders

Stated Clerk and Treasurer, responsible for the Division of Court Operations

Each position has been described in the Job Description in terms of Characteristics of the Position, Major Responsibilities, and Supervision of Staff

Provision has been made also for secretarial and other staff employees. Salary range and other benefits have been specified for the positions.

2. As directed by the merging Presbyteries, the Interim Council has notified the executives and their staff personnel of both presbytery offices that:

"Both presbytery offices be maintained until the end of 1971. In the merged Presbytery the present executive positions will not be maintained; however the persons presently in those positions would be eligible to apply for the new executive positions. Also, at the end of 1971, the present office staffs will be released, but eligible for rehiring upon application."

The Interim Council also requested that the present Presbytery Office staffs of both presbyteries be retained through the transition period with salaries guaranteed through February 29, 1972.

3. Notice has been given the two Camp Directors at New Hope and Presbyterian Point, respectively, that they be retained as part of New Orange Presbytery staff of the Division of Education and Mission, through September 30, 1972.

III. PROGRESS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Subcommittees were assigned to bring in recommendations in the following areas:

SITES
PROGRAM PERSONNEL

The Interim Council as a whole made final decisions in arriving at recommendations in all of these areas.

A. PROGRESS

In the course of our study and interpretation of the Report of the Restructuring Committee on the Nature and Mission of the Church, and its restructuring strategy for the New Orange Presbytery, there have been occasions when serious questions were raised as to just how this new and untried concept should be implemented. The task of formulating adequate Job Descriptions has been formidable and at times frustrating. Resolution of the working relationships between the three executives has not been easily analyzed. The question has been raised at times whether or not the new Presbytery should consider a different philosophy and concept of restructuring the Presbytery for its tasks.

However, the Interim Council has not presumed to answer this question, but rather to proceed with our assigned task. This we have done to the best of our ability within the limits that time and circumstance have allowed. Thus, we make these narrative explanations of our proceedings in order that members of this court may have accurate understanding of our task and endeavors to accomplish it. While our task has not been completed, we have arrived at the point in time and progress that we feel it necessary to report to the merging presbyteries in this Adjourned Meeting, with our recommendations, and for further instructions for completion of our task.

We will make the recommendations thus far accomplished as follows:

B. RECOMMENDATIONS

Ruling elder George Elliott, chairman, Committee on Sites, presented the following information and recommendation:

1. Sites—Granville Presbytery does not own any office facility.

Inventory has been taken of furniture and other equipment belonging to Granville Presbytery, to be either used or appropriately disposed of in the interest of New Orange Presbytery.

Orange Presbytery owns property in Greensboro. In order to locate the offices of the New Orange Presbytery in a suitable facility and as near the population and geographical center as communication and other conveniences require, and after thorough investigation of other possible locations, the Interim Council has taken the following action:

"WE RECOMMEND THAT ORANGE PRESBYTERY SECURE UP TO 3,000 SQUARE FEET OF OFFICE SPACE AT $5.00 PER SQUARE FOOT IN THE SOUTHERN BELL BUILDING AT HOLLY HILL MALL, BURLINGTON, N. C., AND THAT THE PHYSICAL DETAILS OF THE SPACE BE WORKED OUT BY THE SITES SUBCOMMITTEE, INCLUDING A PRORATA FORMULA FOR HALL AND REST ROOM SPACE AND THE SECURING OF SHORT TERM LEASE AGREEMENT WITH PROVISION FOR AN OPTION TO LEASE FOR AN ADDITIONAL THREE AND FIVE YEAR PERIOD.

"WE RECOMMEND THAT PRESBYTERY GRANT AUTHORITY TO THE TRUSTEES TO HAVE THE OFFICE PROPERTY IN GREENSBORO APPRAISED BY COMPETENT APPRAISERS OF REAL ESTATE, PLACE THE PROPERTY ON THE MARKET, AND CONSUMMATE THE SALE AS SOON AS FEASIBLE: OR

IF NOT FEASIBLE FOR SALE, TO LEASE THE PROPERTY: AND FURTHER, THAT THE PRINCIPAL GAINED BY THE SALE BE INVESTED INTACT, WITH THE INTEREST BEING USED TO DEFRAY RENTAL EXPENSES OF A NEW OFFICE, OR THE INCOME FROM LEASING THE PROPERTY IN GREENSBORO BE USED TO DEFRAY THE RENTAL EXPENSES."

The following resolution was adopted:

"Be it resolved that Orange Presbytery and Granville Presbytery meeting in joint session at the First Presbyterian Church in Burlington, N. C. on November 16, 1971, authorize the Trustees of both Presbyteries to sign a lease for approximately 3,000 square feet of floor space in the Southern Bell Building in the Holly Hill Shopping area of Burlington, N. C. and owned by Bill Price, at an annual rental not to exceed $16,000 per year. The rent includes janitorial services and all utilities except telephone. The lease shall be for a term of 2 years with the privilege of renewal for 8 years by the new Presbytery of Orange."

This resolution was adopted.

2. Budget—Ruling elder James Cates, chairman, Committee on Budget presented the projected budget of New Orange Presbytery. The projected budget was adopted (See page 31).

3. Program—The Christian Education and Church Extension Committees of both presbyteries under guidance of their respective chairmen, all members of the Interim Council, have made appropriate plans and projections to facilitate a smooth transition.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

a. The Interim Council recommends that the Nominating Committee be requested to nominate a Temporary Steering Committee for each of the Presbytery Division (i.e., Education and Mission, 15 persons; Elders, 12 persons; Court Operations, 9 persons; general 50/50; geographically and lay/clergy.

b. That these Temporary Steering Committees be instructed to begin formulation of Divisional programs and with the Council of Presbytery begin developing such subsequent structure as may become needful for the total ministry of the Presbytery.

c. That the Nominating Committee be instructed to nominate to Presbytery the chairman and the nine members of the Council, according to the plan agreed upon at the Joint Meeting of the presbyteries March 23, 1971.

4. Personnel—Rev. Lewis Bledsoe, chairman, presented the recommendation of the Committee on Personnel which was adopted.

RECOMMENDATION:

That Orange Presbytery call Mrs. Joyce Phillips Bauer as PRESBYTERY OFFICE ADMINISTRATOR-TREASURER for a term of three (3) years beginning January 1, 1972. The terms of the call to be:

A. Annual Salary of $10,000.
B. Two weeks vacation
C. Group Life and Major Medical Insurance for employee and family
D. 8% of salary base into EAF for employee retirement
E. Annual review of the terms of call
F. Opportunities for Continuing Education

The Interim Council is following guidelines in the area of application and consideration of executive position persons.

A subcommittee receives and processes applications and recommendations; uses a dossier form applicable to all persons considered, which includes a statement of their credentials and references; uses a questionaire in following up the references; compiles the data on each person for presentation to the Interim Council.

Prospective candidates have been sought from the Boards of National Ministries, Christian Education, and the Committee on the Minister and His Work. All pastors and Sessions in the two presbyteries have received letters seeking their suggestions. Existing Executive Secretaries of Synods and the Seminaries have been sources of suggestions. The Interim Council as a whole reviews the processed data, and conducts the interviews, and determines the candidates to be recommended (or nominated) to the merged Presbytery.

Much time has been spent in the area of interviewing candidates for the positions of General Presbyter, General Pastor, and Stated Clerk and Treasurer. Consideration has been given to recommending some variation in the description and division of duties regarding the office of Stated Clerk or Treasurer. The Interim Council has authorized recommendations in one or more of these positions, contingent upon satisfactory agreement with the candidates regarding terms of their possible employment. If these contingencies are satisfactorily concluded in time to permit specific persons to be recommended, it will be done.

IV. CONCLUSION

It is evident that the Interim Council has not completed fully the assignment of this Court. The Interim Council will continue to pursue to appropriate accomplishment the incomplete items in this assignment, unless otherwise instructed by the merging presbyteries.

We make these recommendations to this Adjourned Meeting of the merging presbyteries.

Rev. Charles Carter, Chairman, presented the report of the Committee on Nominations. The recommendations were considered seriatim, adopted and the report as a whole was adopted. (Report attached)

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESTRUCTURING

Ruling elder Malcolm Williams, chairman, presented the Manual of the New Orange Presbytery for 1973 which was amended to read "ordinarily" a teaching elder (under the Division of Elders) and was adopted.

I. THE NATURE AND MISSION OF THE CHURCH

God, who chose us to be His people, calls us to serve Him through worship and work. Therefore the Church must examine its common life, and Christians their private lives, to the end that all may live as servants of God obeying His commands.

Christian worship depends upon and is a response to the presence of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and to what God has done for us and for our salvation, which we acknowledge by acts and adoration, confession, thanksgiving, petition and obedience.

The Church worships as believers, sharing a common life of faith, hope, love and commitment, assemble in common public worship. Christians worship God privately as individuals and families. We worship always as members of the Body of Christ.

The work of the Church is a response to God's grace and is done in obedience to the will of God as this will is made known in Scripture. It is expressed in proclamation of and witness to the Word of God, and deeds of love and mercy. Through this service Christians seek the fulfillment of the divine purposes in society and history.

(Preface, The Directory for the Worship and Work of the Church.)

The Presbytery of Orange, as the dynamic connection of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. with the congregations and ministers of Alamance, Caswell, Chatham, Durham, Franklin, Granville, Guilford, Halifax, Johnston, Nash, Northampton, Orange, Person, Randolph, Rockingham, Vance, Wake and Warren Counties, seeks to carry out the above statement in all its forms, structures, and programs.

The Presbytery has as its primary task to reflect the redemptive mission of Jesus Christ in all its functions as an Agency of Review, Sharing, Guidance, Training, Innovation, Linking and Pastoral oversight.

Presbytery is a reviewing agency, evaluating its words and deeds that they are obedient to the will of God.

Presbytery is a sharing agency, sharing with congregations and ministers its experience and insight in regard to the best use of resources and energies in witnessing to the Lordship of Christ in its locale.

Presbytery is a guiding agency, challenging congregations and ministers to use their full capacities in meeting mission in being the servant community.

Presbytery is an innovative agency, initiating and carrying out imaginative forms of ministry which could not normally be accomplished through the limited resources of the parish.

Presbytery is a linking agency, binding Christians to Christ, higher courts to lower, local churches to each other, other Christian bodies in cooperation, in ONE mission of the Church.

Presbytery is a pastoral agency, providing whatever support, insight or counseling may be needed by its sessions and ministers.

Presbytery is a training agency, providing whatever education, resources or personnel necessary to accomplish its mission and the mission of its member churches.

Because mission must determine form, Presbytery must remain flexible in its attitude toward structure, responding to current opportunities for fulfilling its mission. While maintaining the integrity of the interconnected body, the Church does not exist for selfish reasons but for the service of God and to make visible the love of God at work in the world. Therefore, it must be capable of acting quickly and decisively in the Name of Christ. It must be ready to follow its Lord into the uncertain future, willing to risk all, even its organizational life, in obedience to Him.

II. THE STRUCTURE OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Orange Presbytery carries out its mission through three divisions: The Division of Education and Mission, The Division of Elders, and The Division of Court Operations. It exercises oversight of these three divisions through a Council. In addition, a Commission on the Church and its Ministry and a Commission on Presbytery's Minutes are empowered to act on behalf of Presbytery in certain limited areas.

THE DIVISION OF ELDERS

The Division of Elders acts primarily as a reviewing, training, and pastoral agency. It is headed by a General Pastor, who is ordinarily a Teaching Elder and is composed of (1) Committee on the Session and its Work, (2) Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examination, and (3) Committee on the Non-Parish Teaching Elder. The chairman of each committee together with the General Pastor constitute a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Committee on the Session and its Work reviews sessional records and the minister's work. At the invitation of the session or at its own initiative, it meets with the session of a church. Each church in the Presbytery would be visited at least once every three years. Before any visit, the session would be asked to conduct a self-evaluation of the progress of the Kingdom in the congregation and community. All committee findings go the Commission on the Church and its Ministry. This committee is responsible for encouraging the continuing education of teaching elders and the training of church officers.

The Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations encourages those called by God to ministry to respond positively to that call. It counsels with and gives guidance to them as they prepare themselves for service. It oversees any in-service training. This committee is responsible for sessions concerning supply ministers (Stated, Interim, or Occasional) and counseling with pastoral nominating committees concerning pastoral calls. This committee examines all candidates for ordination and all ministers applying for membership in the Presbytery.

The Committee on the Non-Parish Teaching Elder exercises Presbytery' concern for the ministry carried out by teaching elders who do not have supporting sessions.

THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION

The Division of Education and Mission acts primarily as a sharing, guiding, training, and innovative agency. It is headed by a General Presbyter, who may be either a Teaching or Ruling Elder, and is composed of (1) Committee on Education and (2) Committee on Mission. The chairman of each committee together with the General Presbyter constitute a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Committee on Education shares its experience with and gives guidance to congregations in meeting their mission. It is concerned with commitment, education, home and family nurture, worship, service, witness and evangelism, and the physical health of the congregations and their members. The entire thrust of its work is to help congregations improve their mission by improving continuing programs as well as developing new programs or methods. It operates Presbytery's camps and conference grounds.

The Committee on Mission is an innovative agency, carrying out direct mission in such areas as urban ministry, town and country ministry, media ministry, new church development, campus Christian life, inter-church relations, and any other forms of experimental ministry. It gives guidance to urban councils, shares its experience with aid-receiving churches in improving ministry in town and country, establishes new churches, developes new techniques of ministry through use of mass media of newspapers, radio and television, links its work to the college campus, actively cooperates with other Christian bodies in ministry, and continuously tries new forms of ministry, including research, oversight and evaluation.

THE DIVISION OF COURT OPERATIONS

The Division of Court Operations is primarily a sharing and linking agency. It is headed by a Stated Clerk and Treasurer who, with staff assistance, personally performs many of the functions of the Division. Preferably, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer would be a Ruling Elder, familiar with business. The Division is composed of (1) Docket and Liaison Committee, (2) Finance Committee, and (3) Worship Committee. The chairman of the Docket and Liaison Committee and the chairman of the Finance Committee together with the Stated Clerk and Treasurer constitute a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Docket and Liaison committee prepares the docket for each stated meeting of Presbytery. The docket will be submitted to the Council for their advice and consent at least two weeks before each stated meeting of Presbytery. The Stated Clerk and Treasurer will make available for study to representatives and members of Presbytery pertinent divisional reports, recommendations, and the docket at least one week prior to each stated meeting of Presbytery. After each meeting of Presbytery, stated, called or adjourned, this same group of people constitute Presbytery's Commission to approve the minutes of the previous meeting. After approval, the Stated Clerk will be authorized to print and distribute them. This committee communicates decisions of higher courts and information from various Presbyterian agencies to the appropriate parts of Presbytery. It also communicates information from any part of Presbytery to higher courts of their agencies.

The Finance Committee hears from the various divisions and agencies of Presbytery their requests for funds and prepares an appropriate budget. The budget will be submitted first to Council for their approval and then to Presbytery for their approval. This committee reviews and approves the total budget of aid-receiving churches before Presbytery benevolent funds can be released. This committee arranges for necessary audits and reports the results to Presbytery through the Council. This committee supervises deferred gifts, has responsibility for the maintenance of the physical property of Presbytery, will be in charge of any Presbytery-wide fund raising campaigns and will constitute Presbytery's link to the Glade Valley School.

The Worship Committee will have charge of all worship servies at any meeting of Presbytery.

THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

The Council of Presbytery consists of sixteen voting members and five ex-officio non-voting members. The Chairman of the Council, who is a voting member, shall be elected annually by Presbytery. No individual shall serve more than three successive terms as Chairman. There shall be three classes of three each: Presbytery shall elect a class annually for three year terms. Of these nine at-large members, at least five must be laymen. The Committee on Education and the Committee on Mission of the Division of Education and Mission shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Committee on the Session and its Work and the Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Docket and Liaison Committee and the Finance Committee of the Division of Court Operations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. All of these representatives serve both on the respective committees and the council. They shall be elected annually and no individual shall serve more than three successive terms. The General Presbyter, The General Pastor, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer, the Chairman of the Commission on the Church and its Ministry, and the Moderator of Presbytery shall all be advisory non-voting members of the Council.

The major responsibility of the Council will be to coordinate the work of the three Divisions. The Council will have a Personnel Committee to make recommendations to it and Presbytery concerning the positions of General Presbyter, General Pastor, and Stated Clerk and Treasurer.

PRESBYTERY COMMISSIONS

The Commission on the Church and its Ministry exercises pastoral concern by visiting churches to inquire into and settle difficulties, especially those arising out of relationships between teaching elders and churches. No person can simultaneously serve on both the Committee on the Session and its Work and the Commission on the Church and its Ministry.

The Commission on Presbytery's Minutes has been described above under the Docket and Liaison Committee of the Division of Court Operation.

OTHER COMMITTEES

Presbytery shall elect a Nominating Committee to recommend those people who are to serve on any of Presbytery's committees or commissions. The term of office for each member of a committee or commission of Presbytery shall be three years with one-third of the committee or commission being chosen each year. No member of a committee or commission shall be eligible to succeed himself until a year after the expiration of his term. The number of elders and laymen on each committee and commission of Presbytery shall be determined by the Nominating Committee with the approval of Presbytery.

The Trustees of Presbytery shall hold legal titles of real estate and other real property in the name of Presbytery.

Standing Committees may be appointed by the Moderator at each session of Presbytery for consideration of matters specific to that meeting. These committees shall expire at the adjournment of the session. They shall be given their duties by Presbytery when they are appointed.

Ad Interim Committees may be appointed by the Council of Presbytery with the authority of presbytery. These committees shall not be concerned with matters which are exclusively part of the responsibility of an existing Division.

III. THE OFFICERS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Presbytery shall nominate a Moderator at the June stated meeting. He shall be elected at the October stated meeting. He shall preside at each meeting of Presbytery held during the next calendar year. The Moderator nominated in June would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. The Moderator shall be the official spokesman for Presbytery when Presbytery is not in session.

Presbytery shall nominate a Chairman of Presbytery's Council at the June stated meeting. He shall be elected at the October stated meeting. He shall preside at all meetings of the Council held during the next calendar year. He would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. He shall assist the outgoing chairman in making a smooth transition in the workings of the Council.

The General Presbyter, the General Pastor, and the Stated Clerk and Treasurer are employees of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by Presbytery's Council, which will also review them annually. All other employees of Presbytery will be part of one of the three Divisions of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by the Chairman of their Division, either the General Pastor, General Presbyter, or the Stated Clerk and Treasurer. They shall review these job descriptions annually.

IV. THE MEETINGS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

There shall be four stated meetings of Presbytery each year in January, April, June and October. The Docket and Liaison committee shall be responsible for setting the details of Presbytery's meetings, including the dates, with approval by Presbytery's Council. The major emphasis of the January, April, and October stated meetings shall be the Divisions of Court Operations, Elders, and Education and Mission respectively.

Presbytery shall be governed in its meetings, in order of priority, by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., this Manual of Orange Presbytery, the Parliamentary Rules adopted by the General Assembly of 1866, and by Roberts "Rules of Order" revised. Any provision of the above not required by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. may be temporarily suspended by a 2/3 majority vote of the members present.

V. AMENDMENTS

During 1972, each Committee will prepare standing rules for its own operation. These rules will be reviewed annually, customarily at the first meeting of the calendar year. Once adopted, these standing rules can be changed by majority vote of the Committee at any time.

Any Presbyterian can propose a reorganization of a Division of Presbytery. Such proposal with appropriate comments by the chairman of that Division can be submitted to Presbytery at any stated meeting. If the chairman of the Division approves the reorganization, it will go into effect at the conclusion of the next stated meeting of Presbytery unless Presbytery disapproves of it. If the chairman of the Division disapproves of it, it will not go into effect unless Presbytery approves it. Such approval can not be given until the next stated meeting of Presbytery after it has been submitted.

Any Presbyterian can propose a reorganization of Presbytery. Such proposal with appropriate comments by Presbytery's Council can be submitted to Presbytery at any stated meeting. It will not go into effect unless Presbytery approves it. Such approval can not be given until the next stated meeting after it has been submitted to Presbytery.

Any reorganization of Presbytery or other change in this Manual voted on by Presbytery shall require a 2/3 vote of the members present to be effective.

It was suggested that the Manual be sent to the Permanent Judicial Commission of the General Assembly. A copy was sent to this Commission.

Reverend J. P. G. Moffett, Chairman, presented the report of the Interim Council of the Presbyteries of Granville and Orange which was adopted:

The Interim Council has met six times since last reporting to the Adjourned Meeting of the merging Presbyteries, November 16, 1971. We have continued to seek to secure the best qualified persons available for the executive positions in the structure of New Orange Presbytery.

The position of Presbytery Office Administrator and Treasurer has been filled by Mrs. Joyce Bauer, following action of the Adjourned Meeting of November 16, 1971. Also, by the same action, Miss Gail York is presently filling the office of Secretary and Bookkeeper.

The new Presbytery office authorized by the November 16, 1971 Adjourned Meeting to be located in the Holly Hill Mall area in Burlington, will be ready for occupancy not later than January 31, and has been leased for two years.

At the December 13, 1971 meeting of the Interim Council, the following actions were taken and communicated to the staff persons affected.

In reply to several inquiries regarding the termination of the Office Executive Secretary, Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Old Orange Presbytery, the following recommendation was made:

(1) That the Council of Orange Presbytery continue to C. Linwood Cheshire until June 30, 1972, or until such date that he accepts a call, if sooner than July 1, 1972, his salary compensation on the basis of an annual amount of $11,550, his use of the manse with utilities, 10% participation in the Ministers' Annuity Fund, group life and major medical insurance as provided by the Board of Annuities and Relief, participation in Social Security, and participation in disability insurance;

(2) That the Present Council of (Old) Orange Presbytery be requested to close the present office in Greensboro by January 31, 1972, including a complete audit; and

(3) That the salaries for the present employees of both Presbyteries being employed by the new Presbytery start January 1, and that earned but unused vacation time for 1971 be carried over into 1972.

The Interim Council meeting January 3, 1972, approved the following recommendations to Orange Presbytery:

(1) That Mrs. Joyce Bauer, recently ordained as a Ruling Elder in the Milner Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, be given the title of Stated Clerk and Treasurer of Orange Presbytery, and be authorized to fulfill the duties of this position; and

(2) That the Interim Council be dissolved in view of the Orange Presbytery Council now functioning and having authority to complete the unfinished agenda assigned to the Interim Council.

REPORT OF THE PERSONNEL COMMITTEE — INTERIM COUNCIL

The report of the Personnel Committee of the Interim Council was presented by Reverend Lewis Bledsoe, chairman. This report was received as information.

COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

The report of the Council of Orange Presbytery was presented by the chairman, Reverend Wallace M. Alston, Jr. Actions of the Council are as follows:

The Council of the Presbytery of Orange met in the First Presbyterian Church, Durham, North Carolina, Thursday, December 30, 1971, at 7:30 p.m. The functions and procedure of the Council, as related to the Manual of the Presbytery, were discussed. Members of the Council reflected on Council needs and concurred that Orange Council would assume more responsibility than the previous Orange-Granville Councils had assumed in the past.

The three Executive Team Staff of Orange Presbytery will be directly responsible to the Council and the Council in turn will be responsible to the Presbytery of Orange.

It will be the task of the Council to assume a role of leadership regarding proprieties, goals, objectives, and mission of the Presbytery. The Council will act in a similar position as an Executive Committee of Orange Presbytery. Other duties of the Council listed in the Manual were discussed; i. e., propose strategy for our regional mission, present several sets of alternatives and let the Presbytery decide which it will follow.

Reports were heard from each Division Chairman; i. e., Education and Mission, Division of Elders, and Division of Court Operations.

The Council instructed Mrs. Joyce Bauer to execute all necessary transactions relative to establishing Orange Presbytery offices in Burlington, N. C., and the moving of present Presbytery offices now located in Raleigh and Greensboro, N. C., on or about January 31, 1972 or as soon thereafter as is feasible. And, that the Presbytery of Orange would establish 10¢ per mile as reimbursement for travel. Standard vouchers are to be sent to all Committee Chairmen.

It is the desire of the Council that each of the three Divisions of the Presbytery be responsible for one presentation concerning the life and work of the Church at a designated meeting in each calendar year.

The Council of Orange Presbytery will meet the fourth Thursday of each month; i. e., January 27 at 6 p.m., First Presbyterian Church, Durham, N. C. and February 24, Conference Room, Office of Orange Presbytery, Burlington, N. C.

RECOMMENDATION:

1. That the Presbytery of Orange ratify and affirm all actions of the Interim Council
2. That in nominating the Nominating Committee, the Council be instructed to consider the following guidelines:
   a. That the Council also nominate the Chairman of the Nominations Committee to Presbytery.
   b. That the Council request suggestions from the ministers and Sessions of the Presbytery.
   c. That the Committee consider the diverse nature of Orange Presbytery and take account of the various geographical areas, as well as adequate lay-clergy distribution in its nominations.
   d. That the Nominations Committee be constituted as follows:

Class of 1972	Mrs. Billie Fansler Reverend Al Dimmock Reverend Tom B. Anderson
Class of 1973	Reverend Charles Carter, Chairman Mrs. June Jones Reverend Jack Reckard
Class of 1974	Mrs. Polly Whittington Reverend Milton Carothers Mr. Malcolm Williams

DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION

The report of the Steering Committee of the Division of Education and Mission was presented by Reverend Z. N. Holler, chairman, and was adopted.

The Steering Committee for the Division of Education and Mission met first on December 13, 1971. At this meeting it was decided that we would meet on December 20 and thereafter on every other Monday afternoon through February in hopes that by that time the division will have been organized. We agreed that we see ourselves not as the Division of Education and Mission which is to be but as a steering committee assigned the task of designing and organizing this division.

Jim Watkins and Sam Wiley were assigned the task of (a) determining exactly what financial and program obligations the new presbytery would have to meet in the area of mission in the immediate future and (b) recommending expenditures or other action necessary to meet these obligations. Charles Williams and Bill Peters were given a similar responsibility in the area of education. As a result of the efforts and recommendations of these members, assisted by the steering committee and other members of the Presbytery who are knowledgeable in these areas, our committee has taken these actions to date:

I MISSION

1. An expenditure of $22,452 during January-April, 1972, has been authorized for the continuation of salary supplements for aid-receiving churches, for urban ministries and for payment on a loan from the Board of National Ministries — all obligations already undertaken by Granville Presbytery's Church Extension Committee.

2. An expenditure of $21,540 during January-April, 1972, has been authorized for the continuation of salary supplements for home mission workers and aid-receiving churches, for urban ministries and for grants-in-aid obligations already undertaken by the Church Extension Committee of Old Orange Presbytery.

It should be noted that in allocating funds for the salaries represented in these figures and in communicating with aid-receiving churches, the steering committee has complied with the new presbytery's action in establishing a minimum salary of $6,800 plus $1,600 auto allowance—total, $8,400.

II EDUCATION

1. A committee composed of Charles Williams plus representatives familiar with adult, youth and children's work in the old presbyteries has been established to continue general educational programming and planning for presbytery during January-April, 1972. The purpose of this structure is to enable presbytery to proceed with educational work already underway and to provide an instrument for capitalizing on educational opportunities that happen to come our way during this transitional period. This frees the steering committee to address the question of basic priorities and planning for the future of the new presbytery.

2. The camp and conference committees of the old presbyteries have been asked to continue to function as separate committees administering their respective camp programs through September 30, 1972. They have been asked to select a smaller group representative of both committees to coordinate their efforts and keep them in communication.

3. The steering committee authorized expenditure of $23,285 in January-April, 1972, this figure based on the combined budget worked out by the former Christian Education Committees of Granville and Orange.

4. In addition, the steering committee authorized expenditure of $1,092 during January-April, 1972 in areas of educational concern which appear in the new presbytery's challenge budget as follows: Item 3, Worship; 4. Service; 5. Witness; World Missions and Evangelism; 6. Christianity and Health, (The committee has some question about the propriety of including some of these items in the education budget. We hope to work these out in the near future.)

5. The chairmen of World Missions in old Orange and Granville have been asked to be jointly responsible for missionary itineration and other promotion related to the mission season in 1972.

III BUDGET SUMMARY

The following items, therefore, have been authorized by the Education and Mission Steering Committee for expenditure during January-April, 1972.

Mission expenditures, Granville	$22,452.00
Mission expenditures, old Orange	21,540.00
Christian Education, combined budget	23,285.00
Christian Education, items from Challenge Budget	1,092.00
Total	$68,369.00

This figure is of course much less than one-third of our challenge budget-for two reasons:

(1) We don't yet know what sort of working budget will emerge from the confrontation between the challenge budget and fiscal reality.

(2) Having dealt with provision for meeting our inherited obligations, this committee is just beginning to move to its appointed task of designing a program of education and mission for the new presbytery. We have been somewhat conservative thus far in order that we may have resources for supporting important new tasks later.

IV. AREA DCE

The committee discussed at some length the relationship of the new presbytery to the area Director of Christian Education. We agreed that at present we do not know about our future program needs, our future executive leadership (General Presbyter and General Pastor), or the details of the area DCE's relation to Synod's Christian Education Office. Believing that all these items will affect long term plans for our relationship to an area DCE, the committee took the following actions:

1. Expressed to Sara McNeill the committee's desire that she continue in her present work through 1972 in hopes that before the end of that period the matters mentioned above will have been clarified.
2. Expressed to Sara the committee's desire to stay in close communication with her, to seek her help in developing our plans and programs and keep her advised of any developments that might affect her future relationship with the presbytery.
3. Requested that the Council of Presbytery move to clarify the relationship between the presbytery, the area DCE and the Synod Regional Director.

A motion passed: That the Presbytery of Orange re-affirm the team concept of the relationship of Presbytery Executives and that in view of the fact that the primary purpose of the church is mission and that Presbytery's relationships with congregations and elders, as well as its general administration, have as their goal the church's fulfillment of its mission, that this be clearly expressed by making the General Presbyter the chairman among the three executive officers of the Orange Presbytery Staff.

(OLD ORANGE PRESBYTERY)

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMISSIONS
THE COMMISSION ON THE CHURCH AND ITS MINISTRY

The report of the Commission on the Church and its Ministry was presented by Reverend Curtis P. Harper, Jr., Chairman.

Since the Commission on the Church and its Ministry has yet to be elected by New Orange Presbytery and since its responsibilities have devolved temporarily upon the Steering Committee of the Division of Elders, this Committee has co-opted the Commissions on the Minister and His Work of former Granville and Orange Presbyteries and presents this report of their actions with a recommendation.

The following relationships existing between ministers and churches were dissolved upon request by the ministers and concurrence of the congregations they served:

ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION FOR THE SPRINGWOOD CHURCH

Reverend Lowry McBath was appointed by Presbytery as chairman of the Administrative Commission for the Springwood Church (Old Orange Presbytery). The moderator of Presbytery, Reverend Tom Anderson, will appoint one minister and one ruling elder to bring the number back to the original eight persons constituting the Commission.

REPORT OF ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION GULF, HAYWOOD, GOLDSTON, FARMVILLE CHURCHES

Reverend H. M. Raynal, Chairman, presented the report of the Administrative Commission on Gulf, Haywood, Goldston and Farmville Churches. Since the Commission has not completed the tasks assigned to it, the Presbytery directed this Commission to extend the time period allowed for completion until at least the fall meeting of Presbytery. The report was found in order and admitted to record.

At the October, 1971, meeting of Orange Presbytery, your Commission was created with the following instructions:

That an Administrative Commission be appointed to investigate Gulf, Haywood, Goldston, and Farmville Churches due to their apparent inactivity over a period of years and that this Commission have the power to dissolve any one or all of the Churches by December 31, 1971, if it sees fit and to dispose of the property.

Reference is also made to the Book of Church Order dealing with administrative commissions, particularly Sections 19-3, 19-4, and 118-1 through 118-5.

Your Commission has met at length on three occasions. On Sunday, December 12, 1971, the Commission travelled to hold meetings at Haywood Church and also at Gulf Church.

At Haywood Church there was a friendly and thorough exchange of views and information with members of the Church and other persons. At Gulf Church there was a friendly and thorough exchange of views with members of the Churches of Gulf, Goldston, and Farmville. Members of Cumnock Church, which has certain inter-relationships with the Gulf and Farmville Churches, at their own request were permitted to attend the meeting at Gulf and express their views.

Cumnock Church is now within the boundaries of Fayetteville Presbytery. Matters concerning it, which are not within the instructions of this Commission, have been made the subject of an informal communication from members of the Commission to the Stated Clerk of Fayetteville Presbytery.

Prior to the exchanges of information and views at the two meetings on December 12, the Commission prefaced discussion with a statement about property which is reflected in this resolution from the minutes of the Commission:

> It was unanimously RESOLVED that the Commission shall assure the church members in each instance, and it shall be the policy of the Commissions, that it shall not seek the reversion of the property of any dissolved church to Presbytery; RESOLVED FURTHER that the Commission shall cause the conveyance of such property to any resulting ongoing independent church, or other religious or charitable entity, arising from a dissolved church's membership, with the right reserved to Presbytery to make any other disposition deemed advisable should there be no such resulting church or entity."

The instructions of Presbytery and the Book of Church Order require the Commission to investigate, hold hearings, and allow notice to be given before the Commission's minutes are filed. It has not been possible to accomplish these things and arrive at the necessary decisions prior to December 31, 1971.

The matters before the Commission are somewhat complex, and are of importance to those most directly concerned.

Since the Commission must report that it has not finished the tasks assigned to it, it respectfully requests Orange Presbytery to take action either

(a) To assign these tasks to a new Commission or

(b) To reconstitute this Commission and to extend the time period allowed for completion of its tasks until at least the fall meeting of Presbytery.

DIVISION OF ELDERS

The Steering Committee of the Division of Elders has met twice for a total of approximately nine hours since its election in November. Clarification of the Committee's duties in the context of presbytery's restructuring was an initial task requiring considerable time and effort.

It became apparent that, regardless of the restructuring in process, the committee must concern itself immediately with continuing aspects of presbytery's work, such as: the recruitment and care of candidates for the ministry; the search for, calls to, and transfer of, ministers; the examination of Ordinands and Ministers seeking admission to Presbytery; and the review of sessional records.

In addition, the committee must define goals and objectives and design sub-structure for the Division of Elders regarding: the Sessions and their work; the relationship of non-parish Teaching Elders to Presbytery and their contribution to its mission; the continuing personal growth and professional education of Teaching Elders; and the preparation of Ruling Elders for their responsibilities as members of church courts.

In considering this rather lengthy agenda, the committee must cope with the fact that we are a large Presbytery, numbering approximately 135 churches and 175 ministers, and must define goals and objectives that are realistic for such a sizable judicatory of the church. These, then, have been concerns and considerations of the steering committee in its initial meetings.

RESOLUTION

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was presented by Reverend I. M. Bagnal, chairman:

This, the first Stated Meeting of new Orange Presbytery, is one that we will long remember. It is historic in its nature and bids us, however, to look to the future with confidence and faith.

It is a privilege, therefore, to express deep appreciation to each and everyone who has given content to the success of this meeting:

To Almighty God who has guided the Presbyteries of Orange and Granville through the process of merging into one Presbytery;

To the host church for the invitation to meet here;

To the representatives who have attended and participated in the spirit of unity;

To the Moderator, Reverend Tom B. Anderson, who has presided with dignity, courtesy, and fairness;

To Mrs. Joyce Bauer and Miss Gail York for the efficiency with which they have served as clerks;

To the ladies who serve as registrars and those who provided refreshments during the course of the meeting;

To the organist who furnished the music for the service of worship;

To the minister(s) and Ruling Elders who led us in the celebration of the Sacrament of Holy Communion;

To the Women of the Church who so thoughtfully prepared and served the very appetizing lunch;

To all of these we say "thanks" and may the name of our Lord be praised.

BILLS AND OVERTURES

Reverend S. S. Wiley, chairman, presented an overture from the Community In Christ, Presbyterian, to Orange Presbytery:

Acting in accord with Section 15-6 (16) of the Book of Church Order and desiring that all the ruling elders of Orange Presbytery be afforded maximum possibility of participating in the meetings of the Presbytery without undue conflict with their work, the Session of Community in Christ, Presbyterian, respectfully overtures Orange Presbytery, meeting at First Presbyterian Church in Burlington, N. C. on January 18, 1972, to take the following action:

To establish Saturday as the meeting day for the stated meetings of the Presbytery.

The Overture was answered in the following manner:

In regard to the Overture from the Session of Community in Christ, Presbyterian, the Committee on Bills and Overtures recommends that attention be called to Section 10, paragraph 1 of A Manual for Orange Presbytery which specifies that dates of Presbytery's meetings shall be set by the Docket and Liaison Committee of the Division of Court Operation. As the Manual now stands, therefore, this responsibility is left with that committee and a different policy would require a change in the Manual.

Your committee on Bills and Overtures, however, suggests that the Docket and Liaison Committee consider trying for a year having the January and April meetings of Orange Presbytery on Saturdays and the June and October meetings on Tuesdays, at the end of which time the procedure could be evaluated.

REPORT OF THE OFFICE OF PRESBYTERY

Mrs. Joyce Bauer, Treasurer, presented the financial reports for the year ending December 31, 1971 for both Granville and Orange Presbyteries. This was received as information.

The Report of the Council of the Presbytery of Orange was presented by Reverend Wallace M. Alston, Jr., chairman. The report was received as information and the recommendations were adopted:

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the Presbytery of Orange extend a call to the Reverend William A. Stewart of Cheyenne, Wyoming, as General Presbyter; that the terms of the call be as follows: $16,000 salary and housing; 10 cents per mile for automobile travel on Presbytery business; 10% Ministers Annuity; $700 continuing education and book allowance; one month per annum for rest and recreation; two weeks continuing education; moving expenses; disability, group life and major medical insurance; and an annual review of the call by Council; and that a representative of the Personnel Committee and the chairman of the Steering Committee of the Division of Education and Mission be heard by Presbytery in support of this recommendation.
2. That the requirement for three year renewable terms for the three executives of Presbytery be replaced by a requirement that the work of these executives, and that of the Presbytery, be evaluated by an outside consultant at least every three years in cooperation with Presbytery's Council.
3. That a committee composed of Mr. D. J. Walker, Reverend Tom Anderson and Joyce Bauer, appointed by Council to study the disposition of the property in Greensboro and the possibility of leasing instead of selling the office building there, be heard at this meeting of Presbytery.

RESOLUTION—PROPERTY COMMITTEE

The Ad Hoc Committee of the Council of the Presbytery of Orange, heretofore appointed for the purpose of considering procedure for the disposition of the property belonging to Presbytery on North Elm Street in Greensboro, North Carolina, formerly occupied as Presbytery's offices, having met and deliberated, recommends that the Council of the Presbytery of Orange be empowered to deal with this property to a conclusion inasmuch as considerable investigation needs to be made as to market value, rental value, and details of negotiation which could be more satisfactorily handled by the Council than Presbytery, and that the following resolution to carry out this recommendation be adopted by Presbytery:

WHEREAS . . . it appears that the real property, consisting of a building and a lot on North Elm Street in Greensboro, North Carolina, formerly used as Presbytery's office, and now owned by Orange Presbytery will no longer be useful to Presbytery for any of its functions, and that it is therefore desirable to sell or lease the property at the most favorable market and condition; and,

WHEREAS . . . it appears to Presbytery that the investigation as to fair market value of the property and the optimum conditions as to whether to lease or sell could be determined more satisfactorily and in the best interest of Presbytery by the Council of the Presbytery of Orange; and,

WHEREAS . . . Presbytery deems it a proper function of the Council to dispose of this business to a conclusion;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED . . . That the Council of the Presbytery of Orange is hereby empowered and directed to make such investigation as it deems necessary in connection with the disposition of the real property of Orange Presbytery on North Elm Street in the City of Greensboro, North Carolina, consisting of a building and a lot of land formerly used as Presbytery's offices, in order to determine whether to lease the property or to sell it, and to conclude the sale transaction or lease transaction, whichever it determines to be the most advantageous, under the terms and conditions as said Council deems to be in the best interest of Presbytery; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED . . . That the Trustees of Orange Presbytery are hereby authorized and directed, in the name of Orange Presbytery, to sell and convey said real property and to execute a deed therefor to the purchaser upon receipt of the purchase price as determined by the Council, or to execute a lease agreement upon such terms and conditions as the Council may direct, and to conclude any such transaction and execute the necessary documents in the name of Orange Presbytery as the said Council directs.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

Reverend S. S. Wiley, chairman, presented the report on the Commission on the Minister and His Work which was adopted:

Since its appointment at the January 1972 meeting of Orange Presbytery the Interim Commission on the Church and Its Ministry has been functioning as the Commission on the Minister and His Work. It has met three times, at Durham on February 7, at Burlington on March 14, and again at Burlington, April 18.

At the February meeting the Commission had benefit of the presence of the Reverend Curtis P. Harper, Jr., immediate past chairman of the Commission of "old" Granville Presbytery who is now chairman of the Steering Committee for the Division of Elders. In order to facilitate interaction between the Commission and that Division consultations have continued with him. Advice has also been sought from the Reverend Lewis Bledsoe, former chairman of the Commission in "old" Orange Presbytery.

The first full meeting of the Interim Commission was in March. At that time we sought an understanding of function including relation to the Division of Elders and coordination of procedures inherited from the two merging presbyteries. It was decided only through the Office of Presbytery, completed reference forms will be requested and a Commission member will summarize the data and reference forms for presentation to the entire Commission, which will then consider a minister for a particular church. If the minister is approved, the church may proceed and may call him or her without further action of the Commission being required, except approving the terms of the call.

It is understood that during the "interim" the Commission, as commission, will hand (1) dismissions of ministers to other presbyteries and (2) problems arising in our congregations respecting relations between pastor and people; and as committee, it will be concerned with (1) facilitation and review of calls and (2) assistance in pulpit supply.

With help from the Stated Clerk, the Commission has listed congregations seeking ministers and available persons who might be recommended. These lists are available. Attention of Presbytery is also called to the availability of a paper entitled "Ministerial Vacancies" issued periodically by the General Assembly's Permanent Committee on the Minister and His Work, which may be obtained from the Atlanta Committee (Office).

The Commission in session has consulted with one minister seeking new work and with ruling elders from a congregation asking for counsel on a local problem. The chairman and other members of the Commission have assisted in other cases individually..

The Interim Commission recommends that the permanent Commission be more representative of the whole Presbytery of Orange. We have in mind here broader geographical representation and balanced inclusion of ministers and lay people. There are many able folk who should be enlisted in the vital operations of the Presbytery not now directly involved. It was this thought plus a desire to be free to work in the area of education and mission that led the present chairman to tender his resignation on February 23 when it was learned that the "interim" life of the Commission might be as long as a year. Another chairman will be nominated at the April meeting of Presbytery. That person is being introduced to the workings of the Commission, of Synod's Permanent Committee on the Minister and His Work, and of the Area Conference for Commission Chairmen and Executive Secretaries from the Synods and Presbyteries of Appalachia, North Carolina, Virginia, and West Virginia.

The voluminous files of the Commission of "old" Orange Presbytery have been deposited for safekeeping at the office of the Stated Clerk. Acting for the Commission, Hugh McLaughlin reported minimum standards for calls to the General Assembly's Committee. Data forms and references have been obtained for pulpit committees from the following churches: Church of the Covenant, First Church, Durham, First Church, Greensboro, Guilford Park, Hudson Memorial, New Hope (Wake County), First Church, Raleigh, Spring wood, Starmount, and Yanceyville. Work has been done with the Steering Committee of the Division of Education and Mission to assist in finding ministers for certain aid-receiving churches. Data forms from churches have been requested when required. Close liaison has been maintained with the Atlanta Office.

MANUAL OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

I. THE NATURE AND MISSION OF THE CHURCH

God, who chose us to be His people, calls us to serve Him through worship and work. Therefore the Church must examine its common life, and Christians their private lives, to the end that all may live as servants of God obeying His commands.

Christian worship depends upon and is a response to the presence of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and to what God has done for us and for our salvation, which we acknowledge by acts and adoration, confession, thanksgiving, petition and obedience.

The Church worships as believers, sharing a common life of faith, hope, love and commitment, assemble in common public worship. Christians worship God privately as individuals and families. We worship always as members of the Body of Christ.

The work of the Church is a response to God's grace and is done in obedience to the will of God as this will is made known in Scripture. It is expressed in proclamation of and witness to the Word of God, and deeds of love and mercy. Through this service Christians seek the fulfillment of the divine purposes in society and history.

(Preface, The Directory for the Worship and Work of the Church.)

The Presbytery of Orange, as the dynamic connection of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. with the congregations and ministers of Alamance, Caswell, Chatham, Durham, Franklin, Granville, Guilford, Halifax, Johnston, Nash, Northampton, Orange, Person, Randolph, Rockingham, Vance, Wake and Warren Counties, seeks to carry out the above statement in all its forms, structures, and programs.

The Presbytery has as its primary task to reflect the redemptive mission of Jesus Christ in all its functions as an Agency of Review, Sharing, Guidance, Training, Innovation, Linking and Pastoral oversight.

Presbytery is a reviewing agency, evaluating its words and deeds that they are obedient to the will of God.

Presbytery is a sharing agency, sharing with congregations and ministers its experience and insight in regard to the best use of resources and energies in witnessing to the Lordship of Christ in its locale.

Presbytery is a guiding agency, challenging congregations and ministers to use their full capacities in meeting their mission in being the servant community.

Presbytery is an innovative agency, initating and carrying out imaginative forms of ministry which could not normally be accomplished through the limited resources of the parish.

Presbytery is a linking agency, binding Christians to Christ, higher courts to lower, local churches to each other, other Christian bodies in cooperation, in ONE mission of the Church.

Presbytery is a pastoral agency, providing whatever support, insight or counseling may be needed by its sessions and ministers.

Presbytery is a training agency, providing whatever education, resources or personnel necessary to accomplish its mission and the mission of its member Churches.

Because mission must determine form, Presbytery must remain flexible in its attitude toward structure, responding to current opportunities for fulfilling its mission. While maintaining the integrity of the interconnected body, the Church does not exist for selfish reasons but for the service of God and to make visible the love of God at work in the world. Therefore, it must be capable of acting quickly and decisively in the Name of Christ. It must be ready to follow its Lord into the uncertain future, willing to risk all, even its organizational life, in obedience to Him.

II. THE STRUCTURE OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Orange Presbytery carries out its mission through three divisions: The Division of Education and Mission, The Division of Elders, and The Division of Court Operations. It exercises oversight of these three divisons through a Council. In addition, a Commission on the Church and its Ministry and a Commission on Presbytery's Minutes are empowered to act on behalf of Presbytery in certain limited areas.

THE DIVISION OF ELDERS

The Division of Elders acts primarily as a reviewing, training, and pastoral agency. It is headed by a General Pastor, who is ordinarily a Teaching Elder and is composed of (1) Committee on the Session and its Work, (2) Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examination, and (3) Committee on the Non-Parish Teaching Elder. The chairman of each committee together with the General Pastor constitutes a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Committee on the Session and its Work reviews sessional records and the minister's work. At the invitation of the session or at its own initiative, it meets with the session of a church. Each church in the Presbytery would be visited at least once every three years. Before any visit, the session would be asked to conduct a self-evaluation of the progress of the Kingdom in the congregation and community. All committee findings go to the Commission on the Church and its Ministry. This committee is responsible for encouraging the continuing education of teaching elders and the training of church officers.

The Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations encourages those called by God to ministry to respond positively to that call. It counsels with and gives guidance to them as they prepare themselves for service. It oversees any in-service training. This committee is responsible for recommendation's to Presbytery regarding calls or other work, counseling with sessions concerning supply ministers (Stated, Interim, or Occasional) and counseling with pastoral nominating committees concerning pastoral calls. This committee examines all candidates for ordination and all ministers applying for membership in the Presbytery.

The Committee on the Non-Parish Teaching Elder exercises Presbytery's concern for the ministry carried out by teaching elders who do not have supporting sessions.

THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION

The Division of Education and Mission acts primarily as a sharing, guiding, training, and innovative agency. It is headed by a General Presbyter, who may be either a Teaching or Ruling Elder, and is composed of (1) Committee on Education and (2) Committee on Mission. The chairman of each committee together with the general Presbyter constitutes a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Committee on Education shares its experience with and gives guidance to congregations in meeting their mission. It is concerned with commitment, education, home and family nurture, worship, service, witness and evangelism, and the physical health of the congregations and their members. The entire thrust of its work is to help congregations improve their mission by improving continuing programs as well as developing new programs or methods. It operates Presbytery's camps and conference grounds.

The Committee on Mission is an innovative agency, carrying out direct mission in such areas as urban ministry, town and country ministry, media ministry, new church development, campus Christian life, inter-church relations, and any other forms of experimental ministry. It gives guidance to urban councils, shares its experience with aid-receiving churches in improving ministry in town and country, establishes new churches, develops new techniques of ministry through use of mass media of newspapers, radio and television, links its work to the college campus, actively cooperates with other Christian bodies in ministry, and continuously tries new forms of ministry, including research, oversight and evaluation.

THE DIVISION OF COURT OPERATIONS

The Division of Court Operations is primarily a sharing and linking agency. It is headed by a Stated Clerk and Treasurer who, with staff assistance, personally performs many of the functions of the Division. Preferably, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer would be a Ruling Elder, familiar with business. The Division is composed of (1) Docket and Liaison Committee, (2) Finance Committee, and (3) Worship Committee. The chairman of the Docket and Liaison Committee and the chairman of the Finance Committee together with the Stated Clerk and Treasurer constitutes a Steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Docket and Liaison committee prepares the docket for each stated meeting of Presbytery. The docket will be submitted to the Council for their advice and consent at least two weeks before each stated meeting of Presbytery. The Stated Clerk and Treasurer will make available for study to representatives and members of Presbytery pertinent divisional reports, recommendations, and the docket at least one week prior to each stated meeting of Presbytery. After each meeting of Presbytery, stated, called or adjourned, this same group of people constitute Presbytery's Commission to approve the minutes of the previous meeting. After approval, the Stated Clerk will be authorized to print and distribute them. This committee communicates decisions of higher courts and information from various Presbyterian agencies to the appropriate parts of Presbytery. It also communicates information from any part of Presbytery to higher courts of their agencies.

The Finance Committee hears from the various divisions and agencies of Presbytery their requests for funds and prepares an appropriate budget. The budget will be submitted first to Council for their approval and then to Presbytery for their approval. This committee reviews and approves the total budget of aid-receiving churches before Presbytery benevolent funds can be released. This committee arranges for necessary audits and reports the results to Presbytery through the Council. This committee supervises deferred gifts, has responsibility for the maintenance of the physical property of Presbytery, will be in charge of any Presbytery-wide fund raising campaigns and will constitute Presbytery's link to the Glade Valley School.

The Worship Committee will have charge of all worship services at any meeting of Presbytery.

THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

The Council of Presbytery consists of sixteen voting members and five ex-officio non-voting members. The Chairman of the Council, who is a voting member, shall be elected annually by Presbytery. No individual shall serve more than three successive terms as Chairman. There shall be three classes of three each: Presbytery shall elect a class annually for three year terms. Of these nine at-large members, at least five must be laymen. The Committee on Education and the Committee on Mission of the Division of Education and Mission shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Committee on the Session and its Work and the Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Docket and Liaison Committee and the Finance Committee of the Division of Court Operations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. All of these representatives serve both on the respective committees and the council. They shall be elected annually and no individual shall serve more than three successive terms. The General Presbyter, The General Pastor, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer, the Chairman of the Commission on the Church and its Ministry, and the Moderator of Presbytery shall all be advisory non-voting members of the Council.

The major responsibility of the Council will be to coordinate the work of the three Divisions. The Council will have a Personnel Committee to make recommendations to it and Presbytery concerning the positions of General Presbyter, General Pastor, and Stated Clerk and Treasurer.

PRESBYTERY COMMISSIONS

The Commission on the Church and its Ministry exercises pastoral concern by visiting churches to inquire into and settle difficulties, especially those arising out of relationships between teaching elders and churches. No person can simultaneously serve on both the Committee on the Session and its Work and the Commission on the Church and its Ministry.

The Commission on Presbytery's Minutes has been described above under the Docket and Liaison Committee of the Division of Court Operation.

OTHER COMMITTEES

Presbytery shall elect a Nominating Committee to recommend those people who are to serve on any of Presbytery's committees or commissions. The term of office for each member of a committee or commission of Presbytery shall be three years with one-third of the committee or commission being chosen each year. No member of a committee or commission shall be eligible to succeed himself until a year after the expiration of his term. The number of elders and laymen on each committee and commission of Presbytery shall be determined by the Nominating Committee with the approval of Presbytery.

The Trustees of Presbytery shall hold legal titles of real estate and other real property in the name of Presbytery.

Standing Committees may be appointed by the Moderator at each session of Presbytery for consideration of matters specific to that meeting. These committees shall expire at the adjournment of the session. They shall be given their duties by Presbytery when they are appointed.

Ad Interim Committees may be appointed by the Council of Presbytery with the authority of presbytery. These committees shall not be concerned with matters which are exclusively part of the responsibility of an existing Division.

III. THE OFFICERS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Presbytery shall nominate a Moderator at the June stated meeting. He shall be elected at the October stated meeting. He shall preside at each meeting of Presbytery held during the next calendar year. The Moderator nominated in June would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. The Moderator shall be the official spokesman for Presbytery when Presbytery is not in session.

Presbytery shall nominate a Chairman of Presbytery's Council at the June stated meeting. He shall be elected at the October stated meeting. He shall preside at all meetings of the Council held during the next calendar year. He would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. He shall assist the outgoing chairman in making a smooth transition in the workings of the Council.

The General Presbyter, the General Pastor, and the Stated Clerk and Treasurer are employees of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by Presbytery's Council, which will also review them annually. All other employees of Presbytery will be part of one of the three Divisions of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by the Chairman of their Division, either the General Pastor, General Presbyter, or the Stated Clerk and Treasurer. They shall review these job descriptions annually.

IV. THE MEETINGS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

There shall be four stated meetings of Presbytery each year in January, April, June and October. The Docket and Liaison committee shall be responsible for setting the details of Presbytery's meetings, including the dates, with approval by Presbytery's Council. The major emphasis of the January, April, and October stated meetings shall be the Divisions of Court Operations, Elders, and Education and Mission respectively.

Presbytery shall be governed in its meetings, in order of priority, by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., this Manual of Orange Presbytery, the Parliamentary Rules adopted by the General Assembly of 1866, and by Roberts "Rules of Order" revised. Any provision of the above not required by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. may be temporarily suspended by a 2/3 majority vote of the members present.

V. AMENDMENTS

During 1972, each Committee will prepare standing rules for its own operation. These rules will be reviewed annually, customarily at the first meeting of the calendar year. Once adopted, these standing rules can be changed by majority vote of the Committee at any time.

Any Presbyterian can propose a reorganization of a Division of Presbytery. Such proposal with appropriate comments by the chairman of that Division can be submitted to Presbytery at any stated meeting. If the chairman of the Division approves the reorganization, it will go into effect at the conclusion of the next stated meeting of Presbytery unless Presbytery disapproves of it. If the chairman of the Division disapproves of it, it will not go into effect unless Presbytery approves it. Such approval can not be given until the next stated meeting of Presbytery after it has been submitted.

Any Presbyterian can propose a reorganization of Presbytery. Such proposal with appropriate comments by Presbytery's Council can be submitted to Presbytery at any stated meeting. It will not go into effect unless Presbytery approves it. Such approval can not be given until the next stated meeting after it has been submitted to Presbytery.

Any reorganization of Presbytery or other change in this Manual voted on by Presbytery shall require a 2/3 vote of the members present to be effective.

Committee is presently studying Manual and recommendations for changes will be forthcoming in 1973.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

The report of the Council of Orange Presbytery was presented by the Reverend Wallace M. Alston, Jr., chairman. Mr. Alston introduced Mr. C. T. Boyd, a former Trustee of Orange Presbytery and the following resolution was adopted by Presbytery:

> "Charles T. Boyd — a Ruling Elder of the First Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, N. C., a former teacher of its Young Men's Bible Class, Chairman of the Trustees of Orange Presbytery, a former Moderator, and a distinguished attorney of the Greensboro bar—resigned in January 1972 as a Presbytery Trustee after twenty-five years of active and useful service.
> Normally, the duties of a Presbytery Trustee are neither exacting nor productive. However, during his term in office, Charles Boyd constantly found new opportunities for service over and beyond the call of these Duties. He did this by recognizing the many ways in whch he could, as an attorney, contribute his legal ability and knowledge to the execution of the office of Trustee. He served during a period in which Orange Presbytery, probably as never before in its history, engaged in activities requiring legal knowledge and skill to guide it in an orderly and efficient manner through its transactions. Charles Boyd furnished this legal knowledge and skill on occasions too numerous to mention. During his twenty-five years of office, he has given literally thousands of dollars worth of legal services to Orange Presbytery without charge. He has examined titles, prepared deeds, deeds of trust, and notes, negotiated sales and loans, rendered opinions on wills and trusts and prepared contracts; he has handled matters involving the condemnation of property and, in one matter, dealt for more than a year with a complex problem concerning payments on the office building in Greensboro; he has prepared resolutions for borrowing money and selling property; he has advised concerning litigation; and he has in many other ways used his talents in bountiful measure for the benefit of Orange Presbytery.
> Those occupying the Office of Executive Secretary have found in him a source of sound and good advice on secular problems confronting this Church Court. His door has always been open to them and he has made his time and advice available when sought, and those who sought have profited thereby.
> It is obvious that the work of this Presbytery depends upon the voluntary contributions of many people; without these contributions, it could not exist. All such persons deserve its gratitude, but Charles Boyd especially deserves its commendation, not only for the magnitude of his contributions of time and talent, but also for the cheerful and co-operative attitude with which they have been rendered. On occasions, he has, without doubt, been imposed upon. He has many times been asked to lay aside other important matters to take up some task for Orange Presbytery. He has always done so without complaint and invariably with a smile. He has given such an impression of deriving joy from this work that no one could doubt his emotion was geniune.
> To sum it up, let it be recognized that for twenty-five years he has rendered great service to Orange Presbytery as one of its Trustees that his service has been cheerfully and willingly rendered, that the dedication of his time and talent has been inspired by his Christian faith, and that this Presbytery has profited immeasurably by all that he has done.

BE IT RESOLVED, THEREFORE, by Orange Presbytery that it recognizes the great benefits to it from the twenty-five years of outstanding service rendered by Charles T. Boyd as one of its trustees and that it hereby expresses to him its grateful and lasting appreciation." Mr. Boyd was presented a plaque from the Council of the Presbytery. The following recommendation was adopted:

1. That the terms of office of members of the Council, Commissions, Committees etc. of Presbytery who fail to attend meetings for a period of six (6) months without submitting reasonable excuses shall be terminated automatically, and the vacancies shall be filled by the Presbytery on the recommendation of the Committee on Nominations.

Ruling Elder Thomas Whitley, a council member, introduced a program of slides and cassette tape entitled "Meet Orange" and made pertinent remarks relative to the restructuring of Orange Presbytery. Appreciation was expressed to the committee preparing the program, Cal Parks, Vernon Grimes and Bill Faver.

6. A Resolution from the session of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Durham, was adopted relative to the Reverend Charles Williams:

"On March 29, 1963, Charles Williams as Minister of the Mt. Olive Presbyterian Church, Mt. Olive, N. C., accepted a call to come to Durham and to be the first Minister of the Westminster Presbyterian Church then undergoing organization. At the time of acceptance, there were eight families pledged to the Church as the meager congregation, no manse, no church buildings, and no definite salary finalized. Charles Williams accepted this call in faith and came with a single purpose, to perform a teaching ministry.

Charles Williams was born in Halifax, N. C., was educated at Davidson College and Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia, graduated from the Seminary cum laude and after one year of graduate work with some interim pastorates carried out a happy and satisfying ministry for five years in Mt. Olive. His wife Nancy, is a native of Eureka, North Carolina; they have two daughters.

Charles Williams came to Durham in both faith and love and over a period of nine years, has shared in the gathering of a congregation and the building of it in behalf of the Church and the Kingdom. He has applied himself to the tasks of preaching, teaching and pastoral work without reference to time or convenience to himself. He has stimulated both his Session and Diaconate as well as his entire congregation to look outward and upward and to look toward the Scriptures for life itself. He has taught us love, unselfishness and how to be humble and still get a job done. He has led this church through difficult times in its infancy and has lived a Christian example among us.

Whereas, Charles Williams has now been called to serve in another portion of the kingdom, be it resolved and recorded in the minutes of the Session of the Westminster Church of Durham, North Carolina, and the minutes of Orange Presbytery that he is being given permission to resign and to leave for this work, in faith and with our love, and—as has been felt by all of us, said by many of us and observed by virtually all who have come in contact with him, "This surely, is a man of God."

Request was made by the Reverend Eugene Ensley to grant the Commission on the Minister and His Work permission and authorization to make a decision permitting Candidate David Osborne to serve an intern year in the Northside Church (without a pastor). A motion passed to this effect.

ELECTION OF MODERATOR

Ruling Elder Malcolm Williams, Hudson Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, was elected Moderator of Orange Presbytery for the year of 1973.

ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION OF SPRINGWOOD CHURCH

The Reverend Lowry McBath reported the completed work of the Administrative Commission of the Springwood Church, which was adopted by Presbytery:

The Administrative Commission was constituted as a result of Orange Presbytery's action relative to a former Administrative Commission's directives reported at the 412th stated meeting of Orange Presbytery, October 24, 1968. Section II, part D of that report: "That a new Administrative Commission be appointed by the current moderator of Orange Presbytery to serve until December 31, 1969, or until such time as all of the conditions have been met, a new minister called and a new Session elected and instructed. In the interim, the new Administrative Commission shall serve as the session of the Springwood Church." That report also stated that the pastoral relationship between the pastor and the church be dissolved effective December 31, 1968. The report further stated that the session of the church was dissolved and that the new Commission was to serve as the session. All this was accomplished in good order.

The present Commission was appointed and began to function as the Session of Springwood as follows: Ministers, Lewis W. Bledsoe, Chairman of the Commission and Moderator of the Session, William E. Massey, Jr., W. Lowry McBath, William R. Strickland, Jr.; Ruling Elders, W. S. Harris, Jr., Secretary of the Commission and Clerk of Session, Staley Garrison, Jay Gilliland, and Herbert Reese.

From the beginning of this Commission's relationship with the Springwood Church, members and especially members in positions of leadership exhibited a genuine concern over their church's plight and demonstrated their willingness to work toward correcting their problems and establishing a unified church with a meaningful ministry. The Commission was impressed by their true spirit of cooperation.

In order to establish rapport with the membership, members of the Commission conducted the Sunday morning worship services and preached during the month of January, 1969 after the pastoral relationship had been dissolved.

The Commission/Session called Dr. T. Henry Patterson as Supply Pastor in February 1969. With his wise counsel and sensitive pastoral leadership, Springwood Church demonstrated significant spiritual gain and response. Worship services were well attended, church school attendance increased and Sunday evening activities such as children and youth fellowships, family suppers and worship were re-initiated. A Church Council of fourteen members were established to aid the pastor and to involve the people in the leadership of the church. The Deacons of the church continued to function as a Board and Commission/Session met with the Council on a monthly basis.

At the end of May, 1969, a Student Pastor, Mr. Roger Jackle, Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., was called to serve the summer months. He lived in the manse with his family and gave his full concern to the church and the community. The Commission/Session was particularly heartened by the response of the people to his leadership. The church continued to show sure signs of healing and spiritual growth. In this period, the Reverend Galen Elliott and the Reverend Milton Foust were appointed to the Commission to replace Strickland and Massey, both of whom had moved from the Presbytery. Also, during this time sections A and C of the Former Administrative Commission's Report filed with the Stated Clerk of Presbytery on September 30, 1968, were rescinded (see minutes, 415th stated meeting of Orange Presbytery, June 26, 1969) and responsibility for the reorganization of the Session of the Springwood Church and the calling of a new minister was placed in the hands of the new Commission.

The Reverend Worth Watts, pastor of the nearby Trinity Church at Elon College was secured with the consent of his Session as the Stated Supply Pastor for Springwood Church and included approximately two days per week of his time for pastoral duties in the community. This relationship was subject to review on a three month basis. Under the leadership of Mr. Watts, the Church Council and the Commission/Session, nine Ruling Elders were elected in accordance with newly approved By-laws of the congregation which provided for a rotation system of church officers on a three year, three class basis and which placed the responsibilities of the Board of Deacons into the hands of the Church Session. It was felt by all concerned that sources of leadership in the congregation (approximately 140 members) were not adequate to provide for a Session and a Board of Deacons on a rotation basis and that a nine member Session plus pastor could fulfill such a function responsibly. After almost two years in operation, this system has proved functional and popular. The elected Ruling Elders were trained for their office by members of the Commission, then ordained and installed January 4, 1970 at which time the new Session of Springwood Church was constituted.

The ministerial arrangement with the Reverend Worth Watts continued to September 1970; with the new Session governing the church under the guidance of the Chairman of the Commission and individual Commission members. The Reverend John Fleming served as Interim Supply from October, 1970 through June, 1971, and the Reverend Cecil Callis, the present Interim Supply pastor began his ministry at that point.

In January of this year the Reverend Don Trent was appointed to the Commission to replace Bledsoe who moved from the Presbytery and Mr. Jack West was appointed to replace Gilliland of the First Church, Sanford, now in Fayetteville Presbytery due to the realignment of Presbytery bounds. McBath was at that time named chairman.

In the last meeting of the Commission September 17, 1972 with the Session and pastor of Springwood Church, a review of the past four years was given and an evaluation made. It was noted that the Session had guided the congregation to delay the calling of a resident minister until such time when through growth in stewardship, the church would not deplete its funds on ministerial support alone but would have some funds for a reasonable program as well. It was pointed out, also, that the church had entered into a program to aid the economically deprived in the surrounding community. These were among a number of substantial signs of spiritual renewal and growth in grace the Commission noted. It was the unanimous feeling of the Commission that the time had come when the Commission could withdraw its relationship to Springwood Church with confidence that its purpose has been fulfilled.

The Springwood Administrative Commission therefore directs the Presbytery to the following action:

1. That the Springwood Commission be dissolved because we feel our work has been completed and that Springwood Church, under the guidance of its Session and the Reverend Cecil C. Callis, Interim Supply Pastor, is carrying on a successful program in the Springwood Community.
2. That the Session of Springwood Church be commended for its successful efforts in bringing the congregation together in peace and Christian love and in providing the leadership to enable the church to continue its mission of service to Christ and mankind. Filed with Stated Clerk, September 29, 1972.

Appreciation was expressed to the Commission by Orange Presbytery.

RESOLUTIONS

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was presented by the chairman, the Reverend Warren Brannon and was unanimously adopted:

The Committee on Resolutions presents the following resolutions for consideration and adoption to the Stated Meeting of the Presbytery of Orange sideration and adoption to the Stated Meeting of the Presbytery of Orange,

24, 1972:

"Whereas, the pastor, the officers and the congregation of the Starmount Church have displayed gracious generosity and dazzlng courage in inviting the descent of the court upon their quarters for a day, Whereas, the citizens of the Starmount congregation greeted members of Presbytery with an outstanding warmth and provided for our needs with wisdom and efficiency,

Whereas, the Women of the Starmount Church planned with obvious care and prepared and served with much love a fine meal,

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Presbytery of Orange extend to the Pastor, the officers, the Women's organization, and all the folks of the Starmount Church its profound thanks for their thorough preparation for our meeting and for providing the facilities and atmosphere necessary for the accomplishment of the work of the court."

ANNUITIES AND RELIEF

The Reverend Ralph Teasley, chairman, presented the following recommendations which were adopted:

1. That churches be encouraged to seek gifts, legacies, and trusts from interested individuals to supplement the existing trusts for retired ministers throughout the Synod.
2. That churches and individuals also be encouraged to find ways of providing additional funds to aid widows of ministers of the Synod.
3. That the Sessions of all churches in the Presbytery of Orange urge a generous Joy Gift this Christmas since this supplemental offering is a major source of income with which the Board of Annuities and Relief ministers to the aged servants of the Church. The continued rise of the cost of living is making increasing demands upon the resources of Ministerial Relief, and this responsibility of the Church can only be met with a generous Supplemental Offering.

TRUSTEES OF PRESBYTERY

The report of the Trustees of Orange Presbytery was presented by Joyce Bauer, trustee. Information was related on the status of the Pinnix Estate being in litigation with attorney, Richard Wharton, representing Orange Presbytery Trustees. Under the provisions of the will of the late Frances R. Somers, Orange Presbytery should receive a house and 2 acres of land near Greensboro, N. C. The following resolution was adopted concerning the Somers estate.

"Resolved that the report and recommendation of the Trustees of Orange Presbytery with reference to the Frances R. Somers property as submitted to this meeting be and the same is hereby approved, and the Trustees of Orange Presbytery are hereby authorized by Orange Presbytery to investigate and evaluate the rights and position of Orange Presbytery with respect to such property as was devised to it under Item II of the Will of Frances R. Somers and to make such settlement, execute such conveyance or release, participate in any legal proceedings seeking to determine the interest of Orange Presbytery under said Will and take such action as the Trustees may determine appropriate and for the best interest of Orange Presbytery with respect to the interests which Orange Presbytery acquired under Will of Frances R. Somers, without necessity for further authorization or confirmation by Orange Presbytery."

TIME AND PLACE OF NEXT MEETING

The next stated meeting of the Presbytery of Orange will be in the First Presbyterian Church, High Point, North Carolina, Saturday, February 3, 1973, convening at 9:00 a.m.

URGE YOUR FELLOW CHRISTIANS TO REMEMBER IN THEIR WILLS THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AND ITS INSTITUTIONS

FORM OF BEQUEST

"I ...., give, devise, and bequeath to the Trustees of Orange Presbytery of the Synod of North Carolina (here insert amount of money or estate bequeathed) for the use of the Master's work as supported by the Presbytery of Orange."

(Here state whether the income from the bequest, or the bequest itself is to be used; the cause for which it is to be used can be stated, or it may be stated that it can be left to the judgment of the Presbytery.)

BEQUEST FOR THE MASTER'S WORK

The Presbytery is sure there are a large number of people who would like to leave at least a part of their money or property where it will be a perpetual help in the work of the Master. It therefore suggests to these friends that in their wills they make their bequests to the Trustees of Orange Presbyery Synod of North Carolina, to be held by them as trust funds, and to be invested by them in good securities; the income from the investments to be given by the Presbytery, from time to time, to that cause or institution which in its judgment appears to be the most deserving.

"There are many advantages in leaving your bequests in this way:

"1. The Trustees are good business men and the security of the funds will be safeguarded.

"2. The Presbytery can judge better ten or fifty years from the present time than you can now, where your money will do the most good at that time.

MANUAL OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

I. THE NATURE AND MISSION OF THE CHURCH

God, who chose us to be His people, calls us to serve Him through worship and work. Therefore the Church must examine its common life, and Christians their private lives, to the end that all may live as servants of God obeying His commands.

Christian worship depends upon and is a response to the presence of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and to what God has done for us and for our salvation, which we acknowledge by acts and adoration, confession, thanksgiving, petition and obedience.

The Church worships as believers, sharing a common life of faith, hope, love and commitment, assemble in common public worship. Christians worship God privately as individuals and families. We worship always as members of the Body of Christ.

The work of the Church is a response to God's grace and is done in obedience to the will of God as this will is made known in Scripture. It is expressed in proclamation of and witness to the Word of God, and deeds of love and mercy. Through this service Christians seek the fulfillment of the divine purposes in society and history.

(Preface, The Directory for the Worship and Work of the Church.)

The Presbytery of Orange, as the dynamic connection of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. with the congregations and ministers of Alamance, Caswell, Chatham, Durham, Franklin, Granville, Guilford, Halifax, Johnston, Nash, Northampton, Orange, Person, Randolph, Rockingham, Vance, Wake and Warren Counties, seeks to carry out the above statement in all its forms, structures, and programs.

The Presbytery has as its primary task to reflect the redemptive mission of Jesus Christ in all its functions as an Agency of Review, Sharing, Guidance, Training, Innovation, Linking and Pastoral oversight.

Presbytery is a reviewing agency, evaluating its words and deeds that they are obedient to the will of God.

Presbytery is a sharing agency, sharing with congregations and ministers its experience and insight in regard to the best use of resources and energies in witnessing to the Lordship of Christ in its locale.

Presbytery is a guiding agency, challenging congregations and ministers to use their full capacities in meeting their mission in being the servant community.

Presbytery is an innovative agency, initating and carrying out imaginative forms of ministry which could not normally be accomplished through the limited resources of the parish.

Presbytery is a linking agency, binding Christians to Christ, higher courts to lower, local churches to each other, other Christian bodies in cooperation, in ONE mission of the Church.

Presbytery is a pastoral agency, providing whatever support, insight or counseling may be needed by its sessions and ministers.

Presbytery is a training agency, providing whatever education, resources or personnel necessary to accomplish its mission and the mission of its member Churches.

Because mission must determine form, Presbytery must remain flexible in its attitude toward structure, responding to current opportunities for fulfilling its mission. While maintaining the integrity of the interconnected body, the Church does not exist for selfish reasons but for the service of God and to make visible the love of God at work in the world. Therefore, it must be capable of acting quickly and decisively in the Name of Christ. It must be ready to follow its Lord into the uncertain future, willing to risk all, even its organizational life, in obedience to Him.

II. THE STRUCTURE OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Orange Presbytery carries out its mission through three divisions: The Division of Education and Mission, The Division of Elders, and The Division of Court Operations. It exercises oversight of these three divisons through a Council. In addition, a Commission on the Church and its Ministry and a Commission on Presbytery's Minutes are empowered to act on behalf of Presbytery in certain limited areas.

THE DIVISION OF ELDERS

The Division of Elders acts primarily as a reviewing, training, and pastoral agency. It is served by a General Pastor, who is ordinarily a Teaching Elder. The concerns of the Division include (1) the work of Pastors and Sessions, (2) the preparation and location of Teaching Elders and, (3) the work of Non-Parish Teaching Elders. Representatives of each concern, together with the General Pastor, form a Steering Committee for coordinating the work of the Division. The Chairman of the Commission on the Minister and His Work shall serve as a member of this Steering Committee. The Committee functions of the Commission on the Minister and His Work (BCO 21-2) will ordinarily be carried out by the Division of Elders.

The concern for the work of Pastors and Sessions is expressed through efforts to enhance their effectivenes, such as review of sessional records, periodic review and evaluation of their ministries and continuing support activities designed to increase their competence as Christian leaders within the Presbyterian system.

The concern for the preparation and location of Teaching Elders is expressed through exercising care for Candidates for the Ministry, through overseeing all calls to ministry, through examining ministers who are seeking membership in Presbytery, through helping churches that are seeking ministers and through facilitating pastoral changes.

The concern for the work of Non-Parish Teaching Elders is expressed through counsel and recommendation as to the validity of their work, through regular evaluation as to the effectiveness of their ministry, through utilization of their experience and insights, through encouraging their growth in ministerial competence, and through providing opportunities for fellowship, support and participation in the work of the Presbytery.

The Division is invested by Presbytery with full authority to initiate programs and activities appropriate to these concerns.

THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION

The Division of Education and Mission acts primarily as a sharing, guiding, training, and innovative agency. It is headed by a General Presbyter, who may be either a Teaching or Ruling Elder, and is composed of (1) Committee on Education and (2) Committee on Mission. The chairman of each committee together with the general Presbyter constitutes a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Committee on Education shares its experience with and gives guidance to congregations in meeting their mission. It is concerned with commitment, education, home and family nurture, worship, service, witness and evangelism, and the physical health of the congregations and their members. The entire thrust of its work is to help congregations improve their mission by improving continuing programs as well as developing new programs or methods. It operates Presbytery's camps and conference grounds.

The Committee on Mission is an innovative agency, carrying out direct mission in such areas as urban ministry, town and country ministry, media ministry, new church development, campus Christian life, inter-church relations, and any other forms of experimental ministry. It gives guidance to urban councils, shares its experience with aid-receiving churches in improving ministry in town and country, establishes new churches, develops new techniques of ministry through use of mass media of newspapers, radio and television, links its work to the college campus, actively cooperates with other Christian bodies in ministry, and continuously tries new forms of ministry, including research, oversight and evaluation.

THE DIVISION OF COURT OPERATIONS

The Division of Court Operations is primarily a sharing and linking agency. It is headed by a Stated Clerk and Treasurer who, with staff assistance, personally performs many of the functions of the Division. Preferably, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer would be a Ruling Elder, familiar with business. The Division is composed of (1) Docket and Liaison Committee, (2) Finance Committee, and (3) Worship Committee. The chairman of the Docket and Liaison Committee and the chairman of the Finance Committee together with the Stated Clerk and Treasurer constitutes a Steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Docket and Liaison committee prepares the docket for each stated meeting of Presbytery. The docket will be submitted to the Council for their advice and consent at least two weeks before each stated meeting of Presbytery. The Stated Clerk and Treasurer will make available for study to representatives and members of Presbytery pertinent divisional reports, recommendations, and the docket at least one week prior to each stated meeting of Presbytery. After each meeting of Presbytery, stated, called or adjourned, this same group of people constitute Presbytery's Commission to approve the minutes of the previous meeting. After approval, the Stated Clerk will be authorized to print and distribute them. This committee communicates decisions of higher courts and information from various Presbyterian agencies to the appropriate parts of Presbytery. It also communicates information from any part of Presbytery to higher courts of their agencies.

The Finance Committee hears from the various divisions and agencies of Presbytery their requests for funds and prepares an appropriate budget. The budget will be submitted first to Council for their approval and then to Presbytery for their approval. This committee reviews and approves the total budget of aid-receiving churches before Presbytery benevolent funds can be released. This committee arranges for necessary audits and reports the results to Presbytery through the Council. This committee supervises deferred gifts, has responsibility for the maintenance of the physical property of Presbytery, will be in charge of any Presbytery-wide fund raising campaigns and will constitute Presbytery's link to the Glade Valley School.

The Worship Committee will have charge of all worship services at any meeting of Presbytery.

THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

The Council of Presbytery consists of sixteen voting members and five ex-officio non-voting members. The Chairman of the Council, who is a voting member, shall be elected annually by Presbytery. No individual shall serve more than three successive terms as Chairman. There shall be three classes of three each: Presbytery shall elect a class annually for three year terms. Of these nine at-large members, at least five must be laymen. The Committee on Education and the Committee on Mission of the Division of Education and Mission shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Committee on the Session and its Work and the Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The General Presbyter, The General Pastor, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer, the Chairman of the Commission on the Church and its Ministry, and the Moderator of Presbytery shall all be advisory non-voting members of the Council.

PRESBYTERY COMMISSIONS

The Commission on the Minister and His Work exercises pastoral concern by visiting churches to inquire into and settle difficulties, especially those arising out of relationships between Teaching Elders and churches (BCO 21-3). The Commission is also empowered to dissolve pastoral relationships when both pastor and church are in accord. To facilitate the work of the Commission the Committee responsibilities of the Commission as specified in the Book of Church Order (Par. 21-2) will ordinarily be carried out by the Division of Elders. To assure their implementation, the Chairman of the Commission shall be a member of the Steering Committee of the Division of Elders.

OTHER COMMITTEES

Presbytery shall elect a Nominating Committee to recommend those people who are to serve on any of Presbytery's committees or commissions. The term of office for each member of a committee or commission of Presbytery shall be three years with one-third of the committee or commission being chosen each year. No member of a committee or commission shall be eligible to succeed himself until a year after the expiration of his term. The number of elders and laymen on each committee and commission of Presbytery shall be determined by the Nominating Committee with the approval of Presbytery.

The Trustees of Presbytery shall hold legal titles of real estate and other real property in the name of Presbytery.

Standing Committees may be appointed by the Moderator at each session of Presbytery for consideration of matters specific to that meeting. These committees shall expire at the adjournment of the session. They shall be given their duties by Presbytery when they are appointed.

Ad Interim Committees may be appointed by the Council of Presbytery with the authority of presbytery. These committees shall not be concerned with matters which are exclusively part of the responsibility of an existing Division.

III. THE OFFICERS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Presbytery shall nominate a Moderator at the June stated meeting. He shall be elected at the October stated meeting. He shall preside at each meeting of Presbytery held during the next calendar year. The Moderator nominated in June would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. The Moderator shall be the official spokesman for Presbytery when Presbytery is not in session.

He shall preside at all meetings of the Council held during the next calendar year. He would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. He shall assist the outgoing chairman in making a smooth transition in the workings of the Council.

The General Presbyter, the General Pastor, and the Stated Clerk and Treasurer are employees of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by Presbytery's Council, which will also review them annually. All other employees of Presbytery will be part of one of the three Divisions of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by the Chairman of their Division, either the General Pastor, General Presbyter, or the Stated Clerk and Treasurer. They shall review these job descriptions annually.

IV. THE MEETINGS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

There shall be four stated meetings of Presbytery each year in January, April, June and October. The Docket and Liaison committee shall be responsible for setting the details of Presbytery's meetings, including the dates, with approval by Presbytery's Council. The major emphasis of the January, April, and October stated meetings shall be the Divisions of Court Operations, Elders, and Education and Mission respectively.

Presbytery shall be governed in its meetings, in order of priority, by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., this Manual of Orange Presbytery, the Parliamentary Rules adopted by the General Assembly of 1866, and by Roberts "Rules of Order" revised. Any provision of the above not required by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. may be temporarily suspended by a 2/3 majority vote of the members present.

V. AMENDMENTS

During 1972, each Committee will prepare standing rules for its own operation. These rules will be reviewed annually, customarily at the first meeting of the calendar year. Once adopted, these standing rules can be changed by majority vote of the Committee at any time.

Any Presbyterian can propose a reorganization of a Division of Presbytery. Such proposal with appropriate comments by the chairman of that Division can be submitted to Presbytery at any stated meeting. If the chairman of the Division approves the reorganization, it will go into effect at the conclusion of the next stated meeting of Presbytery unless Presbytery disapproves of it. If the chairman of the Division disapproves of it, it will not go into effect unless Presbytery approves it. Such approval can not be given until the next stated meeting of Presbytery after it has been submitted.

REPORT OF DIVISION OF ELDERS, CONTINUED

Since the last meeting of Presbytery, the Division of Elders' temporary Steering Committee has met monthly with the objective of presenting its final report to Presbytery concerning the goal, objectives, and organization of the Division of Elders. The conclusions presented in this report were reached not only after a year's deliberation by members of the Steering Committee, but also in consultation with the Commission on the Minister and His Work through its chairman, the Reverend Eugene Ensley, and with the Committee on the Manual through its chairman, the Reverend Charles Fitzpatrick.

The goal of the Division of Elders is to support, strengthen, and serve the leadership of the Church within the bounds of Orange Presbytery. The Division's objectives, or concerns, are broadly defined in the proposed revision of the Presbytery Manual which is presented herewith:

> The Division of Elders acts primarily as a reviewing, training, and pastoral agency. It is served by a General Pastor, who is ordinarily a Teaching Elder. The concerns of the Division include (1) the work of Pastors and Sessions, (2) the preparation and location of Teaching Elders and, (3) the work of Non-Parish Teaching Elders. Representatives of each concern, together with the General Pastor, form a Steering Committee for coordinating the work of the Division. The Chairman of the Commission on the Minister and His Work shall serve as a member of this Steering Committee. The Committee functions of the Commission on the Minister and His Work (BCO 21-2) will ordinarily be carried out by the Division of Elders.
> The concern for the work of Pastors and Sessions is expressed through efforts to enhance their effectiveness, such as review of sessional records, periodic review and evaluation of their ministries and continuing support activities designed to increase their competence as Christian leaders within the Presbyterian system.
> The concern for the preparation and location of Teaching Elders is expressed through exercising care for Candidates for the Ministry, through overseeing all calls to ministry, through examining ministers who are seeking membership in Presbytery, through helping churches that are seeking ministers and through facilitating pastoral changes.
> The concern for the work of Non-Parish Teaching Elders is expressed through counsel and recommendation as to the validity of their work, through regular evaluation as to the effectiveness of their ministry, through utilization of their experience and insights, through encouraging their growth in ministerial competence, and through providing opportunities for fellowship, support and participation in the work of the Presbytery.

The Division is invested by Presbytery with full authority to initiate programs and activities appropriate to these concerns.

Presbytery Commissions — The Commission on the Minister and His Work exercises pastoral concern by visiting churches to inquire into and settle difficulties, especially those arising out of relationships between Teaching Elders and churches (BCO 21-3). The Commission is also empowered to dissolve pastoral relationships when both pastor and church are in accord. To facilitate the work of the Commission the Committee responsibilities of the Commission as specified in the Book of Church Order (Par. 21-2) will ordinarily be carried out by the Division of Elders. To assure their implementation, the Chairman of the Commission shall be a member of the Steering Committee of the Division of Elders.

Pending Presbytery's adoption of this proposed manual revision concerning the Division of Elders, the implementation of its objective will be through the following committees:

The Committee on the Session and Its Work, which will be concerned with reviewing Sessional Records and with enabling Sessions to work effectively in leading their congregations in the church's ministries;

The Committee on Calls and Vacancies, which will seek to assist churches in their search for ministerial leadership, and to facilitate the process of ministerial changes;

The Committee on Non-Parish Teaching Elders which will evaluate their work, encourage them in their growth personally and professionally, seek to enable them to participate fully in the fellowship and the mission of Presbytery;

The Committee on Candidates, which, with Church Sessions, will encourage persons who give evidence of being called by God to serve as Ordained Ministers to come under the care of Presbytery, and which will be the agency of Presbytery's care and counsel during their preparation for ordination;

The Committee on Examinations which will assign examination parts to candidates for ordination and will examine all Candidates and Ministers seeking admission to the Presbytery;

The Committee on Professional Services which will offer assistance to the leadership of the church through developing resources for personal counseling, personal growth, vocational assessment and continuing education;

The Committee on Compensation which will recommend remuneration standards for the church's professional leadership and seek to insure that the financial needs of retired servants of the Church are adequately met.

With the exception of the Committee on the Session and Its Work and the Committee on Calls and Vacancies, the committees will be composed of a chairman, who will be elected annually and may serve no more than three consecutive terms, and nine members, who will serve terms of three years in three consecutive classes of three members each.

The membership of the Committee on the Session and Its Work and the Committee on Calls and Vacancies will be based on a regional grouping of churches, with one member elected to each of these committees from each regional group. Together and in behalf of the Division, these two committeemen will serve as a support-service team with particular responsibility for the churches in their regional group.

Since all of these committees are concerned with matters of vital interest to the Church's leadership and are of strategic significance to the Church's nature and mission, the membership of each committee will be elected by the Presbytery. The relatively large size of the committees is designed to involve as many of Presbytery's constituency as feasible so that the Division will be most responsive to needs, representative of views, and responsible in its work.

The work of the Division will be coordinated by a Steering Committee composed of the General Pastor as Chairman, the Chairman of the Commission on the Minister and His Work, and representatives of the committees within the Division.

The Division will be represented in the Council of Presbytery by the General Pastor as an advisory member and by two voting members: One, from the Committee on the Session and Its Work and one, from the Committee on Calls and Vacancies. One of these voting members must be a layman.

This structure for the Division of Elders has been developed in accordance with the Presbytery Manual pending adoption of proposed revisions. It is understood that the manual authorizes the Division to alter its organization and to adopt such standing rules as may become necessary for the effective implementation of its objectives as defined in the Manual.

The Temporary Steering Committee, having considered the goal and objectives of the Division of Elders with as much care and competence as it could bring to its assigned task, presents this final report concerning the Division's structure with confidence that it is functionally feasible and with hope that it will prove adequate as the Division now becomes fully operative.

Recommendations:

1. That the Proposed Revision of the Presbytery Manual be adopted and docketed for review at the end of one year, at which time Presbytery, if it deems it advisable, will seek clarification on its constitutionality.
2. That Presbytery suspend the rules of the Manual concerning "Amendments" in order that the Division of Elders may proceed immediately with the implementation of the divisional structure adopted at this meeting of Presbytery.
3. That the Nominating Committee be authorized to nominate persons to membership on the Division's Committees.
4. That the Temporary Steering Committee for the Division of Elders, having completed its assigned task, be dissolved.

REPORT OF THE GULF-FIELD ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION

The report of the Administrative Commission of the Gulf-Field Churches was presented by the chairman, the Reverend Middleton Raynal, and was adopted:

Your Commission, named at the October, 1971, meeting of Orange Presbytery, reported at the last stated meeting that we were concluding the task assigned to us and will submit our minutes to this meeting, (B.O.C.O. #118-2).

On November 15, 1972, the Commission filed a full record of the matter, including our decisions, to the Stated Clerk. By action of the Commission, the Farmville Presbyterian Church, the Goldston Presbyterian Church, the Gulf Presbyterian Church and the Haywood Presbyterian Church were dissolved on November 15, 1972.

The members of the congregation of the Goldston Church sold its property and sent the proceeds of $1,236 to Barium Springs. The former congregations of the Farmville Presbyterian Church, Haywood and Gulf Churches have each organized independent community churches and continue to have worship once a month.

The Sessional Records of each of these churches have been microfilmed by the North Carolina Department of Archives and History and are being taken to the Presbyterian Foundation, Montreat, for copying.

Each of the churches have completed and submitted to the Stated Clerk the Sessions' annual reports covering the period January 1 through November 15, 1972.

Recommendations:

1. That the minutes of this Commission submitted herewith be admitted to record.
2. That Orange Presbytery approve the following resolutions:
    (1) "That the trustees of Orange Presbytery be and are authorized and directed to convey and quitclaim any property of or relating to each of the foregoing dissolved churches to such religious or charitable organization or organizations as, in each case, a representative of the congregation of the dissolved church shall designate; and

    (2) That the congregation of each dissolved church be requested promptly to notify the Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery of the identity of the organization or organizations to which the congregations desire property to be conveyed, supplying a suitable and adequate legal description of such property and authenticated copies of any organizational documents, relating to the establishment of such organization, as the trustees may request or require."
3. That upon the return to Orange Presbytery of the Sessional Records of the dissolved churches from the Historical Foundation, they be sent on loan to the organized churches in the communities.
4. That Presbytery dissolve this Commission, its duties having been completed.

MINUTES OF ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION

The Administrative Commission for the Farmville, Haywood, Goldston and Gulf Churches met at the Orange Presbytery Office on November 15, 1971, at 1:30 p.m., with the following members present: The Reverends H. M. Raynal, Charles Carter, Donald Trent and C. L. Cheshire, Mr. Charles Wilkins, Richard Wharton, Roy Wagoner and Robert Thomas.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Reverend C. Linwood Cheshire, Jr.

The Call of the Commission by Orange Presbytery was read by the Chairman, the Reverend H. M. Raynal and was discussed by the Commission.

Factual data sheets were presented by the Chairman, and the situation of the four churches under the jurisdiction of this Commission was discussed fully, along with that of the Cumnock Church, which the Commission felt would be vitally concerned with any solution devised.

All apparent possibilities of positive action were discussed.

A motion was approved for the Commission to meet at 10:30 a.m., December 12, 1971 at the Haywood Church for the Worship service, and with the members of the Church after the service; with an additional meeting with members of the Gulf, Goldston, Cumnock and Farmville Churches to be held at Gulf in the afternoon.

A motion was approved that the concerned Clerks of Session be requested to supply active membership rolls to the Commission, and the clerks be requested to encourage attendance at the meetings.

The United Methodist District Superintendent is to be contacted by Chairman Raynal.

The Administrative Commission of Orange Presbytery met in the churchyard of Haywood Church, at 10:30 a.m., Sunday, December 12, 1971. The meeting was called to order and opened with prayer by the Chairman, the Reverend H. M. Raynal. Members present were the Reverend Raynal, Mr. Charles Wilkins, Richard L. Wharton, Roy Wagoner and Bob T. Thomas, Mr. Thomas was elected Acting Clerk.

The Commissioners familiarized themselves with family names as found on the tombstones in the church cemetery. Discussion of purpose and procedure followed with these conclusions:

1. We were there to listen and learn from the members.
2. We would inform the members of their options with respect to membership if dissolution of church is effected.
3. It was unanimously resolved that the Commission shall assure the church members in each instance, and it shall be the policy of the Commission, that it shall not seek the reversion of the property of any dissolved church to Presbytery; resolved further that the Commission shall cause the conveyance of such property to any resulting ongoing independent church, or other religious or charitable entity, arising from dissolved church's membership, with the right reserved to Presbytery to make any other disposition deemed advisable should there be no resulting church or entity.

The meeting was continued in the church, with members and interested persons of the community, following the Sunday School hour. The Reverend M. Raynal explained the purpose of the meeting and called on members of the Commission for comment.

Mr. Dennis Pake, a Ruling Elder of Haywood Church, led the question period by asking if the members could continue their own church, engage a minister and remain Presbyterian though independent of Presbytery. He also asked why the members had not been informed of Presbytery's concern at an earlier time.

By vote of the Commission, Mr. Kenoy, a non-member whose wife is a member, was granted the privilege of the floor. He asked why this action was being contemplated at a time when the local residents were expecting growth of the community.

In summation of the discussion that followed, Mr. Wilkins reviewed the Commission's options. He then suggested that the following be put to the church members for their vote in order that the Commissioners might know the wishes of the congregation.

1. Do you want to be Presbyterian? Yes 10, No 0
2. Do you want Sunday School each week? Yes 10, No 0
3. Do you desire a regular Worship Service? Yes 10, No 0
4. Would you prefer to be a chapel under another church session, or would you prefer independence? Chapel 0, Independence 3

The Reverend M. Raynal explained that no action would be taken until considerably more study had been conducted and thanked those present for their cooperation.

The meeting was recessed with prayer by the Chairman.

Following luncheon recess, the Commission was reconvened with prayer by Mr. Wagoner. As a result of the discussion by Commissioners while at lunch, Mr. Wharton moved, Mr. Wilkins seconded, the motion, which carried, to have the Commission report to Presbytery that recommendations cannot be made before December 31, 1971, and that the Commission recommends to Presbytery that this Commission be continued or reconstituted under the same charge by New Orange Presbytery.

With plans to reconvene at Gulf Church at 2:30 p.m., the meeting was closed with prayer.

The Commission reconvened at Gulf Church at 2:30 p.m., December 12, 1971. Members of Goldston, Farmville and Gulf Churches were present. Also present were members of Cumnock Church, who although not under the charge to the Commission, requested permission to attend.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mr. Thomas, after which the Reverend M. Raynal introduced the Commissioners present. The Reverend M. Raynal explained the use of a recorder for the benefit of absent Commissioners and read the charge to the Commission.

Mr. Wharton explained the dissolution of another congregation and why Presbytery had to take over the property. He further explained that in this instance, we are not interested in taking over the property but rather seeing that it is properly taken care of, probably under trusteeship from the present membership.

The chairman pointed out that our purpose was to listen and learn. He reviewed the problems growing out of inactivity as participating Presbyterians over several years.

By common consent of the Commission, the floor was opened to all present, members and non-members alike. Each family present was introduced by the head of its family.

Mr. E. L. Gunther, Clerk of Session, Cumnock Church, read a statement from the membership requesting that Cumnock Church be dismissed from Orange Presbytery and the Presbyterian Church, U. S. The Moderator explained that we did not have any authority over Cumnock Church and therefore could not take any action.

Mr. Seagrove and Mr. Tyson, of Farmville Church, related some history of the church. Originally founded as a non-denominational body, it served the then coal mining community. The school building was given to the church by the County Commissioners for religious use. Discontinuance of such use will return the school building to Chatham County.

The chairman advised options open to the Commission and what each option would mean to the members. Discussion followed, the suggestion of Mr. Wilkins, the following questions were put to vote of the fourteen members present from Gulf Church:

1. Do you wish to have a Sunday School each Sunday? Yes 14, No 0

2. Do you desire a regular schedule of worship? Yes 14, No 0

3. Do you wish to remain Presbyterian? Yes 11, No 3

4. Do you prefer Chapel status or independence? Chapel 0, Independence 8 Not voting 6

Following a review by the chairman, the meeting was closed with the Lord's Prayer by all present and the benediction pronounced by the Reverend M. Raynal.

The Administrative Commission met at the Orange Presbytery office at 3:00 p.m. on January 3, 1972.

The meeting was opened with prayer by the Reverend Don Trent.

Members present were the Reverends H. M. Raynal and Don Trent, along with Mr. Charles Wilkins, Richard Wharton, Roy Wagoner and Robert Thomas. The Reverend James McDaniel, who has been supplying in the field also attended.

The minutes of previous meetings were read and approved.

The Reverend James McDaniel reported to the Commission on the feelings and the opinions of some of the members of the churches. The Reverend J. McDaniel felt that most of the people have the desire to stay Presbyterian.

Based on the opinion of the people, Mr. McDaniel recommended that the Commission:

1. Ask Churches to elect Trustees.

2. Deed all property to the Trustees.

3. Dismiss members of Gulf, Goldston, Farmville and Haywood Churches to Cumnock.

Chairman M. Raynal pointed out that Trustees could not exist apart from active congregations and observed that in his opinion, the people of the churches had shown no desire to be Presbyterian in more than name and have no real understanding of what it means to be Presbyterian.

The Commission discussed the possible benefits to the Churches in continuing to be a part of the Presbyterian Church and the possible benefits to the Presbytery of continuing to maintain the churches.

A motion was approved that the Commission communicate with the Stated Clerk of Fayetteville Presbytery the following:

1. Representatives of Cumnock Presbyterian Church met with the Commission at Gulf, N. C. on December 12, 1971, at their request.
2. These representatives informed us that the church wishes not to be Presbyterian and to be dissolved.
3. We received later, and now pass on a communication from the Cumnock Clerk of Session.

While the Commission recognizes that it has no authority or jurisdiction over Cumnock Church, we respectfully suggest that Fayetteville Presbytery interpret the communications from Cumnock Church as a request for dissolution, and in the event the church is dissolved, that any successor, independent church, charitable or memorial institution be encouraged to request donation of the real and personal property.

A motion was approved that the Session Book of the Cumnock Church be sent to the Stated Clerk of Fayetteville Presbytery.

After further discussion, a motion was approved to recommend to Presbytery that the Commission be reconstituted to finish its work, and that members Wilkins and Wharton draft a brief report to this effect to Presbytery.

A motion to adjourn was approved, and the meeting was closed with prayer by the chairman.

The Administrative Commission met on September 18, 1972, at the home of Commission member Charles Wilkins in Greensboro, N. C.

Members present were Chairman, the Reverend H. M. Raynal, Mr. Richard L. Wharton, Charles Wilkins, Robert Thomas, Roy Wagoner, and the Reverends Charles Carter and Don Trent. The Reverend James McDaniel, who serves as Supply Pastor in the field, attended, as did the stated clerk, Mrs. Joyce Bauer.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mr. Thomas.

The minutes of previous meetings were read and approved.

The Commission reviewed its previous decisions and actions and the present status of the Churches, as presented by the chairman.

In the case of Goldston, it was reported that there are only 14 members, and while they have been unable to meet as a congregation, they are fully in accord with the Church being dissolved and the property being sold. It is their intention to use the proceeds for benevolent purposes.

The Haywood congregation held a meeting on August 4, 1972, at which time they requested dissolution by Presbytery and requested that Presbytery deed the property to what will be an ongoing independent church.

The Gulf congregation met on August 16, 1972, and voted to request dissolution and become an independent church. The congregation is awaiting the further advice of the Commission.

The Farmville congregation met and was unable to decide between becoming a Presbyterian chapel or seeking independent status. There is no obvious choice for affiliation as a chapel.

A motion was adopted approving the "sense and intent" of the unofficial meeting of this Commission on August 8, 1972. A motion was approved to dissolve the Gulf Presbyterian Church, effective November 15, 1972.

A motion was approved to dissolve the Goldston Presbyterian Church, effective November 15, 1972.

A motion was approved to dissolve the Haywood Presbyterian Church, effective November 15, 1972.

A motion was approved to dissolve the Farmville Presbyterian Church, effective November 15, 1972.

A motion was approved that the Sessional Records of the Churches be sent to the Historical Foundation for copying, with the recommendation that upon their return to Presbytery, they be sent on loan to the ongoing churches in the communities.

The Commission further approved a motion to make the following recommendation to Presbytery: "The Commission recommends to Presbytery that it be resolved:

1. That the Trustees of Orange Presbytery be and are authorized and directed to convey and quitclaim any property of or relating to each of the foregoing dissolved churches to such religious or charitable organization or organizations as, in each case, the congregation of the dissolved church shall designate; and
2. That the congregation of each disoslved church be requested promptly to notify the Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery of the identity of the organization or organizations to which the congregation desires property to be conveyed, supplying a suitable and adequate legal description of such property and authenticated copies of any organizational documents, relating to the establishment of such organization, as the Trustees may request or require."

The Chairman was instructed to prepare a report for the October 24, 1972, meeting of Orange Presbytery, and to send copies of the report to the members of the Commission for approval.

A motion was adopted requesting Presbytery to dissolve this Commission, its duties having been completed.

A motion to adjourn was approved, and the Commission was dismissed with prayer by the Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Reverend C. H. Reckard, chairman, presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions:

> "The Presbytery of Orange takes particular delight in this day spent as the guest of the First Presbyterian Church of High Point, N. C. We have been much aware of and significantly assisted by the thoroughness with which our needs have been anticipated and met. The lunch was both tasty and ample, as well as most efficiently served.
> We would keep our protocol skirts clean by extending heartfelt thanks to the pastors and officers of the First Church, which indeed we do, albeit at the same time knowing that the Shock troops more probably put it all together. In either case we are indeed grateful."

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES

The report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was presented by the chairman, the Reverend Lee Adkins:

1. The Overture to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. requesting continuance of the Board of Annuities and Relief under its present structure without any change in its present responsibilities or relationship to the General Assembly was received as information.

2. A similar Overture was presented by the Forest Hills Presbyterian Church to the Presbytery. The committee concurred with this overture. Presbytery did not concur with this overture.

NEW BUSINESS

The Reverend David Garth presented the following new business:
"The Presbytery of Orange of the Presbyterian Church in the United States meeting February 3, 1973 at the First Presbyterian Church of High Point, N. C. encourages the General Assembly of North Carolina to act affirmatively on the twenty-seventh Amendment to the United States Constitution also known as the Equal Rights Amendment, and that affirmation of the same be made to leaders of both houses of government."
Presbytery adopted the above resolution.

OFFICE OF PRESBYTERY

The report of the Office of Presbytery as printed in the Orange Book was received as information.

He is a member of the Alamance Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, N. C. All credentials have been found in order.

COMMISSION ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

Lee Adkins, chairman, presented the report of the Commission on the Minister and His Work which was adopted:

The Commission has held three meetings since the last meeting of Presbytery. One was held at a church to meet with the pastor and the Session to inquire into problems in the church. The Commission has responded to requests for assistance from four churches by sending a visiting committee of the Commission or a visit by the Commission. The General Pastor and the chairman have consulted with ministers to offer counsel and support.

At its meeting on March 15, 1973, at the First Presbyterian Church, Burlington, a request was received from Robert B. Rock, retired, that he be transferred to Fayetteville Presbytery. Being retired and living in Lee County, formerly part of Orange Presbytery, his enrollment was not automatically transferred to Fayetteville Presbytery pursuant to the realignment of Presbyteries of the Synod of N. C.

The Commission voted to grant the request of Robert B. Rock to be transferred to Fayetteville Presbytery and directed the Stated Clerk to forward a Certificate of Dismission.

A communication was received from John C. Whitley, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Eden, N. C., requesting that the pastoral relationship between himself and the First Presbyterian Church, Eden, be dissolved and that he be honorably retired from the active ministry, that his name be presented to the Kate Bittings Reynolds Fund as a beneficiary, and that the effective date of his request be June 30, 1973.

He indicates that the congregation of the church in a duly called meeting has reluctantly concurred with him in his request to Orange Presbytery.

RECOMMENDATION: (adopted)

Pending hearing from representatives of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, Eden and from John C. Whitley, we recommend that his request to be honorably retired be granted effective June 30, 1973 and that the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church, Eden be declared vacant on that date and that his name be presented to the Kate Bittings Reynolds Fund as a beneficiary, that he be presented a Certificate of Retirement and that Presbytery be led in a prayer of thanksgiving by the Reverend James S. R. Tippens.

HONORABLE RETIREMENT

The Certificate of Honorable Retirement was presented to John C. Whitley, pastor of the Eden Presbyterian Church by Z. N. Holler and prayer was voiced by James S. R. Tippens.

The Commisison has received a request from Steven R. Shoemaker that the pastoral relationship between himself and the Pittsboro Church be dissolved effective at a date to be determined later in order that he might accept the Call as Campus Minister at NCSU-Raleigh.

We recommend that pending hearing from a representative of the congregation confirming the action of the congregation that his request be granted that the pastoral relationship between himself and the Pittsboro Church be dissolved effective May 31, 1973 and that the pulpit be declared open.

RESOLUTIONS

The report of the Committee on Resolutions was presented by Allen McSween, chairman and was adopted:

"The Presbytery of Orange in Stated Meeting on April 24, 1973 expresses sincere gratitude to Almighty God for a beautiful day and for His benevolent Providence and gracious presence.

We express grateful appreciation to the First Presbyterian Church of Smithfield for the many provisions made for the comfort and convenience of the Presbytery. Especially we are grateful for the warm and friendly reception which greeted us—like coffee and doughnuts before the registration desk, and the lovely azaleas in the Recreation Room and the Sanctuary. Every need of the members of the court was anticipated and all accommodations were readily available. The lunch was delicious and the Women of the Church graciously served us with a smile.

To the host pastor, Gary Waller, we offer a special word of commendation. His genuinely cordial welcome gave the meeting of the Presbytery a flavor of earnestness from the start.

For the moderator, Malcolm Williams, we have a particular word of thanks. With competence and quiet confidence he directed us through a heavy docket with dispatch.

We are grateful to the Executives of the Presbytery for the preparation and planning which resulted in a smooth operation in the meeting.

The group leaders and the panel members enhanced our understanding of the mission and direction of the Presbytery. To them we are indebted.

Finally, but far from least, we express our gratitude for the spirit of unity and good-will which was obvious in all of the functioning of the Presbytery.

We recommend that the Presbytery voice its gratitude to all of those named by a rising vote of appreciation.

MANUAL OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

I. THE NATURE AND MISSION OF THE CHURCH

God, who chose us to be His people, calls us to serve Him through worship and work. Therefore the Church must examine its common life, and Christians their private lives, to the end that all may live as servants of God obeying His commands.

Christian worship depends upon and is a response to the presence of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and to what God has done for us and for our salvation, which we acknowledge by acts and adoration, confession, thanksgiving, petition and obedience.

The Church worships as believers, sharing a common life of faith, hope, love and commitment, assemble in common public worship. Christians worship God privately as individuals and families. We worship always as members of the Body of Christ.

The work of the Church is a response to God's grace and is done in obedience to the will of God as this will is made known in Scripture. It is expressed in proclamation of and witness to the Word of God, and deeds of love and mercy. Through this service Christians seek the fulfillment of the divine purposes in society and history.

(Preface, The Directory for the Worship and Work of the Church.)

The Presbytery of Orange, as the dynamic connection of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. with the congregations and ministers of Alamance, Caswell, Chatham, Durham, Franklin, Granville, Guilford, Halifax, Johnston, Nash, Northampton, Orange, Person, Randolph, Rockingham, Vance, Wake and Warren Counties, seeks to carry out the above statement in all its forms, structures, and programs.

The Presbytery has as its primary task to reflect the redemptive mission of Jesus Christ in all its functions as an Agency of Review, Sharing, Guidance, Training, Innovation, Linking and Pastoral oversight.

Presbytery is a reviewing agency, evaluating its words and deeds that they are obedient to the will of God.

Presbytery is a sharing agency, sharing with congregations and ministers its experience and insight in regard to the best use of resources and energies in witnessing to the Lordship of Christ in its locale.

Presbytery is a guiding agency, challenging congregations and ministers to use their full capacities in meeting their mission in being the servant community.

Presbytery is an innovative agency, initating and carrying out imaginative forms of ministry which could not normally be accomplished through the limited resources of the parish.

Presbytery is a linking agency, binding Christians to Christ, higher courts to lower, local churches to each other, other Christian bodies in cooperation, in ONE mission of the Church.

Presbytery is a pastoral agency, providing whatever support, insight or counseling may be needed by its sessions and ministers.

Presbytery is a training agency, providing whatever education, resources or personnel necessary to accomplish its mission and the mission of its member Churches.

Because mission must determine form, Presbytery must remain flexible in its attitude toward structure, responding to current opportunities for fulfilling its mission. While maintaining the integrity of the interconnected body, the Church does not exist for selfish reasons but for the service of God and to make visible the love of God at work in the world. Therefore, it must be capable of acting quickly and decisively in the Name of Christ. It must be ready to follow its Lord into the uncertain future, willing to risk all, even its organizational life, in obedience to Him.

II. THE STRUCTURE OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Orange Presbytery carries out its mission through three divisions: The Division of Education and Mission, The Division of Elders, and The Division of Court Operations. It exercises oversight of these three divisons through a Council. In addition, a Commission on the Church and its Ministry and a Commission on Presbytery's Minutes are empowered to act on behalf of Presbytery in certain limited areas.

THE DIVISION OF ELDERS

The Division of Elders acts primarily as a reviewing, training, and pastoral agency. It is served by a General Pastor, who is ordinarily a Teaching Elder. The concerns of the Division include (1) the work of Pastors and Sessions, (2) the preparation and location of Teaching Elders and, (3) the work of Non-Parish Teaching Elders. Representatives of each concern, together with the General Pastor, form a Steering Committee for coordinating the work of the Division. The Chairman of the Commission on the Minister and His Work shall serve as a member of this Steering Committee. The Committee functions of the Commission on the Minister and His Work (BCO 21-2) will ordinarily be carried out by the Division of Elders.

The concern for the work of Pastors and Sessions is expressed through efforts to enhance their effectivenes, such as review of sessional records, periodic review and evaluation of their ministries and continuing support activities designed to increase their competence as Christian leaders within the Presbyterian system.

The concern for the preparation and location of Teaching Elders is expressed through exercising care for Candidates for the Ministry, through overseeing all calls to ministry, through examining ministers who are seeking membership in Presbytery, through helping churches that are seeking ministers and through facilitating pastoral changes.

The concern for the work of Non-Parish Teaching Elders is expressed through counsel and recommendation as to the validity of their work, through regular evaluation as to the effectiveness of their ministry, through utilization of their experience and insights, through encouraging their growth in ministerial competence, and through providing opportunities for fellowship, support and participation in the work of the Presbytery.

The Division is invested by Presbytery with full authority to initiate programs and activities appropriate to these concerns.

THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION

The Division of Education and Mission acts primarily as a sharing, guiding, training, and innovative agency. It is headed by a General Presbyter, who may be either a Teaching or Ruling Elder, and is composed of (1) Committee on Education and (2) Committee on Mission. The chairman of each committee together with the general Presbyter constitutes a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Committee on Education shares its experience with and gives guidance to congregations in meeting their mission. It is concerned with commitment, education, home and family nurture, worship, service, witness and evangelism, and the physical health of the congregations and their members. The entire thrust of its work is to help congregations improve their mission by improving continuing programs as well as developing new programs or methods. It operates Presbytery's camps and conference grounds.

The Committee on Mission is an innovative agency, carrying out direct mission in such areas as urban ministry, town and country ministry, media ministry, new church development, campus Christian life, inter-church relations, and any other forms of experimental ministry. It gives guidance to urban councils, shares its experience with aid-receiving churches in improving ministry in town and country, establishes new churches, develops new techniques of ministry through use of mass media of newspapers, radio and television, links its work to the college campus, actively cooperates with other Christian bodies in ministry, and continuously tries new forms of ministry, including research, oversight and evaluation.

THE DIVISION OF COURT OPERATIONS

The Division of Court Operations is primarily a sharing and linking agency. It is headed by a Stated Clerk and Treasurer who, with staff assistance, personally performs many of the functions of the Division. Preferably, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer would be a Ruling Elder, familiar with business. The Division is composed of (1) Docket and Liaison Committee, (2) Finance Committee, and (3) Worship Committee. The chairman of the Docket and Liaison Committee and the chairman of the Finance Committee together with the Stated Clerk and Treasurer constitutes a Steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Docket and Liaison committee prepares the docket for each stated meeting of Presbytery. The docket will be submitted to the Council for their advice and consent at least two weeks before each stated meeting of Presbytery. The Stated Clerk and Treasurer will make available for study to representatives and members of Presbytery pertinent divisional reports, recommendations, and the docket at least one week prior to each stated meeting of Presbytery. After each meeting of Presbytery, stated, called or adjourned, this same group of people constitute Presbytery's Commission to approve the minutes of the previous meeting. After approval, the Stated Clerk will be authorized to print and distribute them. This committee communicates decisions of higher courts and information from various Presbyterian agencies to the appropriate parts of Presbytery. It also communicates information from any part of Presbytery to higher courts of their agencies.

The Finance Committee hears from the various divisions and agencies of Presbytery their requests for funds and prepares an appropriate budget. The budget will be submitted first to Council for their approval and then to Presbytery for their approval. This committee reviews and approves the total budget of aid-receiving churches before Presbytery benevolent funds can be released. This committee arranges for necessary audits and reports the results to Presbytery through the Council. This committee supervises deferred gifts, has responsibility for the maintenance of the physical property of Presbytery, will be in charge of any Presbytery-wide fund raising campaigns and will constitute Presbytery's link to the Glade Valley School.

The Worship Committee will have charge of all worship services at any meeting of Presbytery.

THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

The Council of Presbytery consists of sixteen voting members and five ex-officio non-voting members. The Chairman of the Council, who is a voting member, shall be elected annually by Presbytery. No individual shall serve more than three successive terms as Chairman. There shall be three classes of three each: Presbytery shall elect a class annually for three year terms. Of these nine at-large members, at least five must be laymen. The Committee on Education and the Committee on Mission of the Division of Education and Mission shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Committee on the Session and its Work and the Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Docket and Liaison Committee and the Finance Committee of the Division of Court Operations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. All of these representatives serve both on the respective committees and the council. They shall be elected annually and no individual shall serve more than three successive terms. The General Presbyter, The General Pastor, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer, the Chairman of the Commission on the Church and its Ministry, and the Moderator of Presbytery shall all be advisory non-voting members of the Council.

The major responsibility of the Council will be to coordinate the work of the three Divisions. The Council will have a Personnel Committee to make recommendations to it and Presbytery concerning the positions of General Presbyter, General Pastor, and Stated Clerk and Treasurer.

PRESBYTERY COMMISSIONS

The Commission on the Minister and His Work exercises pastoral concern by visiting churches to inquire into and settle difficulties, especially those arising out of relationships between Teaching Elders and churches (BCO 21-3). The Commission is also empowered to dissolve pastoral relationships when both pastor and church are in accord. To facilitate the work of the Commission the Committee responsibilities of the Commission as specified in the Book of Church Order (Par. 21-2) will ordinarily be carried out by the Division of Elders. To assure their implementation, the Chairman of the Commission shall be a member of the Steering Committee of the Division of Elders.

OTHER COMMITTEES

Presbytery shall elect a Nominating Committee to recommend those people who are to serve on any of Presbytery's committees or commissions. The term of office for each member of a committee or commission of Presbytery shall be three years with one-third of the committee or commission being chosen each year. No member of a committee or commission shall be eligible to succeed himself until a year after the expiration of his term. The number of elders and laymen on each committee and commission of Presbytery shall be determined by the Nominating Committee with the approval of Presbytery.

The Trustees of Presbytery shall hold legal titles of real estate and other real property in the name of Presbytery.

Standing Committees may be appointed by the Moderator at each session of Presbytery for consideration of matters specific to that meeting. These committees shall expire at the adjournment of the session. They shall be given their duties by Presbytery when they are appointed.

Ad Interim Committees may be appointed by the Council of Presbytery with the authority of presbytery. These committees shall not be concerned with matters which are exclusively part of the responsibility of an existing Division.

III. THE OFFICERS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Presbytery shall nominate a Moderator at the June stated meeting. He shall be elected at the October stated meeting. He shall preside at each meeting of Presbytery held during the next calendar year. The Moderator nominated in June would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. The Moderator shall be the official spokesman for Presbytery when Presbytery is not in session.

Presbytery shall nominate a Chairman of Presbytery's Council at the June stated meeting. He shall be elected at the October stated meeting. He shall preside at all meetings of the Council held during the next calendar year. He would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. He shall assist the outgoing chairman in making a smooth transition in the workings of the Council.

The General Presbyter, the General Pastor, and the Stated Clerk and Treasurer are employees of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by Presbytery's Council, which will also review them annually. All other employees of Presbytery will be part of one of the three Divisions of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by the Chairman of their Division, either the General Pastor, General Presbyter, or the Stated Clerk and Treasurer. They shall review these job descriptions annually.

IV. THE MEETINGS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

There shall be four stated meetings of Presbytery each year in January, April, June and October. The Docket and Liaison committee shall be responsible for setting the details of Presbytery's meetings, including the dates, with approval by Presbytery's Council. The major emphasis of the January, April, and October stated meetings shall be the Divisions of Court Operations, Elders, and Education and Mission respectively.

Presbytery shall be governed in its meetings, in order of priority, by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., this Manual of Orange Presbytery, the Parliamentary Rules adopted by the General Assembly of 1866, and by Roberts "Rules of Order" revised. Any provision of the above not required by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. may be temporarily suspended by a 2/3 majority vote of the members present.

V. AMENDMENTS

During 1972, each Committee will prepare standing rules for its own operation. These rules will be reviewed annually, customarily at the first meeting of the calendar year. Once adopted, these standing rules can be changed by majority vote of the Committee at any time.

Any Presbyterian can propose a reorganization of a Division of Presbytery. Such proposal with appropriate comments by the chairman of that Division can be submitted to Presbytery at any stated meeting. If the chairman of the Division approves the reorganization, it will go into effect at the conclusion of the next stated meeting of Presbytery unless Presbytery disapproves of it. If the chairman of the Division disapproves of it, it will not go into effect unless Presbytery approves it. Such approval can not be given until the next stated meeting of Presbytery after it has been submitted.

Any Presbyterian can propose a reorganization of Presbytery. Such proposal with appropriate comments by Presbytery's Council can be submitted to Presbytery at any stated meeting. It will not go into effect unless Presbytery approves it. Such approval can not be given until the next stated meeting after it has been submitted to Presbytery.

Any reorganization of Presbytery or other change in this Manual voted on by Presbytery shall require a 2/3 vote of the members present to be effective.

COMMITTEE ON COMPENSATION

The report of the Committee on Compensation was presented by the chairman, Richard A. Short and was adopted as a whole:

This committee is responsible for recommending compensation standards for the church's professional leadership and insuring that the financial needs of retired servants of the church and their families are adequately met. At the present, the committee is reviewing the salary situation in the Presbytery. A questionnaire concerning salaries has recently been sent to every minister in Presbytery who is employed by a church court or a church agency. The information from this survey will form part of the basis for future recommendations of this committee to Presbytery.

One difficult question the committee faces is: How shall Presbytery respond to self-supporting churches whose Calls do not comply with Presbytery's minimum standards? We suggest this as an appropriate question for discussion by the Compensation Standing Committee at the June 19 meeting.

The Committee recommends that the following change in Terms of Call be approved by Presbytery:

> The Call of the Greenwood Church to M. Hampton Hunter, changed to increase his salary to $7,300, and car allowance to $1,700 per annum.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE SESSION AND ITS WORK

The report of the Committee on the Session and Its Work was presented by Z. N. Holler and received as information. Mr. Holler explained the process of the examination of the sessional records of the churches of the Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

Lee Adkins, chairman of the Commission on the Minister and His Work, presented the report which was adopted with its recommendations.

I. Acting in the capacity of a Commission, the Commission on the Minister and His Work has taken the following action:

   1. At its meeting on May 31, a request was received from the Reverend Dewey Herring that the pastoral relationship between himself and the Crestwood Church, High Point, be dissolved effective June 15, 1973 in order that he may accept the call of the Ahoskie Church, Albemarle Presbytery.

      A letter was received from Lula Simmons, clerk of a congregational meeting reaffirming the duly called meeting of the congregation of the Crestwood Church was held May 27, 1973 in which the congregation voted to concur with the pastor's request to Orange Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relationship.

The Commission voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship between Dewey Herring and the Crestwood Church, effective June 15, 1973, to declare the pulpit vacant and to direct the Stated Clerk to forward to Albemarle Presbytery a Certificate of Dismission.

2. A request has been received from Herbert Underwood that the pastoral relationship between himself and the Westminster Church, Greensboro be dissolved and that he be granted one year away from the active pastoral ministry to reconsider his call to the gospel ministry.

   A duly called meeting of the congregation was held June 3, 1973 in which the congregation reluctantly concurred with Mr. Underwood in his request to Orange Presbytery.

3. A request has been received from David Garth, pastor of the Speedwell Church, Reidsville that the pastoral relationship between himself and the church be dissolved effective August 27, 1973 in order that he may enter upon a program of graduate studies at Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Virginia. Also that the relationship as Church Extension worker with Orange Presbytery be dissolved.
   A duly called meeting of the congregation of the Speedwell Church was held May 27, 1973 during which the congregation voted to concur with Mr. Garth in his request to Orange Presbytery.

II. Acting as a Committee, the Commission has considered the following:
A request has been received from Jerrold Lee Brooks, a member of Orange Presbytery, pursuing a program of graduate studies at Tulane University, that he be transferred to the Presbytery of South Louisiana.

RECOMMENDATION:

That upon his request, Jerrold Lee Brooks be dismissed to the Presbytery of South Louisiana, in order that he may pursue graduate studies and that the Stated Clerk forward a Certificate of Dismission.

III. Also the Commission is concerned about the difficulties that continue to be evident in the life of the Crestwood Church. These difficulties have impaired the relationship with recent pastors and have thus detracted from the fruitfulness of the church's ministry.

The pastoral relationship which is now terminating has been unhappy. The Commission feels that an opportunity to inquire into the situation in the church before calling a new pastor could contribute to establishing a more productive pastoral relationship and ministry for the Crestwood Church.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. The Commission recommends that the Presbytery of Orange appoint an Administrative Commission to inquire into and settle the difficulties in the Crestwood Church and that the church be instructed to delay calling a pastor pending the recommendation of the Administrative Commission.

2. That the pastoral relationship between Herbert Underwood and the Westminster Church, Greensboro be dissolved, effective July 1, 1973; that the pulpit of Westminster Church be declared vacant; that Mr. Underwood be granted the permission of Presbytery to labor outside the active pastorate for a period of one year to reconsider his call to the pastoral ministry; that he consult with the Committee on Non-Parish Teaching Elders after six months; and that Mr. Underwood be heard now by Presbytery.

3. That the pastoral relationship between David Garth and the Speedwell Church and the relationship between Mr. Garth and Orange Presbytery as Church Extension Worker be dissolved effective August 27, 1973; that the pulpit of the Speedwell Church be declared open; and that Mr. Garth be granted permission to pursue a program of graduate studies.

1. That the report in the Orange Book be received as information.
2. That the Presbytery reaffirm its intent stated in January, 1972 that each year two stated meetings of Presbytery be held on Saturday so that Ruling Elders might participate more easily.
3. That the Docket Committee study ways by which policy decisions and decisions in new directions made by committees and divisions may come before Presbytery.

POLICY FOR DISMISSAL

Policies and Procedures of Orange Presbytery for Dealing with Churches Contemplating Withdrawal (Dismissal) from the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

This statement of policy was written for adoption by Orange Presbytery at its Stated Meeting June 19, 1973 at Hawfields Presbyterian Church, Mebane, N. C. It is offered as a judgment of this meeting of Presbytery. It was necessitated by the emergence of an identifiable movement within the Presbyterian Church, U. S. which is making extensive efforts to induce churches to "withdraw" (be dismissed) from the denomination. For the churches' information Presbytery identifies the following groups (there may be others) as being committed to "withdrawal" (dismissal).

The Conservative Coalition
Concerned Presbyterians
Executive Committee on Overseas Evangelism Presbyterian Churchmen United Presbyterian Evangelistic Fellowship
Vanguard Presbytery
Warrior Presbytery
Steering Committee for a Continuing Presbyterian Church Faithful to the Scripures and the Reformed Faith
Convocation of Sessions

Because this movement threatens the life and integrity of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. as a whole, and in order to discourage precipitous and ill-considered action on the part of any church of Orange Presbytery, and in order to encourage clear and open communication concerning any difficulties that may arise because of the influence of this movement on our member churches, this Presbytery recommends that the following policies and procedures be publicized and observed by churches, individuals and future presbyteries.

I. General Policies of Presbytery

(1) Presbytery urges all the officers and members of its churches to undertake renewed study of the Book of Church Order, the Reformed doctrine of the Church and the basic principles of Presbyterian policy.

(2) Presbytery reminds its ministers, especially of the provisions of the BCO chs. 27-6, 111-3; of the manifold ways in which the Church has supported and hopes to continue to support their ministries; and of the requirements of integrity that are implicit in the vows and obligations which they have undertaken as Teaching Elders of the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

(3) Presbytery will insure that the procedures followed in dealing with the issues of "withdrawal" or strictly speaking, dismissal, are constitutional and expressive of the integrity of the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ.

(4) Presbytery will fulfill its obligation to uphold and protect the rights of those who are loyal to their commitments to the Presbyterian Church, U. S., even though they be in a minority in a given congregation.

(5) Presbytery will insist that any church's request to be dismissed deal justly with:

(a) The nature of the Church of Jesus Christ and the Theological commitments of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. and

(d) The rights of all who have investment in the particular church, including those not now members, whose rights are represented by Presbytery.

II. Specific Policies Concerning Churches Making Requests for Dismissal

(1) Presbytery reminds its member churches of its responsibility and power in the matter of dismissing churches (BCO ch. 2-2; ch. 16-7 (6), (7), (8), (9).

(2) Presbytery hereby declares that if any church, having acted in scrupulous adherence to the provisions of the Book of Church Order (esp. BCO chs. 5, 15, 19, 119) comes to Presbytery with a request for dismissal to a true branch of the Church of Jesus Christ (BCO ch. 2-2), such request will be considered on its merits and in the light of Presbytery's responsibilities as set forth in the Book of Church Order (esp. BCO chs. 16-7; 101-1) and Section I of this paper.

(3) Presbytery hereby assigns to the special Administrative Commission appointed to implement the provisions of this paper the responsibility of (a) reviewing and determining the constitutionality of the procedures and actions by which a church comes to the point of making such a request and (b) settling the matter or making recommnedations to Presbytery concerning the disposition of the request. (BCO 19-3).

(4) In the judgment of Presbytery any church contemplating so serious an action should abide by the following policies:

(a) Proper notification of meetings of the Session or Congregation to consider matters pertaining to "withdrawal" (dismissal) should be sent by registered mail to all the persons or families involved in each meeting, to Presbytery, and to the Administrative Commission.

(b) Two or more members of the Administrative Commission should be present by invitation in every meeting called to deal with issues pertaining to "withdrawal" (dismissal) from the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

(c) It would be the responsibility of all parties to such meetings, including the members of the Administrative Commission, to see that the Book of Church Order is at all times scrupulously followed.

(d) Any congregational meeting to consider "withdrawal" (dismissal) from Presbytery should be held no sooner than sixty (60) days after the Session votes to call the meeting.

(e) During this sixty (60) day period representatives of Presbytery should be given what they consider to be ample opportunity and time to present and discuss the issues involved in "withdrawal" (dismissal) with the Minister, with the Session and with the congregation.

(f) The voting at a congregational meeting called to deal with the issue of "withdrawal" (dismissal) should be by secret written ballot, with only members whose names appear on the active roll of the church being entitled to vote; the results should be certified by both the Session and the Administrative Commission.

(g) The Administrative Commission would then be responsible for settling the matter or recommending to Presbytery such action as is appropriate to deal with the church's request. (BCO 19-3).

(h) That, if the Administrative Commission concludes that dismissal of a church is the appropriate action to be taken, that such conclusion be recommended to Presbytery for its action

* * * * *

RECOMMENDATION:

That Council of Presbytery recommends that Presbytery authorize its Moderator and Nominating Committee to appoint an Administrative Commission of nine members, representative of Presbytery as a whole and embodying long term experience in the life of the Church, whose responsibility it shall be to implement the policies and procedures set forth in this paper.

A further motion was passed:

That in pastoral, theological, and historical concern, this paper be read in its entirety to every Session of Orange Presbytery.

REPORT OF COMMISSIONERS TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

The reports of the Commissioners to the 113th General Assembly were presented. Mrs. Lucy Rankin spoke of the participation of women and other minority groups in the decision-making of the Court and Dr. Kirk Allen spoke to several issues presented during the meeting. Some observations of the group were:

1. There was a mood of conciliation and tolerance with deep concern for the convictions of those considering withdrawal (dismissal) from PCUS.
2. There were some extreme liberals and some solid conservatives among the Commissioners, but the majority were moderates who read, studied, listened, and prayed and then voted their conscience.
3. The feeling of need of the church for commitment to Christ was best expressed in the six priorities adopted for 1975: (1) Evangelism and Outreach (2) Personal Spiritual Growth (3) Ministry to Persons and Problems (4) Leadership Development (5) Christian Cooperation (6) Strengthening the Small Church.
4. The compassion of the Commissioners and Delegates was demonstrated by the cash contribution of more than $5,000 which they gave to be used in helping alleviate world hunger.

REPORT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION FOR THE GOSHEN CHURCH

At the request of Presbytery of Orange at its January, 1973 meeting, and in conformity with the desires of the Goshen congregation and by the appointment of Moderator Malcolm Williams, the Goshen Administrative Commission at the call of the chairman, Charles Norwood, met initially April 4, 1973 in the Goshen Church building.

The Commission at its first meeting was apprised of the desires of the Goshen congregation, and Presbytery, and in accordance with the Book of Church Order agreed to fulfill these wishes. After an initial survey of the property, it was determined that an accurate land survey and appraisal was needed before further consideration of the property value. The furniture and appointments in the sancturary were dispensed as follows: Communion Service was returned to the original donator, First Presbyterian Church of Henderson; pulpit and furniture given to the Grassy Creek Church; the piano donated to Developmental Day Care Center at Mebane Memorial Church, Roxboro; and the smaller items and pews to be distributed and/or sold to members of the congregation and other interested persons by Elder Harry Humphries of the Goshen congregation.

The Commission met for the second time by the call of the Chairman at Mebane Memorial Presbyterian Church in Roxboro, after hearing that an offer to buy the property had been made. After hearing the report of the completed survey which revealed that there was approximately one acre of land and one building in the total property and the report of the offer of $1,000 plus surveyor's fee, the Commission rejected the offer and proposed sale by auction in October.

On June 26, 1973 the Commission was called to meet again at Mebane Memorial Church, Roxboro. The offer of $2,000 for property, $200 for remaining pews and $75 surveyor fee (total $2,275) was accepted by the Commission. The Reverend Robert Cochran was asked to contact a lawyer in Oxford to allow the purchaser, Mr. Willie Lee Thomas, to have use of the property until the title could be conveyed to him upon final consent of Presbytery at its October meeting.

Recommendations:

1. That the Goshen Presbyterian Church of Oxford, N. C. be dissolved and and that the congregation be allowed to continue as a unit and worship as a group with another congregation until such time as the real and personal property of the Church be disposed of and that the sessional records be kept by a designated clerk until each member of the congregation has found his or her place with another congregation; after two years the records be deposited with the Historical Foundation of Montreat, N. C.

2. That the Trustees of Orange Presbytery be authorized and instructed to convey the title of the property (as prepared) of the Goshen Presbyterian Church to Mr. Willie Lee Thomas of Oxford, N. C. for the sum of $2,275.

3. That Presbytery give affirmation to the request of the Goshen congregation for the proceeds of the sale of the Goshen properties to be transferred to the Geneva Church.

4. That the records of the Administrative Commission be admitted to record. The above report, with its recommendations, was adopted and the Commission dissolved.

That Carol Miller Lipscomb, Gary S. Eller and Robert C. Evans, III, be examined by Presbytery with a view to their becoming candidates for the gospel ministry and that, they be enrolled as candidates for the ministry under the care of Orange Presbytery.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES

Candidates Carol Miller Lipscomb, Gary S. Eller and Robert C. Evans, III were presented for examination for reception into the Presbytery. The moderator conducted the examination on their experience of Christian Grace and motives for seeking the Ministry of the Word, which was sustained, and propounded the constitutional questions, which were answered in the affirmative, after which Dr. Albert Edwards delivered a brief charge to each and then recommended that they be enrolled as Candidate for the Gospel Ministry under the care of Presbytery. Prayer was voiced by Dr. Wallace M. Alston, Jr. The moderator declared them acknowledged and received as Candidates for the Ministry of the Word, and directed that their names be recorded on the Presbytery's Roll of Candidates for the Ministry. The moderator extended to the Candidates the right hand of Christian fellowship, and the proceedings were closed with a benediction by the moderator.

ADJOURNMENT

5. That Clyde O. Robinson, Jr. be granted permission to labor outside the bounds of Orange Presbytery in order to work with GEB, Atlanta, Georgia.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PROFESSIONAL SERVICES

The report of the Committee on Professional Services was presented by Z. N. Holler in the absence of Frank Lemmon, Jr., chairman, and was received as information with the recommendations adopted:

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the Presbytery urge all Sessions to report their response to the Ad Interim Committee's report by April 1, 1974.
2. That the order of the day granted to the Professional Services Committee for the January Presbytery meeting be deferred until the April meeting in view of the delay in the printing of the above mentioned pamphlets.
3. That members of the course being offered on Lively Liturgy be permitted to participate in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper and to have this celebration in connection with the course.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COMPENSATION

The report of the Committee on Compensation was presented by the chairman, Richard Short and was received as information with the recommendations being adopted:

RECOMMENDATIONS:

We recommend that Orange Presbytery adopt the following standards for 1974 as the minimum basis for all new full-time ministerial contracts/calls and the recommended basis for revising ministerial contracts/calls already in effect.

Starting Salary Including Housing Allowance

The suggested minimum figure for this category in 1974 is $10,800. Of this a specific amount can be designated as housing allowance in lieu of a manse. This should be an amount equal to the cost of mortgage payments, taxes, utilities and other annual costs of maintaining the minister's residence.

In the case of churches that own manses, a reasonable allowance for the manse furnished and maintained by the church may be deducted from the inclusive figure of $10,800. This deduction should not include that part of mortgage payments which goes toward building the church's equity in the manse property.

The committee understands this recommended base salary as a minimum fair salary for those who are duly ordained by presbyteries as teaching elders. That is, it is a starting salary.

Standard Fringe Benefits

These include the full 12% MAF dues, Major Medical, Life and Disability Insurance benefits provided by the Board of Annuities and Relief, and a vacation of one month.

Professional Expenses

These are expenses which should be borne by the churches and are not properly a part of salary or benefits. They include:

1. The costs of travel involved in the performance of ministerial duties (preferably the provision of a car; alternatively, presbytery's rate of 12¢ per mile for professional travel or a lump sum as nearly as possible equivalent to the actual cost of the particular minister's professional travel expenses).
2. The time and costs involved in continuing education (here we call to the attention of the churches the standards set forth in the Report of the Ad Interim Committee on the Church's Use of Her Ordained Ministry; $300 for annual two week study leave for the maintenance of professional competence and $120 for extended professional development leave. See Section IV-C (5) and V-(10) of the Committee's Report); and
3. Money for books and journals.

Guidelines for Annual Review and Adjustment of Minister's Salaries

Factors to be considered in adding increments to the starting salary (Item I) at the time of issuing a call or of annual evaluation and adjustment of a minister's salary include:

1. Previous experience in the ministry
2. Demonstrated competence and improved skills
3. A job description based on the goals of the church he serves
4. The financial requirements related to serving a particular congregation (cost of housing in areas where the minister must live, cost of expected and desired entertaining, and the like)
5. Number, age and particular needs of the minister's dependents.

The committee points out that these standards reflect its awareness of the minimum salary standards suggested in the Ad Interim Committee's report (Section IV-C, V-10) and exceed those standards, which are based on 1972 figures.

It is the understanding of the committee that the recommended starting salary figure in this report will be reviewed annually by the Committee on Compensation and that a revised figure will be recommended to Presbytery each year for adoption. This figure will reflect such factors as changes in the cost of living in this area, recommendations of the General Assembly, and the like.

In addition, the committee recommends that:

The Call of the Yanceyville Presbyterian Church to John M. Duncan be changed, in accordance with a previous agreement to make this a half-time relationship as of September, 1973, as follows: Salary—$3,650 and car allowance $850.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

The report of the Commission on the Minister and His Work was presented by Lee Adkins, chairman and was adopted as a whole:

Since the last meeting of Presbytery the Commission has consulted with four ministers and made five visits to churches in the Presbytery.

I. Acting in the capacity of a commission, the Commission On the Minister and His Work has taken the following actions:

A. W. W. Olney appeared before the Commission to request that the pastoral relationship between himself and the Hillsborough Church be dissolved effective August 15, 1973 and that he be granted permission to labor away from the active pastoral ministry for a period of one (1) year to reconsider his call to the pastoral ministry.

A letter was received advising that a duly called meeting of the congregation was held on August 19, 1973 in which the congregation reluctantly concurred with Mr. Olney in his request to Orange Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relationship with the church effective August 30, 1973. The letter was certified by the Clerk of the meeting, E. Wilson Cole.

Action

The Commission voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship between Willard W. Olney and the Hillsborough Church, effective August 30, 1973 and to declare the pulpit vacant.

B. Larry Churchill requested by letter that the pastoral relationship between himself and the Little River Church be dissolved effective August 15, 1973 in order that he may pursue a program of research studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and teaching at Duke University.

A letter was received from the Clerk, Wm. D. Miller, certifying that the congregation in a duly called meeting had voted to concur with Larry Churchill in his request to Orange Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relationship.

Action

The Commission voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship between Larry Churchill and the Little River Church effective August 15, 1973 and to declare the pulpit vacant.

C. W. Lowry McBath appeared before the Commission to request that the pastoral relationship between himself and the Alamance Church be dissolved September 30, 1973 and that he be granted permission to labor away from the pastoral ministry with a view to developing a self-suppotring pastoral ministry outside the bounds of Orange Presbytery.

Elder Mitchell Causey appeared before the Commission to advise that at a duly called meeting of the congregation held on September 16, 1973, the congregation voted to concur with Mr. McBath in his request to Orange Presbytery.

Action

The Commission voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship between the Reveernd W. Lowry McBath and the Alamance Church effective September 30, 1973 and to declare the pulpit vacant.

D. Marion Phillips appeared before the Commission to request that the pastoral relationship between himself and the Church of Reconciliation, Chapel Hill, N. C. be dissolved and that he be permitted to labor away from the pastoral ministry in the School of Medicine at UNC, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Dr. Thomas Curtis and Dr. James Bryan appeared before the Commission to advise that the congregation in a duly called meeting held on July 22, 1973 voted to concur with Mr. Phillips' request to Orange Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relationship.

Action

The Commission voted to dissolve the pastoral relationship between Marion Phillips and the Church of Reconciliation effective September 30, 1973 and to declare the pulpit vacant.

II. Acting as a Committee, the Commission has considered the following and makes these recommendations:

A. That W. W. Olney be granted permission to labor outside the pastoral ministry to reconsider his call to the pastoral ministry for a period of one (1) year and that he consult with the Committee on Non-Parish Teaching Elders after six (6) months.

B. That Larry Churchill be granted permission to labor outside the active pastoral ministry in a program of graduate studies and teaching, such endeavors being considered appropriate to the work of a teaching elder.

C. That W. Lowry McBath be granted permission to labor outside the active pastoral ministry for a period of one (1) year with a view to developing a self-supporting pastoral ministry and that he consult with the Committee on Non-Parish Teaching Elders after six (6) months.

D. That Marion Phillips be granted permission to labor as a member of the staff of the School of Medicine, UNC-Chapel Hill, N. C.

III. It is of concern to the Commission that an increasing number of ministers are seeking to labor away from the active pastoral ministry. We note with considerable concern that four pastors, in a period of four months have vacated their pulpits requesting permission for time to reconsider their call to the pastoral ministry or to explore vocations outside the pastorate or work appropriate to the ordained ministry. This suggests a growing need for discovering and implementing ways for providing more effective support to pastors and their families serving the church.

A motion passed that the request of David Hamilton to be transferred to a presbytery involved in the Continuing Church Movement be referred to the Commission on the Minister and His Work and docketed for the January, 1974 meeting of Orange Presbytery.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

Wallace Alston, chairman, presented the report of the Council of Presbytery which was received as information. Action concerning Glade Valley School was tabled until the January meeting of Presbytery (1974).

MANUAL OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

I. THE NATURE AND MISSION OF THE CHURCH

God, who chose us to be His people, calls us to serve Him through worship and work. Therefore the Church must examine its common life, and Christians their private lives, to the end that all may live as servants of God obeying His commands.

Christian worship depends upon and is a response to the presence of God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and to what God has done for us and for our salvation, which we acknowledge by acts and adoration, confession, thanksgiving, petition and obedience.

The Church worships as believers, sharing a common life of faith, hope, love and commitment, assemble in common public worship. Christians worship God privately as individuals and families. We worship always as members of the Body of Christ.

The work of the Church is a response to God's grace and is done in obedience to the will of God as this will is made known in Scripture. It is expressed in proclamation of and witness to the Word of God, and deeds of love and mercy. Through this service Christians seek the fulfillment of the divine purposes in society and history.

(Preface, The Directory for the Worship and Work of the Church.)

The Presbytery of Orange, as the dynamic connection of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. with the congregations and ministers of Alamance, Caswell, Chatham, Durham, Franklin, Granville, Guilford, Halifax, Johnston, Nash, Northampton, Orange, Person, Randolph, Rockingham, Vance, Wake and Warren Counties, seeks to carry out the above statement in all its forms, structures, and programs.

The Presbytery has as its primary task to reflect the redemptive mission of Jesus Christ in all its functions as an Agency of Review, Sharing, Guidance, Training, Innovation, Linking and Pastoral oversight.

Presbytery is a reviewing agency, evaluating its words and deeds that they are obedient to the will of God.

Presbytery is a sharing agency, sharing with congregations and ministers its experience and insight in regard to the best use of resources and energies in witnessing to the Lordship of Christ in its locale.

Presbytery is a guiding agency, challenging congregations and ministers to use their full capacities in meeting their mission in being the servant community.

Presbytery is an innovative agency, initating and carrying out imaginative forms of ministry which could not normally be accomplished through the limited resources of the parish.

Presbytery is a linking agency, binding Christians to Christ, higher courts to lower, local churches to each other, other Christian bodies in cooperation, in ONE mission of the Church.

Presbytery is a pastoral agency, providing whatever support, insight or counseling may be needed by its sessions and ministers.

Presbytery is a training agency, providing whatever education, resources or personnel necessary to accomplish its mission and the mission of its member Churches.

Because mission must determine form, Presbytery must remain flexible in its attitude toward structure, responding to current opportunities for fulfilling its mission. While maintaining the integrity of the interconnected body, the Church does not exist for selfish reasons but for the service of God and to make visible the love of God at work in the world. Therefore, it must be capable of acting quickly and decisively in the Name of Christ. It must be ready to follow its Lord into the uncertain future, willing to risk all, even its organizational life, in obedience to Him.

II. THE STRUCTURE OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Orange Presbytery carries out its mission through three divisions: The Division of Education and Mission, The Division of Elders, and The Division of Court Operations. It exercises oversight of these three divisons through a Council. In addition, a Commission on the Church and its Ministry and a Commission on Presbytery's Minutes are empowered to act on behalf of Presbytery in certain limited areas.

THE DIVISION OF ELDERS

The Division of Elders acts primarily as a reviewing, training, and pastoral agency. It is served by a General Pastor, who is ordinarily a Teaching Elder. The concerns of the Division include (1) the work of Pastors and Sessions, (2) the preparation and location of Teaching Elders and, (3) the work of Non-Parish Teaching Elders. Representatives of each concern, together with the General Pastor, form a Steering Committee for coordinating the work of the Division. The Chairman of the Commission on the Minister and His Work shall serve as a member of this Steering Committee. The Committee functions of the Commission on the Minister and His Work (BCO 21-2) will ordinarily be carried out by the Division of Elders.

The concern for the work of Pastors and Sessions is expressed through efforts to enhance their effectivenes, such as review of sessional records, periodic review and evaluation of their ministries and continuing support activities designed to increase their competence as Christian leaders within the Presbyterian system.

The concern for the preparation and location of Teaching Elders is expressed through exercising care for Candidates for the Ministry, through overseeing all calls to ministry, through examining ministers who are seeking membership in Presbytery, through helping churches that are seeking ministers and through facilitating pastoral changes.

The concern for the work of Non-Parish Teaching Elders is expressed through counsel and recommendation as to the validity of their work, through regular evaluation as to the effectiveness of their ministry, through utilization of their experience and insights, through encouraging their growth in ministerial competence, and through providing opportunities for fellowship, support and participation in the work of the Presbytery.

The Division is invested by Presbytery with full authority to initiate programs and activities appropriate to these concerns.

THE DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION

The Division of Education and Mission acts primarily as a sharing, guiding, training, and innovative agency. It is headed by a General Presbyter, who may be either a Teaching or Ruling Elder, and is composed of (1) Committee on Education and (2) Committee on Mission. The chairman of each committee together with the general Presbyter constitutes a steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Committee on Education shares its experience with and gives guidance to congregations in meeting their mission. It is concerned with commitment, education, home and family nurture, worship, service, witness and evangelism, and the physical health of the congregations and their members. The entire thrust of its work is to help congregations improve their mission by improving continuing programs as well as developing new programs or methods. It operates Presbytery's camps and conference grounds.

The Committee on Mission is an innovative agency, carrying out direct mission in such areas as urban ministry, town and country ministry, media ministry, new church development, campus Christian life, inter-church relations, and any other forms of experimental ministry. It gives guidance to urban councils, shares its experience with aid-receiving churches in improving ministry in town and country, establishes new churches, develops new techniques of ministry through use of mass media of newspapers, radio and television, links its work to the college campus, actively cooperates with other Christian bodies in ministry, and continuously tries new forms of ministry, including research, oversight and evaluation.

THE DIVISION OF COURT OPERATIONS

The Division of Court Operations is primarily a sharing and linking agency. It is headed by a Stated Clerk and Treasurer who, with staff assistance, personally performs many of the functions of the Division. Preferably, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer would be a Ruling Elder, familiar with business. The Division is composed of (1) Docket and Liaison Committee, (2) Finance Committee, and (3) Worship Committee. The chairman of the Docket and Liaison Committee and the chairman of the Finance Committee together with the Stated Clerk and Treasurer constitutes a Steering committee to coordinate the work of the Division.

The Docket and Liaison committee prepares the docket for each stated meeting of Presbytery. The docket will be submitted to the Council for their advice and consent at least two weeks before each stated meeting of Presbytery. The Stated Clerk and Treasurer will make available for study to representatives and members of Presbytery pertinent divisional reports, recommendations, and the docket at least one week prior to each stated meeting of Presbytery. After each meeting of Presbytery, stated, called or adjourned, this same group of people constitute Presbytery's Commission to approve the minutes of the previous meeting. After approval, the Stated Clerk will be authorized to print and distribute them. This committee communicates decisions of higher courts and information from various Presbyterian agencies to the appropriate parts of Presbytery. It also communicates information from any part of Presbytery to higher courts of their agencies.

The Finance Committee hears from the various divisions and agencies of Presbytery their requests for funds and prepares an appropriate budget. The budget will be submitted first to Council for their approval and then to Presbytery for their approval. This committee reviews and approves the total budget of aid-receiving churches before Presbytery benevolent funds can be released. This committee arranges for necessary audits and reports the results to Presbytery through the Council. This committee supervises deferred gifts, has responsibility for the maintenance of the physical property of Presbytery, will be in charge of any Presbytery-wide fund raising campaigns and will constitute Presbytery's link to the Glade Valley School.

The Worship Committee will have charge of all worship services at any meeting of Presbytery.

THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

The Council of Presbytery consists of sixteen voting members and five ex-officio non-voting members. The Chairman of the Council, who is a voting member, shall be elected annually by Presbytery. No individual shall serve more than three successive terms as Chairman. There shall be three classes of three each: Presbytery shall elect a class annually for three year terms. Of these nine at-large members, at least five must be laymen. The Committee on Education and the Committee on Mission of the Division of Education and Mission shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Committee on the Session and its Work and the Committee on Candidates, Calls and Examinations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. The Docket and Liaison Committee and the Finance Committee of the Division of Court Operations shall each elect a voting representative to Council. At least one must be a layman. All of these representatives serve both on the respective committees and the council. They shall be elected annually and no individual shall serve more than three successive terms. The General Presbyter, The General Pastor, the Stated Clerk and Treasurer, the Chairman of the Commission on the Church and its Ministry, and the Moderator of Presbytery shall all be advisory non-voting members of the Council.

The major responsibility of the Council will be to coordinate the work of the three Divisions. The Council will have a Personnel Committee to make recommendations to it and Presbytery concerning the positions of General Presbyter, General Pastor, and Stated Clerk and Treasurer.

PRESBYTERY COMMISSIONS

The Commission on the Minister and His Work exercises pastoral concern by visiting churches to inquire into and settle difficulties, especially those arising out of relationships between Teaching Elders and churches (BCO 21-3). The Commission is also empowered to dissolve pastoral relationships when both pastor and church are in accord. To facilitate the work of the Commission the Committee responsibilities of the Commission as specified in the Book of Church Order (Par. 21-2) will ordinarily be carried out by the Division of Elders. To assure their implementation, the Chairman of the Commission shall be a member of the Steering Committee of the Division of Elders.

OTHER COMMITTEES

Presbytery shall elect a Nominating Committee to recommend those people who are to serve on any of Presbytery's committees or commissions. The term of office for each member of a committee or commission of Presbytery shall be three years with one-third of the committee or commission being chosen each year. No member of a committee or commission shall be eligible to succeed himself until a year after the expiration of his term. The number of elders and laymen on each committee and commission of Presbytery shall be determined by the Nominating Committee with the approval of Presbytery.

The Trustees of Presbytery shall hold legal titles of real estate and other real property in the name of Presbytery.

Standing Committees may be appointed by the Moderator at each session of Presbytery for consideration of matters specific to that meeting. These committees shall expire at the adjournment of the session. They shall be given their duties by Presbytery when they are appointed.

Ad Interim Committees may be appointed by the Council of Presbytery with the authority of presbytery. These committees shall not be concerned with matters which are exclusively part of the responsibility of an existing Division.

III. THE OFFICERS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Presbytery shall nominate a Moderator at the June stated meeting. He shall be elected at the October stated meeting. He shall preside at each meeting of Presbytery held during the next calendar year. The Moderator nominated in June would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. The Moderator shall be the official spokesman for Presbytery when Presbytery is not in session.

Presbytery shall nominate a Chairman of Presbytery's Council at the June stated meeting. He shall be elected at the October stated meeting. He shall preside at all meetings of the Council held during the next calendar year. He would normally attend the Council meeting which approves the Docket for the following October stated meeting. He shall assist the outgoing chairman in making a smooth transition in the workings of the Council.

The General Presbyter, the General Pastor, and the Stated Clerk and Treasurer are employees of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by Presbytery's Council, which will also review them annually. All other employees of Presbytery will be part of one of the three Divisions of Presbytery. Their specific duties will be covered by job descriptions prepared by the Chairman of their Division, either the General Pastor, General Presbyter, or the Stated Clerk and Treasurer. They shall review these job descriptions annually.

IV. THE MEETINGS OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

There shall be four stated meetings of Presbytery each year in January, April, June and October. The Docket and Liaison committee shall be responsible for setting the details of Presbytery's meetings, including the dates, with approval by Presbytery's Council. The major emphasis of the January, April, and October stated meetings shall be the Divisions of Court Operations, Elders, and Education and Mission respectively.

Presbytery shall be governed in its meetings, in order of priority, by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., this Manual of Orange Presbytery, the Parliamentary Rules adopted by the General Assembly of 1866, and by Roberts "Rules of Order" revised. Any provision of the above not required by the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. may be temporarily suspended by a 2/3 majority vote of the members present.

V. AMENDMENTS

During 1972, each Committee will prepare standing rules for its own operation. These rules will be reviewed annually, customarily at the first meeting of the calendar year. Once adopted, these standing rules can be changed by majority vote of the Committee at any time.

Any Presbyterian can propose a reorganization of a Division of Presbytery. Such proposal with appropriate comments by the chairman of that Division can be submitted to Presbytery at any stated meeting. If the chairman of the Division approves the reorganization, it will go into effect at the conclusion of the next stated meeting of Presbytery unless Presbytery disapproves of it. If the chairman of the Division disapproves of it, it will not go into effect unless Presbytery approves it. Such approval can not be given until the next stated meeting of Presbytery after it has been submitted.

Any Presbyterian can propose a reorganization of Presbytery. Such proposal with appropriate comments by Presbytery's Council can be submitted to Presbytery at any stated meeting. It will not go into effect unless Presbytery approves it. Such approval can not be given until the next stated meeting after it has been submitted to Presbytery.

Any reorganization of Presbytery or other change in this Manual voted on by Presbytery shall require a 2/3 vote of the members present to be effective.

8. The following Overture from the Session of the Westview Presbyterian Church, Burlington, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

9. A request for dissolution of the Gruver Memorial Church, Littleton, was made by the congregation of the church. This was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

FROM: The Gruver Memorial Presbyterian Church

The Congregation of the Gruver Memorial Church met Sunday, January 13, 1974, and reluctantly voted to disband as a congregation and to close the church. The meeting was called and conducted in accordance with the rules of the Book of Church Order governing Congregational Meetings.

The Congregation requests the Presbytery of Orange to take steps necessary for dissolution and for the proper disposition of church property, and to assist the Congregation in the transfer of church members to other churches. Reason for this action is declining membership reducing the number of active members on the church roll to such a small number as to make it impractical to carry on and to support the life and work of a congregation.

This request is given to the Presbytery by the pastor of the church in accordance with the wishes of the congregation.

10. W. T. Perkins presented a report of the Stewardship Promotion Committee and requested questionnaires to be completed and handed in during this meeting.

11. NEW BUSINESS — An overture to the General Assembly concerning an Amendment to the Book of Church Order 111-3 was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

WHEREAS, certain church officers and members of this Presbytery have acted in such a way as to be seen as schismatic given the definition previously established;

AND WHEREAS, it is with deep regret and sorrow that the Presbytery humbly exercises the discipline of the church in these cases;

AND WHEREAS, the Presbytery ought in its exercise of discipline to be able to act discriminately and fittingly;

THEREFORE, Orange Presbytery overtures the 114th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S. to amend the Book of Church Order, 111-3, to read as follows:

> "When a church officer, whether Minister, Ruling Elder, or Deacon, renounces the communion or authority of this Church by a statement or by joining some other Church recognized by our own as a true branch of the Church of Christ, the court having jurisdiction shall record the irregularity and withdraw from him all authority to exercise office derived from this Church. If charges are pending against him, the court shall communicate to the Church the officer has joined a full statement of the charges pending. When a Church officer renounces the communion of this Church by affiliating himself with some organized religious body which is heretical or schismatic, the court having jurisdiction shall make a full record of the irregularity, and declare that he is divested of his office in the Church and no longer possesses any rights or authority pertaining thereto, and shall censure the officer to the degree which the court deems appropriate.

REPORT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION TO DEAL WITH CHURCHES SEEKING TO WITHDRAW FROM THE DENOMINATION

Jerry McCann, chairman, presented the report. The following statement was presented to Presbytery:

STATEMENT

"Whereas, the congregation of the Northside Presbyterian Church, Burlington, on August 5, 1973 and the congregation of the Fuller Memorial Presbyterian Church, Durham, on August 19, 1973 did adopt the following resolution:

RESOLUTION

> 'Whereas, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States has engaged in actions fraught with fraud, collusion and arbitrariness detrimental to the rights of Northside (and Fuller Memorial) Presbyterian Church, and
> 'Whereas, continued association with Orange Presbytery and the Presbyterian Church in the United States is no longer possible and the congregation of Northside (and Fuller Memorial) Presbyterian Church wishes to free itself on its denominational affiliation, and

'Whereas, such exercise of freedom is guaranteed by the First and Fourteenth Amendments of the Constitution of the United States of America;

'Now Therefore be it resolved by the congregation of Northside (and Fuller Memorial) Presbyterian Church that it do withdraw from Orange Presbytery and the Presbyterian Church in the United States, and by so doing does sever all relationships with said bodies.

'Be it further resolved by the congregation of Northside (and Fuller Memorial) Presbyterian Church that it declares itself to be an autonomous and independent church free of any association with the Orange Presbytery and the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

'And be it further resolved that all matters concerning the Northside (and Fuller Memorial) Presbyterian Church both spiritual and secular, shall be determined by the local church congregation and shall be carried out through its duly elected officers.

'And Whereas there is no provision in the Book of Church Order for unilateral withdrawal of a church from the Presbyterian Church in the United States,

'And Whereas the Sessions of the churches involved refused to respond in any way to the request of the Administrative Commission on November 6, 1973 which rejected the accusations contained in the Resolution of Withdrawal, requested the congregations to rescind their action to withdraw unilaterally from Orange Presbytery, withdraw their Resolution and inform the Commission of such action by December 1, 1973 stating that not to do the above would result in overt action by the Administrative Commission.

'And Whereas it has been published abroad that these churches have affiliated themselves with another body which identifies itself as the National Presbyterian Church,

Therefore, your Administrative Commission makes the following recommendations to Orange Presbytery:"

RECOMMENDATIONS: The following recommendations were adopted by Orange Presbytery:

1. That Orange Presbytery categorically reject the accusations contained in the Resolution of Withdrawal.
2. That Presbytery record the irregularity and withdraw from the Ruling Elders and Deacons all authority to exercise office derived from the Presbyterian Church, U.S.
3. (This recommendation was reconsidered and a substitute adopted, see page 35 Administrative Commission.)
4. That the relationship between the Pastor of the Northside Church (the Reverend David E. Hamilton) and Orange Presbytery be referred to the Commission on the Minister and His Work for recommendation.

REPORT OF ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION RESUMED

The report of the Administrative Commission was resumed and a motion passed that further consideration of the report of the Commission be postponed until we have heard the Commission on the Minister and His Work with regard to the question of schism.

ORDER OF THE DAY—COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

The Order of the Day was called and Presbytery proceeded to hear the report of the Council of Presbytery. A motion to take from the table the question of Glade Valley School was defeated.

Wallace M. Alston, chairman of Presbytery's Council, presented the report of the Council and the report with its recommendations was amended and adopted:

The Council of Orange Presbytery has met twice since the last Presbytery meeting. An Ad Hoc Committee composed of Kirk Allen, Charles Wilkins and Joyce Bauer was appointed by Council to study the situation of Glade Valley School. The committee presented the following recommendations to Council which were approved and the Council of Orange Presbytery thus recommends the following:

RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNING GLADE VALLEY:

1. That Presbytery instruct the Council of Presbytery to proceed with a thorough study involving representatives of the Councils of Orange and Concord Presbyteries with the representatives of the Board of Trustees of Glade Valley School and report a series of facts and observations to the next meeting of Presbytery.

2. That this study shall be made in light of Presbytery's understanding of its own goals and objectives and its stewardship of benevolence funds.

3. That study should include a recognition of the potential that this geographical site holds for a development of a ministry to persons in Piedmont Carolina and therefore should look with anticipation to a greatly enlarged program involving the Presbyteries, Synod and General Assembly, i.e., linkage of the Barium Springs ministry to families and persons; linkage with Professional Development Division of GEB and Commission on the Minister.

4. That we put in the budget of Orange Presbytery the sum of $10,000 for 1974 for Glade Valley School.

ADDITIONAL RECOMMENDATIONS:

5. That, inasmuch as Mrs. Joyce Bauer was informed after she was employed that Presbytery intended to move its office, thus causing her overwhelming automobile expenses, Presbytery give her the sum of $2,500 as an expression of appreciation for her willingness to serve under these conditions, and in lieu of moving expenses to Durham.

6. That Presbytery continue to work under the present manual during 1974.

COMMISSION ON THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK

Presbytery heard again from the Commission on the Minister and His Work and the following resolution on schism in the Church was adopted:

Whereas, "schism" is commonly defined* as "a: formal division in or separation from a church or religious body b: the offense of promoting schism";

And whereas, the movement identified in the whole variously as the "Continuing Presbyterian Church" or the "National Presbyterian Church" is in the process of formal separation and constitution apart from the Presbyterian Church in the United States;

And whereas, certain PCUS congregations, ruling elders and teaching elders have acted to form or to join one of the several presbyteries (Vangard, Warrior, Gulf Coast, Mid-Atlantic, et al) which are identified with this movement, thus, separating themselves from the Presbyterian Church in the United States;

And whereas, this separatist movement has been promoted and encouraged by several organizations (Presbyterian Evangelistic Fellowship, Concerned Presbyterians, et al), and publications (The Presbyterian Journal, The Concerned Presbyterian, et al);

And whereas, this movement represents a "strike at the vitals of religion" and is being "industriously spread;" (Cf., BOCO 107-5)

Therefore, be it resolved that Orange Presbytery of the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States, declares this separatist movement (all presbyteries, congregations, ruling elders and teaching elders who identify themselves with it and all organizations and publications which have promoted and encouraged it) to be schismatic.

CONSIDERATION OF ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION TO DEAL WITH CHURCHES SEEKING TO WITHDRAW FROM THE DENOMINATION

The report of the Administrative Commission resumed and a motion to reconsider recommendation number three (previously adopted) was passed. The following was adopted as a substitute:
That Presbytery dissolve Northside (and Fuller Memorial) Churches effective January 15, 1974.

Recommendation number five was amended and adopted as follows:
That all property of the churches be delivered, conveyed and transferred to the authorized agents of Orange Presbytery in accord with the Book of Church Order, 6-3, on or before April 15, 1974.

COMMITTEE ON BILLS AND OVERTURES

A partial report of the Committee on Bills and Overtures was presented by Paul Boone, chairman, and the following recommendation was adopted:

1. That the Overture relating to paragraph 111-3 of the Book of Church Order proposed by the Commission on the Minister and His Work, be approved and be forwarded to the General Assembly.

*Webster's Seventh New Collegiate Dictionary, 1971

"Whereas, certain church officers and members of this Presbytery have acted in such a way as to be seen as schismatic given the definition previously established;

And whereas, it is with deep regret and sorrow that the Presbytery humbly exercises the discipline of the church in these cases;

And whereas, the Presbytery ought in its exercise of discipline to be able to act discriminately and fittingly;

Therefore, Orange Presbytery overtures the 114th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. to amend the Book of Church Order, 111-3, to read as follows:

"When a Church Officer, whether Minister, Ruling Elder, or Deacon, renounces the communion or authority of this Church by a statement or by joining some other Church recognized by our own as a true branch of the Church of Christ, the court having jurisdiction shall record the irregularity and withdraw from him all authority to exercise office derived from this Church. If charges are pending against him, the court shall communicate to the Church the officer has joined a full statement of the charges pending. When a Church Officer renounces the communion of this Church by affiliating himself with some organized religious body which is heretical or schismatic, the court having jurisdiction shall make a full record of the irregularity, and declare that he is divested of his office in the Church and no longer possesses any rights of authority pertaining thereto, and shall censure the officer to the degree which the court deems appropriate."

The Order of the Day for Adjournment was changed to 6:00 p.m.

A motion to waive Mr. McSwegin's requirement for Hebrew, having been made at the October 23, 1973 Meeting of Orange Presbytery, was adopted by the required three-fourths majority. This shall include such possibilities as developing new local congregations with Cape Fear Presbytery, developing and staffing a joint agency for regional mission work, developing and funding joint mission programs with the Catawba Administrative Unit and enabling Orange Presbytery to relate to the living situations of poor and minorities within its boundaries.

Recognizing the connectional integrity of the Presbyterian System of Church Government, Orange Presbytery requests that the co-ordinating Council of the Synod of North Carolina, exercising its leadership with its member presbyteries invite and join with the Synod of the Virginias and its member presbyteries to develop and to implement cooperative mission programs and strategies with the Synod of the Piedmont and its member judicatories of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

I. That Presbytery grant its advice and consent to the five proposed amendments to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

". . . subject to the provision of 16-2 and 18-6 (8)."
Vote 66 for, 0 against.

(2) Amend 16-1 by adding the following clause at the end of the end of the second sentence:
". . ; nor shall any Minister engage in work which is under the jurisdiction of a higher course, such as the work of missions outside the bounds of Presbyteries comprising the General Assembly, which is under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly, without commissioning by the proper agency of such higher court."

Vote 66 for, 0 against.

(3) Amend 18-6 (8) by adding the following clause at the end of the sentence: ". . ., which measures shall include the work of missions outside the bounds of Presbyteries comprising the General Assembly."
Vote 65 for, 0 against.

(4) Amend the Book of Church Order by changing the designation, "Commission on the Minister and His Work," wherever it appears to "Commission on the Minister." (See especially Chapters 21 and 22.—Stated Clerk)
Vote 70 for, 0 against.

(5) Amend the Book of Church Order by deleting Section 22-2. (The full Minutes state the constitutional change thus requested is for the purpose implementing the decision to restructure boards and agencies voted by the 112th General Assembly, which assigned the functions of the Assembly's Committee on the Minister and His work to the General Executive Board.—Stated Clerk)
Vote 71 for, 0 against.

II. That Presbytery adopt the following resolution:

WHEREAS the Synod of North Carolina in its one hundred sixtieth annual session, held at Richmond, Virginia, June 5-6, 1973, asked each of "its Presbyteries to consider the comment on the advisability of Synod becoming a delegated body;" and whereas under the present structure more people are involved in the process of decision making and in gaining information regarding the programs and directions of Synod and its agencies; and whereas any further erosion of the channels of communication or symbols of unity should be avoided, especially at the present time; and whereas the meetings of Synod provide, particularly for the minister members, considerable emotional support; and whereas

Orange Presbytery is experiencing difficulty in arranging a process of nominating Commissioners to the General Assembly, which process would be much more difficult if used to select several times as many commissioners; therefore be it resolved that

(1) Orange Presbytery does not consider a delegated Synod to be advisable at the present time, and that

(2) Orange Presbytery instruct its Stated Clerk to convey a copy of this resolution to the Stated Clerk of the Synod of North Carolina.

The Order of the Day for Adjournment was extended until 6:20 p.m.

   A. To discontinue the franchise on the present plan of disability insurance with Pilot Life Insurance Company and request a pro rata refund on all ministers whose salary and manse allowances do not reach $14,000.

   B. That an optional plan be adopted for those ministers whose salary and manse allowances combined exceed $14,000, that they might have additional disability benefits to cover 60% of their current salary.

   Ministers qualified under (B) were reminded to notify the office within 30 days of their salary and manse allowance in order to become eligible.

5. The stated clerk reminded Presbytery that the Northside and Fuller Memorial Churches were notified by registered mail of the action of the January 15 meeting of Presbytery, "That all property of the churches be delivered, conveyed and transferred to the authorized agents of Orange Presbytery in accord with the Book of Church Order, paragraph 6-3, on or before April 15, 1974", and as of April 20, 1974, no response has been received.

   "The Session of the Riverview Presbyterian Church requests that the deed to the manse now in the ownership of Orange Presbytery be transferred to the Trustees of the Riverview Presbyterian Church, Eden, North Carolina and that the Trustees of Orange Presbytery be authorized and directed to execute a deed to the parties (Trustees) indicated. 7. The stated clerk reported that the Administrative Commission on the White Oak Church has not met and will not report until the June meeting.

8. The following overture from the Glenwood Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, N. C. was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

"Camp New Hope has been very important to the life and program of Glenwood Presbyterian Church. We have held Family Retreats in the spring and fall of every year, and both our Junior High and Senior High groups have used the camp for retreats each year at least once. We have provided half the cost of all who have attended the summer camping program. However, Glenwood is a small church with limited resources, and we feel that the fee structure as announced by the office of Orange Presbytery will prevent our using the camp and cripple an important part of our fellowship. A weekend retreat for 70 would cost $246 plus the cost of meals. For 20 Senior Highs to attend a retreat and use the Retreat Center would cost $96 plus meals. The $45 cost for the regular summer camps will, we believe, prevent many children whose families are not willing to ask for financial assistance from attending.
The Session would call to your attention that, to our knowledge, no other educational work of Orange Presbytery is expected to be paid for entirely by those taking part, and that most churches, including Glenwood, are increasingly making their facilities available to community groups without requiring that a proportionate share of operating costs and debt retirement be made.

It is our belief that Camp New Hope can best serve all the churches of Orange Presbytery by continuing to be operated on a subsidized basis.

Therefore, the Session of Glenwood Presbyterian Church respectfully overtures the Presbytery of Orange, meeting at the New Hope Church, Willow Springs, N. C. on April 20, 1974 to take the following actions:

A. To review the fee schedule for use of Camp New Hope by Presbytery groups with the consideration of total or partial subsidization, and

B. To partially subsidize the cost of summer camps at Camp New Hope and Presbyterian Point."

9. The following Overture from the St. Paul Presbyterian Church, Greensboro, N. C. was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures: "The Session of St. Paul Presbyterian Church wishes to express its surprise and concern in regard to the new price structure for the use of Camp New Hope as it pertains to the grounds fee.

Our Church has used the many facilities of Camp New Hope for our Spring and Fall Family Retreats as well as for summer camp. These programs have meant a lot to the growth of our Church as witnessed by the attendance we have had at the camp.

We feel the new price structure will prohibit many of our families from participating. If we are going to have families who cannot attend because of cost we feel that promoting these programs would not blend with the theme of Christian fellowship we wish to express at St. Paul Church.

We wish to express to the Presbytery that its many resources have also meant a great deal to the growth of our Church, but to many of our families the most tangible and direct contribution the Presbytery offers is the facilities at Camp New Hope.

We, therefore, respectfully overture the Presbytery, at its next meeting to review the price structure considering a total or partially subsidized program when the camp is used by Presbyterian groups or the possibility for a flat fee for group use."

10. An Overture has been received from the Shiloh Presbyterian Church, Burlington, N. C. and was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

"Whereas, the term 'schismatic' as applied by a Court of PCUS to a member, a group of members, a congregation or a group of congregations within this denomination has the connotation of labeling those to whom the term is applied as being intentionally and rebelliously destructive to the body of the denomination, and

Whereas, the actions of the Northside Presbyterian Church have not appeared to be of the nature to warrant so strong a term to be applied to them, and

Whereas, we as Christians should act in such a manner so as to decrease, not increase, friction between the brethren in the interest of striving toward the peace and unity of the Body of Jesus Christ:

Therefore, despite our disagreement with the action of withdrawal of the Northside Presbyterian Church from the PCUS, we the Session of Shiloh Presbyterian Church respectfully request that the Presbytery of Orange reconsider the action taken at its January meeting in reference to the Northside Church with the possibility of removing the label 'schismatic' and retracting, therefore, the resultant status of its pastor, officers, and members.

We further request the Presbytery of Orange take all actions in its power to facilitate the smooth dismissal of the Northside Church from the denomination including the Presbytery's relinquishing all claims to the Northside Church Property."

11. An Overture has been received from the Westview Presbyterian Church, Burlington, N. C. and was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures:

"Whereas, the General Assembly of the PCUS has not determined what relationship the PCUS will have to the newly organized National Presbyterian Church; and

Whereas, the Presbytery of Orange has called the action of the Northside Presbyterian Church "schismatic", which seems questionable; and

Whereas, we feel that it would be in the best interest of Orange Presbytery and the Northside Presbyterian Church for this matter to be worked out in an orderly, Christian manner:

WE THEREFORE RECOMMEND THAT:

A. Orange Presbytery seek to clarify through the proper channels the relationship of the PCUS to the National Presbyterian Church;

B. Orange Presbytery take whatever action is necessary to withdraw the label "schismatic" from the action of the Northside Presbyterian Church;

C. Orange Presbytery do all within its power to make an orderly dismissal of the church, its property, and its members."

12. W. T. ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION ON GRUVER MEMORIAL CHURCH

The members of the Commission appointed by the moderator are as follows:

Ministers—John M. Walker, Jr., chairman, Robert Cochran, John R. McAlpine; Ruling Elders—R. G. Kittrell, Jr., Harold R. Skillman, R. D. Buchan.

John M. Walker, Jr., chairman, presented the report of the Commission which was adopted and admitted to record:

> "At the request of the Presbytery of Orange at its January 15, 1974 meeting, and in conformity with the desires of the Gruver Memorial Church congregation and by the appointment of Moderator Curtis Harper, the Administrative Commission for the Gruver Memorial Church, in response to a call by John M. Walker, chairman of the Commission, met on April 18, 1974 in the Littleton Presbyterian Church building.
> John M. Walker presided over the meeting of the Commission as chairman, and Robert G. Kittrell, Jr. was elected secretary. Present for the meeting were John M. Walker, J. R. McAlpine, Claude G. Pepper, and ruling elders R. D. Buchan, Harold R. Skillman and Robert G. Kittrell, Jr.
> The Commission reviewed the roll of active members of the Gruver Memorial Church, their requests for transfer, and the Church property.
> After consideration of the above matters, the Administrative Commission makes the following recommendations:
> 1. That Gruver Memorial Church be dissolved.
> 2. That Miss Verleen Vitula Pittard and Mrs. T. S. Walker be transferred to the Warrenton Presbyterian Church by a Certificate of Dismission from this Commission.
> 3. That Rodney P. Walker be transferred to the Macon Baptist Church by a Certificate of Dismission from this Commission.
> 4. That all remaining active and inactive members of Gruver Memorial Church be transferred to the Littleton Presbyterian Church by a Certificate of Dismission from this Commission.

5. That the Session Book be delivered to the Historical Foundation of Montreat, N. C.

6. That the Gruver Memorial Bible, Communion Service, hymnals, books, pews and all other personal property be transferred to the Littleton Presbyterian Church, with the request that any Bibles, hymnals, Church books and literature that are not needed by the Littleton Church be offered to the Presbytery of Orange for use in its program.

7. That the $342.32 in cash formerly belonging to Gruver Memorial Church be disbursed as follows:

$196.42 to Reverend Claude Pepper to be held by him in a special account, to be used for Memorial and Remembrances in accordance with the request of the Gruver Memorial Church congregation.

In addition to the above recommendation, the Commission found that the title to the one acre upon which it is situated, was originally held by the Trustees of Granville Presbytery, and appears to be now vested in the Trustees for the Presbytery of Orange. Attention is called to a stipulation in the deed which requires the payment of $40 plus interest at six (6%) percent from January 31, 1927 to the Pittard heirs, should the lot be sold or leased. The Commission recommends that if Presbytery does not have a Church related use for the land and buildings, the Trustees of Orange Presbytery be directed to convey the deed to the real property to the Pittard heirs or such individual heir as the family may designate.

The dissolution of the Gruver Memorial Church will make a change in the Reverend Claude G. Pepper's Call and a reduction in his salary. The Commission recommends that the Presbytery of Orange bring this matter to the immediate attention of the Warrenton Presbyterian Church and the Littleton Presbyterian Church.

The Commission requests that the recommendations contained in this Report be adopted, the Report be admitted to record, and the Administrative Commission be dissolved."

John M. Walker, Chairman

Following this report, the moderator led Presbytery in a prayer for the Gruver Memorial Church and its witness.

SERVICE OF WORSHIP

Presbytery was led in a service of worship by the moderator, Curtis P. Harper, Jr.; Lewis V. Boyle, the host pastor; Darrell Monroe, chairman of Committee on Worship; and Dr. J. Randolph Taylor, guest minister from Atlanta Presbytery. Music was provided by Marshel Dean, soloist.

4. A communication was read by the stated clerk from the session of the Warrenton Presbyterian Church, Warrenton, N. C. requesting that certain property in Norlina, North Carolina be sold and that the proceeds of the sale ($2,000) be given to the Warrenton Presbyterian Church as indicated below. A motion was adopted to grant this request.
   On March 18, 1974 the session of the Warrenton Presbyterian Church was notified that it had Presbytery's tentative approval to proceed with the sale of certain property owned by Presbytery and located in the town of Norlina, North Carolina. This was to be done with Presbytery assuming any expenses connected with the sale such as survey costs and other costs involved. Since then representatives of the Warrenton session have arranged for the sale of the property at a price of approximately $2,000 with no expense to Presbytery. After contact with the Office of Presbytery, the session of the Warrenton Church decided to petition Presbytery as follows: Since the property involved has been overseen and maintained by the Warrenton Presbyterian Church and no use was made of it by Albemarle, Granville or Orange Presbyteries, and since it was originally bequeathed to the Church and Albemarle Presbytery; and members of the Warrenton Presbyterian Church arranged the sale of the property at no cost to the Presbytery, therefore, we petition Orange Presbytery to grant to the Warrenton Presbyterian Church the proceeds from this sale to apply on the indebtedness of the manse of the Warrenton Presbyterian Church.

5. The following letter was received:
   "With regard to the previous action of Presbytery at its April 20, 1974 stated meeting, concerning the conveyance of the property of the Gruver Memorial Presbyterian Church, a motion was passed instructing the trustees of Orange Presbytery to execute a deed to the party indicated in the following request:

   On April 20, 1974, Orange Presbytery adopted the recommendation of its Commission to dissolve the Gruver Memorial Presbyterian Church, Route 1, Littleton, North Carolina, and to return the property, or to transfer the deed to the property, of the heirs of Mrs. Fannie Pittard who in 1927 gave to the Church one square acre of land.

   We whose signatures appear below are five sisters, heirs of Mrs. Fannie Pittard. It is our request that the one acre of land with the building on it be given to our sister, Miss Verleen Vitula Pittard of Warrenton, North Carolina. It is our request that the deed in your possession be transferred to this sister. We do this of our own free will being united in the request for transfer of Deed.

We thank you for your help in this matter.
We are attaching to this request our signatures."

Berlie P. Epps, Wilson, N. C.
Mamie P. Temple, Littleton, N. C.
Blanche P. Jenkins, Littleton, N. C.
Pearl Odom, Warrenton, N. C.

The request was granted and the Trustees were authorized to convey the property as requested.

6. Memorials to Samuel Eryle Howie and Henry Howard Thompson were read to the court and a motion to adopt them was passed with copies being sent to the families.

SAMUEL ERYLE HOWIE

Samuel Eryle Howie was born in Mecklenberg County, North Carolina, April 27, 1901. He died while still pursuing a major interest in his ministry, that of pastoral counselling, at the Menninger Psychiatric Center in Topeka, Kansas on April 10, 1974.

A graduate of William and Mary College and Union Theological Seminary in Virginia, with pastorates in Pontotoc and Tupelo, Mississippi, Memphis, Tennessee and Fayetteville, North Carolina, Sam Howie proved himself to be a man of unusual intellectual gifts and personal attractiveness. He was a nonconformist, impatient with much of the traditional stance of his church but a beloved pastor to many people to whom he ministered in an understanding person-to-person manner.

In August of 1928 he married Emma Lee Doerr of San Antonio, Texas who herself had trained as Director of Christian Education at PSCE (then the Assembly's Training School) at Richmond, Virginia. To their union were born three children, Samuel Eryle, Jr., Emily Ann (Mrs. Hoffman) and John Sandall (all of whom survive their father).

Since God in His wise Providence has seen fit to call His Servant Samuel Eryle Howie from this world to a higher and better one, be it hereby resolved:

That we who continue our pilgrimage in the Master's Service thank God for His servant's sojourn among us and in so far as he touched in faith "the hem of the Master's garment" may we follow in his footsteps.

Be it further resolved that we extend deepest sympathy to his children, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of Presbytery and copies be forwarded to members of the family.

HENRY HOWARD THOMPSON

Henry Howard Thompson, a Mississippian by birth, served his Lord and His Church well. He was ordained to the Gospel ministry in 1913 and initially was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Natchez in his native state. Other effective ministries followed in the First Churches of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, Bristol, Tennessee, and Ruston, Louisiana. For two years he was Associate Pastor in the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, North Carolina. For a decade Dr. Thompson served as Secretary of Evangelism both on General Assembly level and in the Synod of North Carolina.

As pastor, as well as in Secretarial positions, his prior emphasis was a deep concern for individuals to be confronted personally with the Call of Christ. He gave much of his time and attention, seeking to challenge and train the laity to share their Lord with others. For leadership in this area alone, our entire Church owed Howard Thompson a genuine debt of gratitude. Dr. Thompson was a graduate of Southwestern Presbyterian University. His Alma Mater conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity in 1922. His theological education was secured at the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in Louisville, Kentucky, with post graduate study at New College in Edinburgh, Scotland.

Howard Thompson was married to Frances Ellzey of Natchez, and to their union three children were born: Two sons, Howard Thompson, Jr. on the staff of the New York Times, New York City; Dr. William Y. Thompson, Chairman of the History Department of Louisiana Tech University in Ruston, Louisiana, and Mrs. Frederick C. Wightman, Jr., of Princeton, New Jersey. Mrs. Thompson and the three children survive him and have the satisfaction of having been loyal supporters and allies in his productive ministry.

Since God in His wise Providence has seen fit to promote Henry Howard Thompson in his 86th year, November 18, 1973 to his eternal reward, Be it hereby resolved:

> That the Presbytery of Orange give special thanks to Almighty God for the personal and unselfish service of this servant of the Master;
> That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the Minutes of Orange Presbytery and copies, with the deepest sympathy of the members of this body, be forwarded to the Thompson family.

A motion was adopted to amend the docket by delaying the Order of the Day by ten minutes.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

H. Edwin Pickard, chairman of the Council of Presbytery, presented the following recommendation which was adopted:

1. That the Presbytery hear the three Division Executives of Presbytery regarding the Challenge Budget of their respective divisions.
   In reference to the above recommendation, the three executives presented the budgets of their respective divisions. H. Edwin Pickard, chairman, presented the budget of the Council of Presbytery.

DOCKET

A motion was adopted to change the Order of the Day for the report of Presbyterys' Council from 11:30 a.m. to 11:40 a.m. and Presbytery was divided into small groups for the purposes of discussion and reaction to the Challenge Budget for 1975. Presbytery reassembled and the chairman continued with the report of Presbytery's Council.

H. Edwin Pickard presented recommendation number 2 which was adopted:

2. That the Challenge Budget in the amount of $1,183,807 be approved by Presbytery. Recommendation number three, as amended, was adopted:

3. That Presbytery adopt the recommendation of the Council regarding Glade Valley School:

   Even though we do not endorse the experiment in secondary education for a limited group which is being proposed by the Board of Trustees of Glade Valley School, the Council of Orange Presbytery believes that the Glade Valley facilities, properties, and personnel can probably perform a unique ministry in leadership development and vocational re-evaluation. Members of the Board of Trustees, of the Council of Orange Presbytery, and of the Council of Concord Presbytery are designing and developing this ministry. We, therefore, recommend to Orange Presbytery that a fund for the proposed development of resources for the Glade Valley School be included in the Proposed Budget of Orange Presbytery for 1975 in the amount up to $10,000 (this is understood as not adding to the budget already approved) and that this item be administered by the Division of Elders.

The report was adopted as a whole with its recommendations:

The Council of Orange Presbytery met on Thursday, May 23, at Presbytery's Office. Through the various Divisions of Presbytery, the Finance Committee has prepared a Challenge Budget for 1975 amounting to a total of $1,183,807. This, in turn, has been approved by the Council and is being recommended to Presbytery. It is not being suggested at this time that this be adopted as the Working Budget of Presbytery for 1975. This Challenge Budget, however, is being presented in response to Presbytery's desire that the basic needs for ministry by and through the Presbytery be presented, and askings be forwarded to churches early enough for thorough consideration by them as they draft their own 1975 Challenge Budgets.

Through the Finance Committee the Council is planning to forward specific challenge askings to each church prior to September 1, 1974. The generous response of each church will determine how much of this challenge we as a Presbytery shall be able to accept. A Working Budget for 1975 will be presented at the October 29th meeting of Presbytery.

The Council's Task Force on Strategy has continued to function. The strategy in preparation for 1975 is as indicated above. The first of the geographical Conventions of Elders mentioned by the Council in its last report will be held during the second week of November. These will actually begin the cycle of preparation for the 1976 budget. Every member of every Session will be given an opportunity in one of these geographical conventions to examine needs for ministry within and beyond Presbytery and to have a part in establishing priorities. The Council has continued to ask all committee chairpersons to curtail or restrict their expenditures for the current year in the light of existing financial circumstances. For the present year commitments do not equal the budget adopted by Presbytery. Based upon 1973 benevolence receipts and anticipated additional income, the Finance Committee foresees receipts of approximately $925,000 for 1974 on a $970,000 budget. Items have been deleted from the budget such as $14,000 for a Program Director at Camp New Hope for 1974, and other items have been reduced. With judicious expenditures our Executives and Council feel that the budget will be balanced for 1974. Generous responses by our churches in excess of commitments will make it possible for the full program for the year envisioned by Presbytery to be accomplished.

Pursuant to Presbytery's action at its Winter Meeting, the Task Force on Glade Valley School has met with a similar group from Concord Presbytery and the Executive Committee of the Board of Glade Valley a second time.

Recommendations have been listed previously in the report.

RECOMMENDATION:

That the pastoral relationship between Charles Norwood and the Mebane Memorial Church be dissolved effective July 1, 1974, the pulpit declared open and that Mr. Norwood continue to be a member and under the care of Orange Presbytery pending his accepting another call or other work.

IV. At a meeting of the congregation of the East Burlington Church, on June 5, 1974, the congregation voted to request Orange Presbytery to dissolve the pastoral relationship between itself and Frank Davison effective August 31, 1974. During the meeting the pastor indicated that he concurred in the request of the church.

In requesting the effective date of pastoral dissolution be August 31, 1974, the congregation expressed its concern to continue support to the pastor while he seeks a call to another work.

The Commission on the Minister and the Division of Education and Mission have visited and counseled with the church and the pastor preceding the action of the congregation on June 5, 1974.

The Commission on the Minister recommends that the pastoral relationship between Frank Davison and the East Burlington Church be dissolved effective August 31, 1974, the pulpit declared vacant and that Mr. Davison continue to be a member and under the care of Orange Presbytery pending his accepting another call or other work.

STEERING COMMITTEE-DIVISION OF ELDERS

Z. N. Holler, chairman, presented the report of the Steering Committee of the Division of Elders regarding Restructure of the Division. The report with its recommendations was adopted.

At the last meeting of Presbytery the Steering Committee of the Division of Elders pointed out that:

> When the present structure of the Division of Elders and the Commission on the Minister and His work was adopted in February of 1973, it was understood that this structure was experimental and somewhat open to question constitutionally. It was also understood that the structure would be tried for one year, then evaluated and, if it had proved sufficiently effective, clarified constitutionally.

In February of 1974 the Steering Committee, in keeping with this earlier action of Presbytery began to evaluate the past year's operation. During recent months this evaluation has been completed. Now, believing that it would serve to coordinate and strengthen the present work of the Division of Elders and the Commission on the Minister and His Work, as well as provide for greater flexibility in meeting further needs within the areas of concern assigned to these groups, the Steering Committee recommends: (1) that the following be substituted for those sections of Presbytery's manual entitled "The Division of Elders" and "Presbytery Commissions";

THE DIVISION OF ELDERS

The Division of Elders performs certain reviewing, training, and pastoral functions for the Presbytery, as well as certain Committee functions of the Commission on the Minister and His Work (BCO 21-2).

A designated number of the members of the Commission shall comprise the Steering Committee of the Division of Elders. The General Pastor, who serves as Chairman of this Steering Committee, shall provide leadership and initiative for its work. The Steering Committee itself shall be responsible for the policy decisions which determine its program and activities. Those of its functions which are properly functions of the Commission on the Minister & His Work (BCO 21-2) shall be approved by the Commission. Its other functions shall be coordinated with those of the other program divisions of Presbytery through the Council of Presbytery.

It shall be the responsibility of this Steering Committee to develop means for meeting the needs of Presbytery in these areas of concern: (1) the strengthening, support, and periodic review and evaluation of the work of the pastors and the sessions. (2) The preparation, continuing education, location, relocation, compensation and personal and professional support of teaching elders and other church professionals and (3) The initial training, continuing development and effective utilization of the lay leadership of the Presbytery. The concern for the work of pastors and sessions is expressed through a program of regular Presbytery visitation in the churches, through annual review of sessional records; and through assisting sessions in periodic review and evaluation of their ministries and their working relationships. The concern for teaching elders and other church professionals is expressed through recruiting and exercising care for candidates for the ministry; through overseeing and facilitating the calling of all pastors within the Presbytery; through facilitating needed pastoral changes; through reviewing ministers' salaries and recommending salary standards; through examining candidates and ministers who are seeking membership in Presbytery; through counseling and advising non-parish teaching elders concerning their work and utilizing their experience and gifts in the ministry of Presbytery; and through providing such professional services as will help all the church professionals in Presbytery to grow in their effectiveness and to derive increasing satisfaction in their ministries.

The concern for developing the lay leadership is expressed through establishing Presbytery programs and resources to assist in pre-ordination training of church officers; through providing educational opportunities for lay leaders designed to help them grow in knowledge of the church's message, mission and polity, as well as in spiritual discernment and practical effectiveness; and through providing lay leaders opportunities for reflection on their work, spiritual renewal, personal growth and mutual support.

The Division is invested by Presbytery with full authority to initiate programs and activities appropriate to these concerns.

THE COMMISSION ON THE MINISTER

The Commission on the Minister is responsible for the functions set forth in the Book of Church Order, chapter 21. Those of its members who, with the General Pastor, comprise the Steering Committee for the Division of Elders, have particular responsibility for the Committee functions described in BCO 21-2. The other members of the Commission, under the leadership of its Chairman, have particular responsibility for the Commission functions described in the Book of Church Order, including (1) visiting churches to inquire into and settle difficulties, especially those arising out of relationships between pastors and churches (BCO 21-3, 4) and (2) dissolving pastoral relationships when both pastor and church are in accord.

The General Pastor may, upon the request of the Commission on the Minister, serve in an advisory role as it deliberates and carries out its Commission duties (BCO 21-3, 4). But this is not mandatory, and it may sometimes be inadvisable because of the confidential nature of the General Pastor's contacts with the ministers and other officers of Presbytery.

(2) That the Presbytery hear a presentation of the reasons behind this proposal for organizational improvement by the members of the Steering Committee, all of whom endorse the proposal. (3) That in accord with the Presbytery's Manual, Section V ("Amendment") These changes go into effect at the close of the October meeting of Orange Presbytery.

COMMITTEE ON COMPENSATION

Dick Short, chairman, presented the report of the Committee on Compensation which was adopted:

1. The Committee recommends that the basic categories and rationale adopted in the "Revised Salary Standards of Orange Presbytery for 1974" be retained for 1975, along with the following specific changes:

   A. That for churches that provide a housing allowance the minimum figure for salary including housing be changed from $10,800 to $11,400 (Category I)

   B. That for churches that own and provide manses the minimum cash salary paid to minister (Category I) be set at $8,500. (Cost of utilities and upkeep are to be paid by the church and are not to be included in or deducted from this minimum cash salary).

   C. That major medical insurance be provided for the minister and his/her family (Category II).

   D. That in view of the spiraling costs of Social Security, churches determine these costs for their minister and take them into account in arriving at annual salary adjustments (Category IV).

   E. That the Presbytery encourage its constituent churches to include in all calls a provision for an annual cost of living adjustment—thereby doing away with the need for Presbytery to approve annual salary changes which are simply cost of living adjustments.

2. The Committee recommends that the salary changes printed on the sheet that was handed out to commissioners when they arrived at this meeting of Presbytery be approved.

MEMORIALS FOR DWIGHT MOODY CHALMERS AND FRANK SMITH JOHNSTON

The following memorials were admitted to record with a copy being sent to the family of each of our brethren. E. J. Agsten led Presbytery in prayer of thanksgiving for the devoted service of these brethren.

DWIGHT MOODY CHALMERS

Dr. Dwight Moody Chalmers, a faithful and devoted member of Orange Presbytery, died in a Richmond, Virginia hospital on June 17, 1974. Dr. Harmon B. Ramsey, Associate Pastor of the Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church conducted a memorial service for Dr. Chalmers in that church, assisted by the Reverend Joseph A. Talley, Pastor of the First Congregational Church in which church Dr. Chalmers had been honored by being named "Pastor Emeritus" in 1959. Burial followed in Elmwood Cemetery, Charlotte, North Carolina, where a private service was conducted by Dr. William B. Ward.

Dwight, as he was affectionately known by his fellow ministers and other friends throughout the Assembly, was a native of Charlotte, North Carolina, having been born there in 1899. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from Davidson College where he also served as Secretary of the Y.M.C.A. He then attended Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia from which institution he received his B.D., Th.M. and Th.D. degrees.

Dr. Chalmers served as pastor in the Church by the Side of the Road, Greensboro, North Carolina, the First Presbyterian Church, Charlottesville, Virginia, the Trinity Avenue Church in Durham, North Carolina and the Westminster Presbyterian Church, Greenville, South Carolina. In 1955 he was appointed the first book editor of the Board of Christian Education. During the twelve years he served in this capacity he guided this work to a full publishing house, having more than 354 titles. From this position he was honorably retired by Granville Presbytery in 1967.

Surviving Dr. Chalmers are his wife, Mrs. Helen Chandley Chalmers, two daughters, Mrs. Raymond M. Richeson and Mrs. Edward F. Jukes, a sister, Mrs. William Dickson and a brother, James C. Chalmers.

Dr. Chalmers will long be remembered as a writer, having been the author of a Bible study series, "Love in the New Testament," a member of the editorial board of the "Layman's' Bible Commentary" and other works. He will likewise go down as an outstanding teacher and preacher. He will be remembered as a pastor in the four churches where he served so well by a host of people. It will be recalled that he was in the forefront of the battle lines, speaking and fighting for our black brethren when they were seeking equal rights and privileges.

Above all else, we will remember Dwight Chalmers as a warm friend to all, a sympathetic brother in Christ and a true supporter of all the work of the church he loved, not only in Presbytery, Synod and General Assembly but in the great Church Universal.

Surely we can say in all truth, "Well done, good and faithful servant. Enter thou into the joy of our Lord."

FRANK SMITH JOHNSTON, SR.

The Reverend Frank Smith Johnston, Sr., died on the morning of March 6, 1974, at the New Hanover Memorial Hospital in Wilmington, North Carolina, following a brief illness. The Reverend David Reynolds conducted the funeral service at the Winter Park Presbyterian Church in Wilmington and Reverend Johnston was laid to rest in the Greenlawn Memorial Cemetery of the same city.

Reverend Johnston was married to the lovely Helen Thomas Watson of Wildwood, North Carolina. In September of 1972, she died suddenly leaving him the beautiful memory of a loving and supportive companionship spanning some 43 years as they both so faithfully and ably served their Lord.

Reverend Johnston was born in Reidsville, North Carolina, on May 3, 1895. He attended the Glade Valley High School and graduated with a B.A. degree from Davidson College. Before entering Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, Virginia, he served as principal of the Clarkton High School for several years. Following his ordination into the ministry, he filled the pastorates of various churches throughout the Synod of North Carolina over a period of 35 years. His last formal pastorate was in Orange Presbytery serving the Griers Presbyterian Church and the Pleasant Grove Presbyterian Church.

He is remembered as a very gracious gentleman, kind friend, and a very humble servant of the Lord. One close friend recently described him as one who always endeavored to live up to the rigid code for men set forth in Kipling's well known poem, "IF." He was a scholarly person and gave to so many an understanding of the Bible through scriptually based sermons, compassionate pastoral counseling, and Christian example in his daily life.

Reverend Johnston was an individual who guarded carefully his actions and words that at all times Christ would be Leader and that as a result of these actions men would be drawn to follow Christ the Lord. He sought for himself no personal glory.

Surviving the Reverend Johnston are: two daughters, Mrs. William Paul Martin, Jr., of Kaneohe, Hawaii, and Mrs. Richard D. Blocker, Jr., of Vienna, Virginia; one son Frank Johnston, Jr., of Raleigh, North Carolina; five grandchildren; and three sisters, Mrs. Frank L. Petree and Mrs. Carrie Hederick of Winston-Salem and Mrs. Julia Sumner of Panama City, Florida.

Death came suddenly for Reverend Johnston. But surely death for him was, as John Milton put it, "the golden key that opens the palace of eternity."

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF ORANGE PRESBYTERY

Robert Simpson, trustee, presented a report of the Trustees of Orange Presbytery. The following recommendations were adopted:

ITEM I.

WHEREAS, Orange Presbytery has been offered an option to purchase real estate in the city of Burlington, Edgewood Avenue, belonging to the Presbytery consisting of 5.16 acres of land and a small residential structure for the sum of $60,000 if the option is exercised and

WHEREAS, said William Bond, Inc. is offering as option money the amount of $100 per month until June 1, 1975 or until the option is exercised or withdrawn, providing that if exercised the money will apply to the purchase price and if not, so much of the option money has been paid at the time of the withdrawal or expiration of the option should be retained by Orange Presbytery, and

Adopted by Orange Presbytery, October 29, 1974:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Trustees of Orange Presbytery that we do hereby recommend that the Trustees be authorized and directed to enter into the option agreement as aforementioned with William Bond, Inc., the original of which is exhibited herewith, marked exhibit A and hereby made a party hereof as fully as if set out herein, and if the option is exercised said Trustees are hereby authorized to convey the property by good and fee simple deed upon receipt of the purchase price.

ITEM II.

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees of Orange Presbytery have investigated and carefully examined the devise of certain real property in Guilford County, near Greensboro, made to the Presbytery in the will of Frances Summers and while they deem the house and adjoining property referred to in the will to be very valuable property, after considering the language of the will and having legal advise as to the probability and uncertainty of the boundaries covered in the devise, and having received an offer of $7,500 and accrued rents from the heirs of Frances Summers for all of Orange Presbytery's right, title and interest in said property, the Trustees believe and therefore recommend to Presbytery this aforementioned settlement should be accepted.

Adopted by Orange Presbytery October 29, 1974:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Trustees of Orange Presbytery that we hereby recommend to Orange Presbytery that we be authorized and directed to make settlement with the heirs of Frances Summers by delivering to them a good and fee simple deed for Orange Presbytery's interest in said property in consideration of the receipt of them of $7,500 and rents to date of settlement.

REPORT OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMISSION OF THE WHITE OAK CHURCH

George Brinkley, chairman, presented the report of the Administrative Commission of the White Oak Church. Items number 1-4 were received as information and the request of item number 5 for the Administrative Commission to be dissolved was granted by Presbytery.

The Administrative Commission, erected by Orange Presbytery, to inquire into and settle the difficulties existing between the White Oak congregation and Orange Presbytery report the following actions:

1. The congregation of the White Oak Presbyterian Church was dissolved on January 10, 1974 and the Session was instructed to surrender all Sessional and Congregational Minutes to the Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery with the title for the church property to remain with Orange Presbytery.
2. Subsequent to this action attorney Thomas Strickland and officers of the White Oak Church approached the Commission with an offer to purchase the church property from Orange Presbytery. At this meeting a lease agreement was negotiated and approved as per the attached copy of lease agreement stipulating certain conditions to be observed for a period of five years after which the property may be transferred to the White Oak Church congregation at no cost.
3. This agreement was approved by the Administrative Commission on October 4, 1974 with the stipulation that the date of the document coincide with the receipt of the White Oak sessional and congregational minutes, or copies thereof.
4. That complete file of Commission Minutes and other pertinent information has been turned over to the Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery and the commission hereby directs the trustees of Orange Presbytery to execute the lease agreement upon receipt of sessional and congregational minutes.
5. The Commission, having completed the actions directed by Orange Presbytery, does hereby request that it be dissolved.

Minutes of White Oak Commission

April 15, 1973

The Administrative Commission met at the White Oak Presbyterian Church on April 15, 1973 at 3:05 P.M. The meeting was called to order by the Chairman and opened with prayer by The Reverend Steven Shoemaker. The following members of the Commission were present: Elder George Brinkley, Chairman, The Reverend John B. Boyd, Clerk, The Reverend James B. Bradley, Elder Mazelle Godwin, and The Reverend Steven R. Shoemaker. The following members of the Session of the White Oak Presbyterian Church were present: Elders Robert Lewis, Clerk, Bobby Barnes, Charlie Futrell, Whitfield Jordan, Luther Mayo, and Leamon Wells. This Session was commended for having all of its members present. Elder John D. McConnell, Jr., member of the Commission, was unable to attend.

The Chairman informed the Session of the fact that the Commission was composed of three Teaching Elders and three Ruling Elders and that we (the Commission) were there to discuss with them their problems and hope to answer some of their questions. Mr. Brinkley read aloud the Resolution of the White Oak Presbyterian Church, adopted January 3, 1973 with Mr. Leamon Wells, Elder and Trustee, serving as Moderator.

The following is a summary of the Discussion that followed:

I. THE SESSION

1. The Church has no pastor and no hope of getting one. According to one member of the Church the White Oak Congregation has had one pastor serving on the field in 13 years. Mr. Jordan stated that the Church was as strong today as fifty-five years ago. Mr. Futrell stated that when the Reverend DeWitt Helm left the "bottom dropped out" whereas they had been growing. Now, "up two steps and back four."

2. Educational standards too high in PCUS.
   "Man Called by God to preach should be able to read from Bible, shut it and preach God's message. Don't need notes. All preachers sent here read sermons." Mr. Holler did not understand people. They could not understand him.

3. Availability of Ministers.
   Presbytery cannot get us one. Mr. Jordan stated that he had heard of three preachers in the community looking for jobs. Not Presbyterians but "Men of God." We are a country church and country folk. Ministers not willing to come to rural field.

4. Minimum Salary too high for smaller churches.
   The Church is self supporting and could pay the minimum salary until Presbytery went up to $10,000 a year including extras.

5. The Church has not left the Presbytery but the Presbytery has left it. The Congregation wants out! "No need to hem and haw about this. The Congregation has gone so far that it cannot back up." Congregation meets informally with leaders of the church, monthly, for supper and it is there that trouble within the church is discussed. The vote of the congregation which adopted the Resolution was by show of hands with almost all of the 60 members being present.

II. THE COMMISSION

1. Commission is here to listen and to assist with problems between the local church and Presbytery. Commission also has power to act.

2. Explained need for educated ministers in PCUS.

3. Sought to explain that Presbytery is willing and able to assist churches that are not able to pay minimum salary of churches. Also with the plans to assist that particular area and its churches in a "team ministry approach."

4. Inquired as to why so many times in the conversation the Congregation was mentioned instead of the Session. (See 5 above)

5. Asked about the other statements made in the Resolution and not included in discussion and no reply was made.

6. Inquired as to how one of three ministers in the community (non-Presbyterian) could be able to assist the "congregation, as a continuing independent Presbyterian Church, will base their faith and belief in Jesus Christ as Head of the Church, and in the Bible as the Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and practice and the Westminister Confession of Faith with its Larger and Shorter Catechisms."

Minutes of White Oak Administrative Commission

September 16, 1973

The meeting of the White Oak Administrative Commission took place on September 16, 1973 at Hudson Memorial Presbyterian Church. The meeting was called to order and opened with prayer at 3:15 P.M. Present were: John B. Boyd, Clerk; James B. Bradley; George Brinkley; Miss Mazelle Godwin; Steven B. Shoemaker. Visitors, upon the invitation by the Chairman of the Commission, were: Mrs. Joyce Bauer, Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery, and its Moderator, Mr. Malcolm L. Williams. In order to bring the visitors up to date, the Clerk read the minutes of March 14 and April 15, 1973. The minutes of April 15 were approved as read. The Chairman reported on the meeting at the White Oak Church of June 3, 1973. A quorum of the Commission was not present. The Chairman spoke of this informal meeting at which time an effort was made to explore events and ideas which were discussed at the previous meeting, April 15, 1973. Special emphasis was laid upon the "Southeast Orange Area Ministry." Session members present rejected the SOAM and the suggestion that a proposal for withdrawal in accordance with the Book of Church Order be submitted since the first proposal was not in proper order. Mr. Brinkley an dmembers of the Commission also reported that the Session stated that they would not meet with the Commission again. Members of the Commission present were: George Brinkley; James B. Bradley; John D. McConnell, Jr.; and Malcolm L. Williams, Moderator of Orange Presbytery. The entire Session of the White Oak Church was present.

Mr. Brinkley read a letter from the Moderator addressed to the Chairman, dated June 23, 1973.

The Chairman of the Commission discussed with the Stated Clerk the need for copies of "Policies and Procedures Of Orange Presbytery For Dealing With Churches Contemplating Withdrawal From The Presbyterian Church, U. S.," adopted at the June 19, 1973 meeting of Orange Presbytery and also copies of the "Southeast Orange Area Ministry" adopted by the Division of Education and Mission and the Council of Presbytery.

In light of the statement of Session members made at April 15, 1973 meeting "that Presbytery had left them" this matter was discussed with Mrs. Bauer. The Stated Clerk reported that during the dates of Mr. Helm's ministry (July 1963-December 1968) the Presbytery contributed finances on a monthly basis to the salary of Mr. Helm for about two years. Presbytery also assisted in the securing of supply ministers. No Statistical Reports were submitted by the White Oak congregation or Session for several years. In accordance with directions of the General Assembly, Presbytery's office completed the reports taking into account the finances forwarded to Presbytery's office by the White Oak congregation.

"The Policies and Procedures Of Orange Presbytery For Dealing With Churches Contemplating Withdrawal From The Presbyterian Church, U. S." was adopted by Presbytery on June 19, 1973. It was noted that at this meeting of Presbytery, it was stated that these Policies and Procedures would not be applicable in the White Oak situation unless desired by this Commission.

The Commission voted that the Policies and Procedures as suggested by Presbytery not be formally adhered to although certain of its suggestions may be followed.

Mr. Bradley made the motion, which was seconded by Mr. Boyd and subsequently passed, that the Clerk of the Commission write to the White Oak Church stating the Commission's position and requesting certain action. The Clerk was instructed to send the letter to Mr. Robert C. Lewis, Clerk of the Session, P. O. Box 186, Lucama, North Carolina, by registered mail with a return receipt requested. A reply was requested within thirty (30) days.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:40 P.M.

John B. Boyd, Clerk

Minutes of the White Oak Administrative Commission
December 17, 1973

The meeting of the White Oak Administrative Commission was called to order by its Chairman, Mr. George Brinkley and was opened with prayer by Mr. John McConnell, Jr. at 3:05 P.M. at the Hudson Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, North Carolina.

The following members in addition to Mr. Brinkley and Mr. McConnell were present: John B. Boyd, Clerk; James B. Bradley; Mazelle Godwin and Steven Shoemaker. Mr. William Stewart, General Presbyter of Orange Presbytery was present for a portion of the time upon invitation of the Chairman.

The Minutes of the September 16th meeting were read and approved. Mr. Boyd reported that the letter he had been requested to write, on behalf of the Commission, to Mr. Robert C. Lewis, Clerk of the Session of the White Oak Presbyterian Church, P. O. Box 186, Lucama, North Carolina, was written and mailed to Mr. Lewis by registered mail, return receipt requested. The letter was dated September 17, and was mailed on September 19, 1973. Affidavits to the minutes show that the letter was received by Mr. Lewis and no response directly or indirectly has been received by Mr. Boyd, no official of Presbytery, nor any member of the Commission.

The Chairman summarized the situation as it now exists outlining various options as he could see them. Members were asked if other options could be furnished.

The following motion was made:

1. That we (The Administrative Commission erected by Orange Presbytery at its meeting on February 3, 1973) inform the Session of the White Oak Presbyterian Church that said church is dissolved effective January 10, 1974 and that Orange Presbytery stands ready to dismiss the members of the White Oak Presbyterian Church, who so desire, to any other Presbyterian Church, U. S. within the bounds of Orange Presbytery as provided by the Book of Church Order, Chapter 8, Paragraph 18.
2. In accordance with the above the Clerk of the Session is hereby instructed to surrender all Sessional and Congregational minutes to the Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery at its office, 511 Alexander Avenue, Durham, North Carolina.
3. With respect to the request for transfer of the title of the White Oak Presbyterian Church property the Administrative Commission hereby retains title in the name of Orange Presbytery.

A substitute motion that the above be recommended to Orange Presbytery at its next meeting for action said Presbytery was defeated.

The original motion was adopted and the Clerk was instructed to communicate the above action taken to the Session of the White Oak Presbyterian Church and through it to the members of said congregation.

A motion was passed requesting Orange Presbytery to dissolve this Administrative Commission at its meeting January 15th.

In case of the absence of the Chairman at the January meeting of Presbytery, the Clerk was asked to report to Presbytery.

The meeting was adjourned with prayer by Mr. Shoemaker at 5:15 P.M.

John B. Boyd, Clerk

Minutes of the White Oak Administrative Commission

January 12, 1974

The meeting of the White Oak Administrative Commission met at the First Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, January 12, 1974 and was called to order by the Clerk, in the absence of its Chairman and was opened with prayer by John B. Boyd at 10:03 A.M.

The following members of the Commission were present: Mazelle Godwin, Steven Shoemaker, James B. Bradley, John B. Boyd and Mr. John McConnell. Also present was the Honorable Thomas E. Strickland, P. O. Box 2002, Goldsboro, retained by The White Oak Session to represent them.

John B. Boyd was elected Acting Chairman and Mazelle Godwin was elected Clerk for this meeting.

Mr. Strickland was given the floor. He admitted White Oak's legal position was not strong and that he only came to communicate an offer of $2,500.00 to purchase the property. An informal discussion was then had with him and the Commission members about the entire matter. Indications were made to him that the Commission was inclined to lease the property to the White Oak Group for a five year period, at no cost and upon certain basic conditions regarding non-interference by the White Oak Group with the work of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, that final disposition of the property would be made at that time. He indicated he could easily recommend this arrangement to his clients.

Mr. Strickland then retired and a full discussion, including the restrictions during the five years was had. It was agreed that we would file a progress report with Presbytery and that John McConnell would prepare appropriate documents in accordance with the group's wishes to be circulated and then one more meeting could be called to take final action to conclude the matter. It was agreed that we would not ask for any money for the property.

John Boyd's progress report to Presbytery with John McConnell's addition was approved as were the minutes of the December 17th meeting and the minutes of this date.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:35 A.M.

Report of the White Oak Administrative Commission to Orange Presbytery Meeting at the White Memorial Presbyterian Church on January 15, 1974

The White Oak Administrative Commission erected by the Presbytery of Orange at its meeting on February 3, 1973 reports that it has met on Wednesday, March 14, 1973, April 15, 1973 at the White Oak Church September 16, 1973, December 17, 1973 and on January 12, 1974. In addition to these meetings an informal meeting was held with the Session of the White Oak Presbyterian Session on June 3, 1973.

It was at the meeting on June 3, 1973 that the "Session members present rejected the SOAM and the suggestion that a proposal for withdrawal in accordance with the Book of Church Order be submitted since the first proposal was not in proper order. Mr. Brinkley and members of the Commission also reported that the Session stated that they would not meet with the Commission again." (From minutes of September 16th meeting of the Commission.)

A quotation from the minutes of the meeting of the Administrative commission of December 17, 1973 points up the refusal of the Session of the White Oak congregation to cooperate with the Commission: "Mr. Boyd reported that the letter he had been requested to write, on behalf of the Commission, to Mr. Robert C. Lewis, Clerk of the Session of the White Oak Presbyterian Church, P. O. Box 186, Lucama, North Carolina 27851 was written and mailed to Mr. Lewis by registered mail, return receipt requested. The letter was dated September 17, and was mailed on September 19, 1973." The minutes further show that the letter was received by Mr. Lewis and no response directly or indirectly has been received by Mr. Boyd, no official of Presbytery, nor any member of the Commission.

On December 19th the Clerk of the Commission upon instruction of the Commission wrote the following letter to the Clerk of the Session:

> "At its meeting of December 17th, the Administrative Commission erected by Orange Presbytery to inquire into and settle the difficulties existing between the White Oak congregation and Orange Presbytery, met, and I, as Clerk, have been asked to transmit the following actions which were taken: (1) The Session of the White Oak Church is advised that said church is dissolved effective January 10, 1974 and that Orange Presbytery stands ready to dismiss the members of the White Oak Presbyterian Church, who so desire, to any other Presbyterian Church, U. S. within the bounds of Orange Presbytery as provided by the Book of Church Order, Chapter 8, paragraph 18. (2) In accordance with the above, the Clerk of the Session is hereby instructed to surrender all Sessional and Congregational minutes to the Stated Clerk of Orange Presbytery at its office, 511 Alexander Avenue, Durham, North Carolina. (3) With respect to the request for transfer of the title of the White Oak Presbyterian Church property, Orange Presbytery will retain title.
> It is requested that the Session so advise the Congregation.
> Among other reasons for the above action having been taken is the fact that no response was made to our letter (sent by registered mail-return receipt requested addressed to you as Clerk of the Session) dated September 17, 1973.
> The Administrative Commission will report its action at the Stated Meeting of Orange Presbytery to be held on January 15, 1974 at the White Memorial Presbyterian Church, Raleigh, North Carolina."

The minutes indicated that the above letter was received on December 22nd by Mr. Lewis. Following receipt of this letter by Mr. Lewis, the Clerk received a telephone call from The Honorable Thomas E. Strickland, P. O. Box 2002 of Goldsboro, N. C. informing the Clerk that he had been retained to represent the White Oak Congregation. The Clerk gave Mr. Strickland the name of the Chairman and the Executives of Orange Presbytery. As a result of a conversation with the Chairman, the Clerk was notified that the White Oak Congregation wanted an opportunity to discuss, through their attorney, the possibility of the purchase of the property from Orange Presbytery. A meeting of the Commission was called to meet at the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh, N. C. on January 12, 1974.

The Commission met and entered into conversation with the White Oak Church's attorney, Mr. Thomas E. Strickland, regarding a settlement of the property transfer matter. Since the Commission had already dissolved White Oak Presbyterian Church at its December meeting, this was the only matter left open at the present. Rewarding discussions toward a final resolution of the entire matter were held by the Commission after Mr. Strickland retired and it is the belief of the Commission that it will shortly have a document prepared to be entered by the Trustees of Orange Presbytery and representatives of the White Oak group to effect a satisfactory and amiable resolution.

PROPERTY RESOLUTION DOCKETED FOR NEW BUSINESS

GOLDSTON CHURCH

H. Middleton Raynal presented a Resolution regarding the property of the former Goldston Presbyterian Church of Orange Presbytery which was docketed for the afternoon session under New Business:

WHEREAS the Goldston Presbyterian Church was organized in 1923 by Fayetteville Presbytery in the village of Goldston, Chatham County, N. C. and property for the erection of a place of Worship was given by two members of the new congregation and was deeded to the Trustees of Fayetteville Presbytery for the benefit of the Goldston Presbyterian Church; and

WHEREAS the Synod of North Carolina in October 1923 adopted a report of its Ad Interim Committee on Presbytery Boundaries which transferred the churches in Chatham and Lee Counties from Fayetteville Presbytery to Orange Presbytery, including the Goldston Presbyterian Church and fifteen other congregations; and

WHEREAS after forty-nine years of existence as an organized congregation, all but the year 1923 as a member of Orange Presbytery, the Goldston Presbyterian Church was dissolved on November 15, 1972 by an Administrative Commission of Orange Presbytery while Chatham continues to be a part of Orange Presbytery; and

WHEREAS before the church was dissolved a regularly called congregational meeting was held with all living members of the church present on September 29, 1972 and unanimously elected Mr. E. Clegg Lambe as Trustee with instructions to sell the church property and send the proceeds, after expenses, to Barium Springs Home for Children; and

WHEREAS acting under these instructions and with the approval of the Administrative Commission of Orange Presbytery, E. Clegg Lambe, Trustee, did proceed to sell the former Goldston Presbyterian Church to Harvey Billy Fields and his wife Janice Seagroves Fields and execute a deed of sale on November 13, 1972; and

WHEREAS after paying the costs of closing Mr. Clegg did remit the balance of the sale price in the amount of $1,736.20 to Barium Springs Home for Children, receipt of which has been acknowledged by Mr. Nat K. Reiney, Executive Director; and

WHEREAS Orange Presbytery meeting February 3, 1973 did direct its Trustees to "convey and quitclaim any property of or relating to each of the foregoing dissolved church (Farmville, Goldston, Gulf and Haywood) to such religious or charitable organization as a representative of the congregation shall designate; and

WHEREAS it now appears that Fayetteville Presbytery may not have transferred title to the Goldston Presbyterian Church property to the Trustees of the Church or the Trustees of Orange Presbytery at the time the Church was transferred out of Fayetteville Presbytery by action of the Synod of North Carolina in 1923; and

WHEREAS it appears that Fayetteville Presbytery is now delaying in giving a free title to the property of the former Goldston Presbyterian Church and thereby causing inconvenience to the Trustee who sold this property and disturbing the plans of the ones who paid for it in all good faith;

THEREFORE be it resolved that Orange Presbytery urges Fayetteville Presbytery to instruct its Trustees to convey and quitclaim the property of the former Goldston Presbyterian Church to Harvey Billy Fields and Janice Seagroves Fields as soon as possible that the intention of the congregation expressed at its last meeting before the Church was dissolved may be completed.

SERMON BY CANDIDATE

After the singing of a hymn, Candidate Elbert Garrett Martin preached a sermon as part of his examination by Presbytery. Mr. Martin used as scripture, Hosea 8:2-3 and Luke 18:10-14 and the topic, "Infinite Gifts and Stone Idols." Prayer was voiced following the sermon.

REPORT OF THE COUNCIL OF PRESBYTERY

H. Edwin Pickard, chairman, presented the report of the Council of Presbytery. The report was adopted as a whole as amended in the fifth paragraph. A motion passed that we bring this section (paragraph five) of the Council's report back to the January meeting of Orange Presbytery for their consideration.

REPORT OF PRESBYTERY'S COUNCIL

The Council of Orange Presbytery has met three times since the last meeting of Presbytery: July 29, September 3, and October 1. In these meetings the Council has tried to fulfill faithfully its responsibilities for coordinating, supervising and evaluating the programs by which Presbytery's mission is accomplished.

As a part of this report, the Council is submitting a statement of "Operational Policies for Presbytery's Council." This has matured out of several years of operations in the new Orange Presbytery and from the Council retreat several months ago. This statement of operational policies reflects the way the Council understands its functions under the Manual of Presbytery. Adoption of this by Presbytery should help all of the divisions of Presbytery, the Council, and the Presbytery itself to understand the functions of the Council.

After much study, the Council is not recommending to Presbytery at this time a working budget for 1975. The Challenge Budget for 1975 was approved at the June meeting. The Council is recommending that we operate from January 1-25, 1975, or until the final adoption by Presbytery of a new working budget for 1975, on the same budget base as in 1974. This will give us an opportunity to receive acceptance from all of our churches. On the basis of these acceptances and of anticipated additional income, a realistic budget is to be drawn for 1975 and will be recommended to Presbytery at the stated meeting on January 25, 1975.

Plans for the first of the proposed Elder Conventions as the first stage of preparation for the 1976 budget have been completed. Please plan to attend and bring entire Session.

A special committee of the Council consisting of five persons (one to be the member of Council representing the Finance Committee) has been named to approve use of any reserve funds of Presbytery that are non-budgeted. Charles Carter has been named chairman of this group, which is composed also of Angus McGregor, Katherine Savage, Allen Mebane, and Herb Reese.

The Council has recommended to the Nominating Committee that at least two of the five persons elected by Orange Presbytery as members of Synod's Coordinating Council be members-at-large of Presbytery's Council. The Council sees this as imperative in order to have a more positive linkage with Synod's Coordinating Council.

Other recommendations will be made through the various Divisions of Presbytery.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That the statement on "Operational Policies for Presbytery's Council" be adopted.
2. That from January 1, 1975 until the final adoption of the working budget, appropriations be made for the necessary expenses of the operation of Presbytery's offices and staff and of its Divisions for salaries and all other expenses at the same level as was appropriated in the 1974 budget.
3. That the report of the Council together with its recommendations be adopted.

OPERATIONAL POLICIES FOR PRESBYTERY'S COUNCIL

Orange Presbytery has as its primary task to reflect the redemptive mission of Jesus Christ in all its functions as an Agency of Review, Sharing, Guidance, Training, Innovation, Linking and Pastoral oversight.

Because mission must determine form, Presbytery must remain flexible in its attitude toward structure, responding to current opportunities for fulfilling its mission. While maintaining the integrity of the interconnected body, the Church does not exist for selfish reasons but for the service of God and to make visible the love of God at work in the world. Therefore, it must be capable of acting quickly and decisively in the Name of Christ. It must be ready to follow its Lord into the uncertain future, willing to risk all, even its organizational life, in obedience to Him.

The Council of Presbytery exists in order to facilitate and coordinate Presbytery's mission. It fulfills this responsibility in three fundamental ways:

1. by initiating processes by which Presbytery may define, plan, budget its resources and evaluate its programs for the accomplishment of its mission
2. by coordinating, supervising and evaluating the programs by which Presbytery's mission is accomplished
3. by coordinating, supervising and evaluating the executive staff.

Council's Initiating Function

The Council will propose to Presbytery procedures that will enable its constituency to participate in choosing goals and setting priorities that will be the basis for controlling its operations and evaluating its ministries. (#14, Revised Objectives For Renewal Within the Corporate Body of Presbytery, Page #32, October, 1973 Minutes)

Council's Coordinating Functions

The council reviews and considers matters of concern to the Presbytery which come to its attention from other structures of Presbytery, from Presbytery itself, from the other Courts of the Church, or from other sources within and outside our church structures. It sorts these into three categories:

1. Matters to be handled by Council and reported to Presbytery for confirmation or further consideration, as Presbytery sees fit.
2. Matters for referral to the Divisions or other structures of Presbytery for handling by them.
3. Matters that must be studied and prepared for discussion and decision on the floor of Presbytery.

After this sorting, it is Council's responsibility to prepare issues in category #3 above for presentation to Presbytery, defining the Court's options, and offering supporting data to enable Presbytery to make responsible decisions.

When a division wishes to have Presbytery act on a matter, that matter must first be submitted to Council in order that Council may consider and make appropriate recommendations to Presbytery.

As a crucial part of its coordinating function, Council will develop for recommendation to Presbytery a final budget which shall embody Presbytery's priorities as determined by its Budgeting, Prioritizing, and Evaluating process and reflected in allocation of dollars and man hours.

Council's Supervising Functions

Presbytery's Council, serving as Presbytery's agent, will supervise and coordinate the work of its three executives and will provide for periodic evaluation of their work in accordance with the terms of their contracts. The Council will oversee the allocation of staff, money and other resources of Presbytery to ensure that these are expanded in accord with the goals, priorities and mission defined by Presbytery.

RESERVE FUNDS OF PRESBYTERY

A motion passed that the Reserve Funds of Orange Presbytery be held until January 1975, used only for deficit financing for the 1974 budget, and then all monies be replaced in the reserve funds.

PAPER ON ORDINATION — ORDER OF THE DAY

Milton Carothers presented the Position Paper on Ordination as distributed and the report of the Committee on Non-Parish Teaching Elders. The recommendations of the committee were adopted as follows:

1. The committee recommends that our paper entitled 'Ordination' be adopted as stating the Presbytery's current understanding of our denomination's position on ordination and that it be commended to the reorganized Commission on the Minister/Division of Elders for its use in developing policies relating to the care and deployment of ordained ministers.

ORDINATION

Following the restructure of Orange Presbytery, the Committee on the Non-Parish Teaching Elder of the Division of Elders was given various responsibilities formerly met by the Commission on the Minister and His Work. Among these were: to receive reports from non-parish teaching elders and give reports to Presbytery on the kind of work these ministers are engaged in, to receive requests from ministers "to perform work not of a pastoral nature," and to recommend non-parish teaching elders to Presbytery for membership. The supposition of these responsibilities is that the CNPTE is able to determine what constitutes, in the words of the Book of Church order, "work proper to the Ministry of the Gospel."[1]

It is clear, however, that the problem of making judgements on "work proper to the Ministry of the Gospel" raises for scrutiny the fundamental nature of ordination itself. Orange Presbytery is required not only to make certain judgements on the work of non-parish teaching elders, but also to review the work of every minister of Presbytery, in order to insure that all ministers of Presbytery "devote themselves dilligently to their sacred calling . . ."[2] This is to say that non-parish teaching elders are neither more nor less accountable to Presbytery for the proper conduct of their ministry than parish teaching elders. Even though in practice Presbytery fails to report on and to supervise adequately the practice of the ministry, the BCO is quite clear that such discipline is desirable. It is no doubt true that if Presbytery could devise an effective way to carry out this form of its disciplinary responsibilities, the morale of persons serious about the conduct of the ministry of the World would be greatly enhanced.

If our consideration raises the basic nature of ordination, it also raises the question of discipline in the life of the Church. In the Church of Scotland in the time of John Knox, discipline, along with the right preaching of the Word and the celebration of the sacraments, was a mark of the true Church of Jesus Christ. The concept of discipline as used in our polity, as James S. McEwen has noted, has "nothing to do with legalism, or with any idea that God would be pleased with strict adherence to rules and regulations."[3] It was rather the way the Church of Scotland recognized, by the ordering of its life, the holy quality of the Lord's supper, and the importance of the preaching of the Word.

Discipline in our policy is not a mark of the Church in the same sense as are the proper preaching of the Word and the correct administration of the sacraments. Our Book of Church Order says discipline is

> "the Church's exercise of authority given by Christ, both in the direction of guidance, control and nurture of its members, and in the direction of constructive criticism of its offenses."[4]

Discipline is therefore a technical term, and in our BCO has been extended to refer to the jurisdiction Presbytery has in regard to its members. It is unfortunate that the term has negative connotations. If Presbytery could restore appropriate means of discipline for its members, ministers would be sure they had an advocate and a help in Presbytery. Broadly conceived, this paper is an attempt to state guidelines for restoring discipline to an area fraught with ambiguities.

It must be recognized that this paper must have a provisional status. Two major considerations of ordination and the discipline of the ministry are under consideration in our General Assembly. The Ad Interim Committee on the Church's Use of Her Ordained Ministry has submitted a report to the denomination for study. The Sub-committee on Ordination of the Permanent Theological Committee will make a report to the 114th General Assembly on the nature of ordination. It is incumbent on Orange Presbytery, however, to seek clarity for itself on these matters of pressing concern for its corporate life.

I. VOCATION AND ORDINATION

John H. Leith has recently pointed out, in a consideration of call and ordination, that several important truths follow from the New Testament understanding of calling.[1] First, all Christian people are equally called. Second, all Christians are called to be ministers. Third, the term refers to "calling to office in the Church" and especially to Ministers of the Word. These three truths can be elaborated by reference to the Bible and the Reformed tradition.

The church was established as Jesus Christ called sinners to repentance and summoned his disciples from ordinary work to the special vocation of following him. The Pauline writings are filled with the notion that the church is made up of those called to be the people of God. This call to repentance and renewal of life is, as Professor Leith points out, the fundamental sense in which all are called by God.

The concept of the priesthood of all believers is especially dear to Protestants. The Second Helvetic Confession, perhaps the most universal of all the Reformed confessions, contains a unique chapter on the ministry, and illustrates well that the second thesis (all Christians are called to be ministers) is at the heart of Reformed tradition.

In seeking to repudiate the Roman Catholic conception of the priesthood in its days, the Confession affirmed,

> The apostles of Christ do term all those who believe in Christ 'priests'; not in regard to their ministry, but because that all the faithful, being made kings and priests may, through Christ offer up spiritual sacrifices unto God.[2]

The Reformed teaching of the priesthood of all believers involved two convictions. The first was that every Christian has direct access to God in Jesus Christ. Therefore, attributing to any mediator, such as a priest, the power to re-enact the sacrifice of Jesus Christ was at best unnecessary, and at worst a perversion of the unique sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Second, every Christian by virtue of participating in the church of Jesus Christ shares in the mission of that church. The mission of the church is not relegated to some particular part of the body of Christ, mistakenly called the priesthood, but is undertaken by all the members of the Church.

In the third place, calling refers to the office of the minister of the Word. Leith points out that it is "critically important that the priesthood of all believers and ministry of every Christian on the one hand be clearly distinguished from the responsibility of the minister of the Word on the other."[3] The Second Helvetic Confession affirms that God provides for the Church by setting aside ministers to preach, administer the sacraments, teach, and engage in pastoral care.

The Confession affirms that although God could use other means to establish the church among his children, he has nonetheless chosen ministers:

> True it is that God can, by His power, without any means, take unto Himself a Church from among men; but He had rather deal with men by the ministry of men. Therefore ministers are to be considered not as ministers by themselves alone, but as the ministers of God by whose means God does work the salvation of mankind.[1]

It is important to notice that although the basic characteristic of the Christian person is a calling by Christ to repentance and to participate in the ministry of the Church, the Church itself has found it necessary for ordering its life to distinguish the call of ministers of the Word from the call of all Christians. Ordination is the act by which persons are set aside for the ministry of the Word. Calvin spoke of ministers as those whom God uses "to declare openly His will to us by mouth, as a sort of delegated work, not by transferring to them His right and honor, but only that through their mouths He may do his own work—just as a workman uses a tool to do his work." The ministry of the Word is for Calvin a provision for the Church by the Grace of God to declare God's will in this time when God Himself is not visibly present.

Calvin, in speaking of the call to the ministry of the Word, distinguished between an inward or secret call and an outward call. The inner call is a matter of the conscience of an individual before God. For purposes of ordering the life of the Church, Calvin was more concerned with the outward call of ministers by the Church. He was convinced that the Church was able to judge whether those whom the Lord called to the office of the ministry had "the arms required to fulfill it . . ."[3] The colleagues of the minister and the particular congregation electing the minister could assess the competence of a person to undertake the ministry, including his piety, his gifts of theological knowledge, and whether or not his life was lived in accord with the Gospel he would preach.

Because it is possible and necessary for the church to judge ministerial competence, Calvin considers it necessary to examine the candidate for the ministry. This judgement of the church is the first aspect of a person's outward call to the ministry.[4]

The second aspect of the call, according to Calvin, is the election of the minister by a vote of the people. Calvin notes that the election of the apostles in the New Testament was an "extraordinary" ministry, and is therefore not a reliable guide for the election of the ordinary ministry of the Church. He finds the precedent for the ordering of the Church in his day from the election of presbyters by the New Testament churches. Calvin thought that other pastors ought to preside over the deliberations of a local congregation for the sake of order.

Calvin gives the rite of ordination the last place in the call. As such it is the admission to the ministry by the laying on of hands, an act useful in commending the dignity of the ministry to the people and signifying to the one ordained that "he is not longer a law unto himself, but bound in servitude to God and the Church."[5]

Calvin's insights into the nature of the calling of ministers remain valid today. H. Richard Niebuhr, the contemporary theologian, has noticed that a minister's call includes the call to be a Christian, an inner call in which a person is summoned to be a minister, a providential call which is indicated by the talents necessary for the conduct of the ministry and by the divine guidance of his life, and lastly, an ecclesiastical call in which the church invites a person to be a minister.[1] Our own Book of Church Order in Chapter 23, "The Doctrine of Calling to Office in the Church," and in Chapter 26, "The Calling of Ministers to a Definite Work," and in Chapter 27, "The Ordination and Installation of Ministers," seeks to order its life in ways that are fundamentally in accord with the principles Calvin laid down for the Church in the time of the Reformation.

II. ORDINATION OF MINISTERS IN THE BOOK OF CHURCH ORDER

In addition to ministers, ruling elders and deacons are also ordained for service in the church. Our immediate concern is with the significance of ordination for ministers. According to The Book of Church Order,

> Ordination is the authoritative admission of one duly called to an office in the Church of God, accompanied with prayer and the laying on of hands, to which it is proper to add the giving of the right hand of Christian fellowship.[2]

In order to understand the place of the ordination of ministers in the polity of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, it is necessary to recognize its place in the larger context of discipline which our Book of Church Order provides for the conduct of the ministry. We have already noted that discipline is important for ordering the life of the Church. We are particularly concerned in this paper with how our polity seeks to discipline the conduct of ministry in the Church.

In the first place our polity concerns itself with the preparation of a person for the ministry. The provisions for candidates require among other things that a person be recommended by his or her session, that a person submit to specified requirements for theological education, that a candidate be guided and supervised by Presbytery, and that a candidate be examined.[3] Second, The Book of Church Order provides for the calling and ordination of ministers. We shall return to the concept of ordination presently.

Thirdly, the Book of Church Order requires that Presbytery supervise the work of all ordained ministers. A minister must hold membership in the Presbytery where his work is located, unless there are reasons satisfactory to the presbytery, in which case he or she must receive permission to labor outside the bounds of Presbytery. Should the minister wish to engage in work properly under the jurisdiction of a Presbytery of which he or she is not a member, the Presbytery must grant its permission.[4] In addition, the Commission on the Minister and His Work is required to report annually to Presbytery the type of work in which each minister is engaged.[5] In cases where a minister fails to discharge faithfully his or her official functions, Presbytery is required to make inquiry and if necessary to initiate process against habitual or willful failure to carry out the functions of the ministry.[6]

Finally the discipline of the Church provides for the termination of the work of the ministry. A minister must notify the Commission six months before his or her seventieth birthday, on which birthday the pastoral relationship is ordinarily terminated and the minister is designated as Honorably Retired.[1] The other provision for termination is divesture. The divesture may be without censure at the request of the minister in order for him or her to pursue work not under the jurisdiction of any Church court[2] or it may be the result of process against a minister for neglect of ministerial duty, for heresy and schism and the like.

In sum, ordination fits into a larger context of discipline for the ministry of the Church, and to act definitely on ordination requires taking into consideration this whole context of discipline. Specifically our polity disciplines the conduct of ministry by overseeing the preparation for ministry, the calling and ordination of ministry, the conduct of ministry, and the termination of ministry.

We saw that the Second Helvetic Confession considered the ministry a provision of God's grace for the governance of the Church. As such it is a provision for the well being of the church, but not necessary for the life of the Church. It is of the bene esse, not the esse of the Church. Calvin was convinced that if necessary God would raise up extraordinary forms of ministry. However, since the ministry as we ordinarily understand it is a provision by the grace of God for the governance of the Church, it is incumbent on Presbytery, the court having jurisdiction over the ministers of the Church, to exercise careful scrutiny of the preparation, the calling, and the practice of the ministry of all those who would seek membership.

Another important implication of the understanding of ordination in the Reformed tradition is that it is neither sacramental nor honorific, but rather a functional designation. Whereas in the Roman Catholic and Orthodox traditions ordination implies a qualitatively distinct status for the priesthood, the Reformed understanding of calling prohibits a qualitative distinction between laity and clergy. Ordination is an ordinance, the action of a court of the Church, that authorizes a person to engage in the ministry of the Word. Because of this functional nature of ordination, The Book of Church Order scrupulously requires that anyone to be ordained must be called to a definite work, either under the jurisdiction of Presbytery or specifically authorized by Presbytery.[3]

This functional status has been recognized by the Ad Interim Committee on the Church's Use of Her Ordained Ministry. Ordination > is official rather than personal, functional rather than sacramental. The person is not changed but rather authorized. His gifts are not enlarged but rather recognized. He is, therefore, set aside not for religious status, but for the function of proclaiming the Word in a variety of Ministries.[4]

This functional status implies that no peculiar mystique should pertain to ministers. The converse of this implication is that there should be no onus on those who seek dismissal from the ministry. John Leith has convincingly argued there is no reason why ordination may not be laid aside, and that furthermore, our highly mobile society, in which many persons change vocations, makes understandable the laying aside of the ministry by some. Says Leith, "The notion that laying aside ordination is always culpable, always desertion, is simply unwarranted by the facts of experience."[5] Even though it is clear that our Book of Church Order was written with the conviction that the ministry of the Word was a lifetime vocation, the change that has become a part of modern life would seem to warrant re-evaluation of this conviction. In today's world laying aside the ministry may indicate clarity of purpose, a renewed sense of God's call for some work other than the ministry of the Word.

Finally it must be said that The Book of Church Order manifests a common-sense looseness in the interpretation of the work of the ministry.[1] Ordinarily, ordination is intended to signify the full-time practice of the ministry in a local church. However, the Church considers the work of administrators, teachers, and chaplains important for its life, and therefore provides for their ordination. There is even provision for the ordination of those who will work under the jurisdiction of no church court, if Presbytery judges their work to be "proper to the ministry."[2] The Church today is in a unique position to authorize forms of ministry other than the traditional forms, where these new forms will enhance its mission in the world.

7. That the Reverend I. M. Bagnal be approved as Interim Supply of the Mt. Pleasant Presbyterian Church, Willow Springs, N. C. beginning December 1, 1974.

8. In view of his desire to serve on some of Presbytery's committees and in light of his previous experience in work with candidates, campus ministries, and ministerial relations, and because of his sincere desire to be an active Presbyter, it is recommended that the Reverend Donald Boulton, Dean of Student Affairs at UNC-Chapel Hill, be admitted to membership in Orange Presbytery pending his successful examination as required in paragraph BCO 16-5 and signing of the ministerial obligation; and that he be commended to the Commission on the Minister/Division of Elders Steering Committee for deployment in the mission of Orange Presbytery.

9. In view of his desire to serve churches as a consultant on the church's use of drama, and because he resides within our Presbytery, it is recommended that the Reverend Robert Singdahlsen, teacher and counselor at Durham Academy, be admitted to membership in Orange Presbytery pending his successful examination as required in BCO 16-5 and signing of the ministerial obligation; and that he be commended to the Commission on the Minister/Division of Elders Steering Committee deployment in the mission of Orange Presbytery. Mr. Singdahlsen was then granted the privilege of the floor and spoke to his position at Durham Academy and its relationship to his being an ordained minister.

10. In view of his residing within our Presbytery, and because of his interest in working with small rural churches, it is recommended that the Reverend Richard Lipsey of Garner, N. C., retired Army Chaplain, be admitted to membership in Orange Presbytery pending his successful examination and signing of the ministerial obligation; and that he be commended to the Commission on the Minister/Division of Elders Steering Committee for deployment in the mission of Orange Presbytery.
    A motion passed that Recommendation #10 be received as information and docketed for the January meeting of Presbytery. Mr. Lipsey was ill and unable to attend this meeting.

11. In view of his status as a Candidate under the care of Orange Presbytery, and since the Book of Church Order allows for the ordination of students pursuing graduate studies, and since he is enrolled in the Ph.D. program at Duke University where he is seeking a degree in Biblical Studies, it is recommended that E. Garrett Martin be admitted to membership in Orange Presbytery pending successful examination with a view to ordination and signing of the ministerial obligation; and that upon ordination he be appointed by Presbytery to engage in the aforesaid study.

SACRAMENT OF THE LORD'S SUPPER

Host pastor, Jerry McCann, assisted by Ruling Elders of the St. Paul Presbyterian Church administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

LUNCH

Presbytery recessed for lunch at 12:30 p.m. with prayer. The court reconvened at 1:15 p.m. for business.

OVERTURE FROM THE WESTERN BOULEVARD CHURCH

An Overture from the Session of the Western Boulevard Church brought to the attention of the June 25th meeting of Presbytery was docketed for an Order of the Day for this meeting. The overture is listed below:
RE: Nomination of Commissioners to the General Assembly

TEACHING ELDERS (A Criteria)

Date a minister enrolled in the Presbyterian Church, U. S.
Date enrolled in Orange/Granville Presbyteries
Date of last General Assembly attended
No Teaching Elder shall attend twice until all ministers have the opportunity of attending once.
No more than two Teaching Elders engaged in non-parish ministry shall be elected to attend the General Assembly each year.
No more than one Teaching Elder who is retired shall be considered as a Commissioner to the General Assembly in any one given year.

RULING ELDERS (A Criteria)

Recommend that a list of churches in Orange Presbytery be made and date assigned (3 years in advance) when a specific Church Session shall have the privilege and the responsibility of placing in nomination for election by Presbytery one of its own Session members and one alternate to attend the meeting of the General Assembly as representatives of Orange Presbytery.

Care should be taken to see that large and small churches are represented at each General Assembly meeting.

No church would be represented twice until all churches have had the opportunity of attending General Assembly. Care should be taken to see that Teaching and Ruling Elders from the same church do not attend the same meeting of the General Assembly.

Further be it resolved that no church would be represented two years in succession either by its Teaching or Ruling Elders or both.

The Division of Elders (to whom the Overture was referred) provided the following response which was adopted including recommendations 1, 2 and 3:

RESPONSE OF THE STEERING COMMITTEE OF THE DIVISION OF ELDERS TO THE OVERTURE OF THE WESTERN BOULEVARD CHURCH

We appreciate the seriousness with which the Session of the Western Boulevard Presbyterian Church approached the question of the election of commissioners to the General Assembly in their overture of December 9, 1973 to Orange Presbytery and we recommend that it be answered in the following manner:

We believe it is important to point out that according to the Book of Church Order (16-7, 21) the responsibility for selecting commissioners to the General Assembly resides with Presbytery and not with the local Session. It seems to us contrary to the spirit of this portion of the Book of Church Order to have Sessions nominate their own members for election by Presbytery as commissioners to the General Assembly.

Furthermore, we believe that Presbytery should retain the freedom to select the most committed and competent Christian Elders within its membership, and that nothing should be done to restrict this right.

To assist the Presbytery in making such a choice we would recommend:

1. That Presbytery provide for the use of its Nominating Committee a current roll of Teaching Elders of Orange Presbytery containing the following information:
   a. Status of these persons; i.e., pastors, non-parish, retired
   b. Date of ordination and of enrollment in Presbyterian Church, U.S.
   c. Date of enrollment in Orange/Granville Presbytery
   d. Dates of attendance at General Assembly as a commissioner and Presbytery represented and a current list of churches of Orange Presbytery indicating their membership and the names of Ruling Elders elected as commissioners or alternates during the past fifteen years with their year of service.

2. That Presbytery encourage Teaching and Ruling Elders to make recommendations individually to the Nominating Committee, including with each a brief supporting statement of the nominee's experience and ability.
3. That where the question of effective service in the Assembly is not at issue, the above information be used to insure both that nominees are broadly representative of the Presbytery's constituency and that a maximum number of the members of Presbytery have opportunity to participate in the higher court.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE MINISTER

Lee Adkins, chairman, presented the report of the Commission on the Minister which was admitted to record:

A. Acting as a commission, the Commission on the Minister of Orange Presbytery has considered the following matters and has taken these actions:

I. At its meeting on August 22, 1974 the Commission received the request of the Reverend Thomas K. Farmer, Associate Pastor, University Church, Chapel Hill, N. C., that the pastoral relationship between himself and the church be dissolved effective August 20, 1974 in order that he may accept the call of the First Church, Rocky Mount, N. C., Albemarle Presbytery.

Information was received that a duly called meeting of the congregation was held August 18, 1974, in which the congregation concurred with Mr. Farmer in his request.

ACTION:
The Commission dissolved the pastoral relationship between the Reverend Thomas K. Farmer and the University Church, Chapel Hill, effective August 20, 1974 and directed the Stated Clerk to forward a Certificate of Dismissal to Albemarle Presbytery.

II. At a meeting on October 3, 1974 the Commission heard the request of the Reverend L. French Cowan that the pastoral relationship between himself and the Stoney Creek and the Oakview Churches be dissolved effective September 30, 1974, in order that he may accept the calls of the Asbury, Collinstown and Francisco Churches in Concord Presbytery.

Representatives of the Sessions of the two churches advised the Commission that duly called meetings of the congregations had been held at Stoney Creek on September 22, 1974 and at Oakview on September 30, 1974 in which each congregation voted to concur with Mr. Cowan in his request.

ACTION:
The Commission dissolved the pastoral relationship between the Reverend L. French Cowan and the Stoney Creek and Oakview Churches effective September 30, 1974, declared the pulpits open and directed the Stated Clerk to forward a Certificate of Dismissal to the Presbytery of Concord.

III. The Commission cites the action of Presbytery referring the matter of the disposition of the pastoral relationship of the Reverend David Hamilton to the Commission. In regard to this, we ask the court to hear a resolution from the Administrative Commission to Deal with Churches Contemplating Withdrawal from the Denomination.
"In as much as David Hamilton has renounced the communion and authority of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. by his own statement requesting that his name be erased from the roll of Orange Presbytery on December 3, 1973:

That in accord with the Book of Church Order 111-3 the irregularity of Mr. Hamilton's action be recorded and all authority be withdrawn from him to exercise the office of minister in the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., and that his name be erased from the roll of Orange Presbytery."

REPORT OF DIVISION OF EDUCATION AND MISSION

William A. Stewart, chairman, presented a report on World Hunger. George Carpenter, a member of the division, spoke of the biblical text regarding Hunger, Matthew 25. The division responded with recommendations that the Resolution of World Hunger Page 46 which was referred to this division, be adopted. Presbytery responded by adopting this Resolution with its recommendations (3). Stewart Ellis led Presbytery in a Litany on Hunger.

Hal Clark was declared as having been duly installed according to the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. after which the right hand of fellowship was extended to Mr. Clark.

Al Dimmock charged Mr. Clark and the charge to both Presbytery and the Division of Education and Mission was presented by Angus McGregor. The service of Installation was closed with prayer by the moderator after the singing of the benediction.

She gave information as to the composition of the Permanent Committee which includes four ministers and of the work they are beginning in local churches to raise the consciousness of women being willing to serve as officers and on committees of the church courts. The following recommendation was adopted:

> That all pastors and sessions be encouraged to provide some continuing education fees and time away from work for the person performing the task of administration in the local church to engage in a program offered at the Presbyterian School of Christian Education July 28 - August 1, 1975, costing approximately $130 for tuition, room and board, entitled the National Institute on Church Management. EXAMINATION PROCEDURES

The Procedures on Examination of Ministers and Candidates of Orange Presbytery were presented and were adopted as follows:

Proposed changes in the BCO that will affect examination procedures, especially in the case of ministers transferring from other denominations, are presently under consideration by the presbyteries of the PCUS. The outcome of this consideration will affect our future policies for dealing with transfers in this category. However, the following provisional policies for dealing with candidates and transfers from within our denomination can be and are herewith recommended for Presbytery's consideration and adoption now:

I. Procedures for Examination of Candidates

1. The written examination in Bible, theology, government, and sacraments shall provide the basis for permission for a candidates to move onto the field.

a. The examinations may be administered at the office of Presbytery or at the candidate's seminary under rules established by the Division of Elders (DE).

b. Each part will be read by two persons qualified to judge competence in the area covered. They shall report that the candidate has passed or has failed.

c. In the case of failure the two who have read the part of the examination failed shall provide the candidate with a critique explaining why the examination in that area was not satisfactory.

d. The candidate may retake those portions of the examination failed.

e. No candidate may move onto the field until all parts of the examination have been passed.

2. After the candidate has passed the written examination, he/she shall submit parts of trial.

a. These parts of trial shall include an exegesis from the original language, a theological theme, and a sermon.

b. The DE may assign topics for the parts of trial but may also allow the candidate to present work done in seminary in lieu of assigned topics.

c. The DE shall provide each candidate with instructions on the preparation of the exegesis and theological theme.

d. It may be possible for a candidate to finish the parts of trial in time for examination in June after a spring graduation from seminary, but it should not be considered unusual for a candidate to require a longer time.

e. If the persons judging the parts of trial find any part unsatisfactory, they may take one of the following actions:

(1) Ask that the part of trial be resubmitted after further study along lines suggested by those reading the part.

(2) Request that Presbytery proceed with the candidate's ordination and appoint for the candidate a tutor in the area of weakness who will report within a year to Presbytery on the progress of the candidate.

f. By allowing a candidate to move onto the field the DE obligates itself to the candidate and the candidate's church to work with the candidate in fields of weakness. Only in the most extreme cases of incompetence or failure to follow suggestions for continued study by the DE should the DE recommend that Presbytery refuse to ordain a candidate on the grounds of poor performance in the written parts of trial.

3. No less than two weeks after reception of the written parts of trial the DE shall proceed to the oral examination of the candidate.

a. The DE shall examine the candidate as to his/her knowledge and views in Bible, theology, government, and sacraments.

b. If the DE is not satisfied with the candidate's performance in any of these areas, it should follow one of the procedures outlined above in I-2-e.

c. At this examination the DE shall also provide the candidate with an oral critique of the written parts of trial.

4. Upon initial contact with the DE the candidate shall be informed that he/she is to provide the DE with the following additional material:

   a. A vita.

   b. A transcript of all seminary and graduate work.

   c. A statement of faith not to exceed 500 words which shall summarize the candidate's views on the following matters:

      (1) Father, Son, and Holy Ghost

      (2) Scripture

      (3) The government and mission of the Church

      (4) The Sacraments

      (5) The candidate's personal experience

   d. The DE shall inform the candidate that these materials must be in the hands of the DE before the oral examination.

5. The candidate shall be examined on the floor of Presbytery.

   a. The candidate shall preach a brief sermon before Presbytery after which Presbytery shall vote as to whether to sustain the sermon as a part of trial. Presbytery has authority to request that sermons be held to a given length of time for reasons of convenience.

   b. The candidate shall read his/her statements (v.s. I-4-c) to Presbytery without elaboration.

   c. The DE shall make one of the following recommendations to Presbytery:

      (1) That the examination be sustained pending questions from the floor;

      (2) That Presbytery examine in one or more areas which the DE regards to be questionable;

      (3) That the examination be sustained and that the candidate be directed to undertake additional study under a tutor appointed for that purpose who will report within a year on the candidate's (new minister's) progress;

      (4) That in view of certain weaknesses discovered by the DE completion of the examination be deferred until these weaknesses are overcome with the tutorial help of the DE;

      (5) That Presbytery itself examine the candidate with the information that the DE has found the examination to be unsatisfactory.

6. It is understood that the DE may in no way act as a commission in the examination process and that the Presbytery assembled alone has authority to sustain or not to sustain examination of candidates. Presbytery recognizes, however, that evaluation of written examinations and parts of trial and detailed oral examination in the required areas of knowledge can best be done by a smaller group appointed to that purpose. Presbytery at all times may inquire into the details of the examination procedure and, indeed, must inquire when any question arises about that procedure.

II. Procedure for Examination of Transfers from Other Presbyteries of the PCUS

1. A minister wishing to transfer to Orange Presbytery shall be informed by the DE that he should forward immediately the items specified in I-4-a and I-4-c to the DE.
2. In some cases, as, for instance, when the minister is a former member of Orange Presbytery, the DE may immediately grant the minister permission to move onto the field. In other cases the DE shall appoint a small committee to meet with the minister and shall decide whether to grant permission to move after considering that committee's report.
3. The DE shall meet with the minister and examine him/her as to his/her religious experience and views in the areas specified by the BCO.
4. At the time of examination before Presbytery, the minister shall read his/her statement (v.s. I-4-c) to Presbytery without elaboration.
5. The DE shall then make recommendation to Presbytery in the language I-5-c-1, I-5-c-2, or I-5-c-5.

LIAISON COMMITTEE

David Garrison, chairman of the Committee on Liaison, presented the report of this committee and recommendations number 1-7 were adopted:

REPORT OF THE LIAISON COMMITTEE

Since June the Liaison Committee has received General Assembly Commissioners' evaluations (generally very positive) of the training experience we arranged for them and has undertaken planning of Presbytery's study of The Proposed Book of Confessions. This study was requested by the 1974 General Assembly and Presbytery responses must be submitted by February 1, 1975 in order to be heard.

We feel that this is such an important set of issues that Presbytery should allow ample opportunity for discussion and ample time to formulate carefully any suggested responses or amendments. Therefore we propose, with general concurrence of Presbytery's Council, these recommendations:

1) That upon completion of its business October 29, Presbytery adjourn to meet at 12:30 p.m., Tuesday, December 10 at the First Presbyterian Church, Burlington, for the sole purpose of study of the Proposed Book of Confessions. (This meeting to conclude no later than 5:30 p.m.)

2) That Presbytery encourage Sessions and local church groups to study The Proposed Book of Confessions prior to December 10.

3) That Presbytery encourage all Ruling Elders, particularly commissioners to the January 25 meeting of Presbytery, to attend the December 10 meeting.

4) That, in the interest of Presbytery's time, members noticing typographical errors in The Proposed Book of Confessions or proposing amendments to "A Declaration of Faith" solely for purposes of clarification or stylistic improvement communicate them in writing to Presbytery's Stated Clerk for printing in the January "Orange Book."

5) That proposed amendments of substance to "A Declaration of Faith" and/or resolutions of response to The Proposed Book of Confessions be submitted in time to be printed in the January "Orange Book" and be docketed at a late hour in the January 25 meeting of Presbytery.

6) That Presbytery request discussion leader and small group reporters from the December 10 study meeting to convene shortly thereafter in order to propose amendments or resolutions that reflect Presbytery's discussion.

7) That Presbytery remind Sessions that commissioners to the January 25 meeting will be better prepared if they have attended the December 10 study meeting and encourage a genuine effort to have all participants prepared in advance of the December meeting.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Middleton Raynal proposed the adoption of the resolution printed on page 58 of these minutes regarding the conveyance of property formerly known as the Goldston Presbyterian Church from trustees of Fayetteville Presbytery to trustees of the former Goldston Church. REPORT OF RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

Mary L. Hodgin, chairman, presented the report of the Resolutions Committee which was unanimously adopted:

It is a happy privilege to extend sincere thanks to you at the St. Paul Church, one and all.

You have certainly put your best foot forward in arranging this meeting of Presbytery. From the friendly greeting of the Boy Scouts who directed us to parking spaces to the warmth with which your Elders served communion, we have sensed the spirit of your church evidenced by its ministry and growth.

To the Women of the Church we say a special "Thank You" for delicious food to nourish our bodies.

It is a pleasure being here in your beautiful church facility. We do thank you for having us.
